Mr. Joseph Winterburn, the well-known blacksmith, of Selkirk street, Ont., says: "I am a blacksmith by trade, and the heavy work I am obliged to do brought on kidney weakness with its attendant backaches and other troubles, among which was an almost constant desire to urinate, accompanied by a burning sensation when voiding the urine.

"My rest was very frequently broken, and I felt tired and weary most of the time. I had tried a great many remedies in the hope of a cure but without success. I may say that the urine was of a wine color and precipitated a thick cloudy deposit. At last I heard of Doun's Kidney Pills, and went to the Drug store for a box.

"On beginning their use, I felt much relieved. My back ceased to ach, the wrine assumed its natural condition, and aventure and I seed with the condition.

relieved. My tack ceased to acht, the urine assumed—its natural condition, and appearance and I steadily improved in health and strength. My energy and vigor returned, and I am now well and strengt. I can say without hesitation that I am completely cured, and have not the slightest pain or sche of any kind.

"I cannot speak too highly in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills, and would advise anyone suffering from kidney trouble of any kind to give them a trial."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents a box or three for $1.25, at all druggists.

ETERNAL DARKNESS

A Glimpse of What the Earth Would be Without the Gospel.

The Eminent Divine Vividly Portrays the Gloom of an Infidel World -- The Triumph of Atheism Would Mean the Death of Civilization.

Washington, May 14.—In this sermon Dr. Talmage gives a glimpse of what the world would be it the gospel were abolished and the human race left without divine guidance. The text is Acts it, 20. "The sun shall be turned intoglarkness." Christianity is the rising sun of our time, and men have tried with the unrolling vapors of skepticism and the smoke of their blasphemy to turn the sun into darkness. Suppose the archangels of malice and horror should be let loose a little while and be allowed to extinguish and destroy the sun in the natural heavens! They would take the oceans from other worlds and pour them on the luminary of the planetary system, and the waters go hissing down amid the ravines and the oaverns, and there is explosion after explosion, until there are only a few peaks of fire left in the sim, and these are cooling down and going out until the vast continents of flame are reduced to a small acreage of fire, and that whitens and cools off until there are only a few coals left, and these are whitening and going out until there are only a few coals left, and these are whitening and going out until there are only a few coals left, and these are whitening and spoing out until there are only a few coals left, and these are whitening and spoing out until the valleys of ashes and the chasms of ashes. An extinguished sun! A dead sun! A buried sun! Let all worlds wail at the supendous obsequies.

valleys of ashes and the chasms of ashes, An extinguished sun! A dead sun! A, buried sun! Let all worlds wail at the stupendous obsequies.

Of course this withdrawal of the solar light and heat throws our earth into a universal chill, and the tropies become the temperate, and the temperate becomes the Arctic, and there are frozen rivers and frozen lakes and frozen oceans. From Arctic to Antarctic regions the inhabitants gather in toward the center and find the equator at the poles. The siain forests are piled up into a great bonfire, and around them gather the shivering villages and cities. The wealth of the conl mines is hastily poured into the furnaces and stirred into rage of combustion, but soon the bonfires begin to lower, and the furnaces and stirred into rage of combustion, but soon the bonfires begin to lower, and the furnaces and stirred into rage of combustion, but soon the bonfires begin to lower, and the furnaces begin to go out, and the nations begin to die. Cotopaxi, Vesuvius, Etna, Stromboli, California geyers, cease to smoke, and the ice of halistoms remains unmelted in their crater. All the flowers have breathed their last breath. Ships with sailors frozen at the mast, and helmsmen frozen at the mast, and helmsmen frozen at the median dying, first at the north and then at the south. Child frosted and dead in the cradia. Oetogenarian frested and dead at the hearth. Workmen with frozen hand on the hammer and frozen foot on the shuttle. Winter from sea to sea. All congaling winter. Perpetual winter. Globe of frigidity. Hemisphere shackled to hemisphere by chains of ice. Universal Nova Zembla. The earth an ice floe grinding against other ice flots. The archangels of malice and horror have done their work, and now they may take their thrones of glacler and look down upon their work, and now they may take their thrones of glacler and look down upon the ruin they have wrought. What the destruction of the sun in the natural beavens would be to our physical earth, the destruction of the sun in the natur

Infidelity a Tragedy.

Infidelity in our time is considered a great joke. There are people who rejoice to hear Christianity caricatured and to hear Christianity and atheism out of the realm of jocularity into one of tragedy and show you what infidels propose and what if they are successful they will accomplish. There are those in all our communities who would like to see the Christian religion overthrown and who say the world would be better without it. I want to show you what is the end of this road and what is the terminus of this crusade and what this world will be when atheism and infidelity have triumphed over it, if they can. I say, if they can I reiterate it, if they can. In the first place, it will be the complete and unutterable degradation of womanhood. I will prove it by facts and arguments which no honest man will dispute. In all communities and cities and states and nations where the Christian religion has been dominant woman's condition has been ameliorated and improved, and she is deferred to and honored in a thousand things, and every proved, and she is deferred to and honored in a thousand things, and every gentleman takes off his hat before her. If your associators have been good, you know that the name of wife, mother, daughter, suggests gracious surroundings. You know there are no better schools and seminaries in this country than the schools and seminaries for our young ladies. You know that while woman may suffer injustice in England and the United States she has more of her rights in Christendom than she has anywhere else.

Wemas and Christianity. and she is deferred to and honor-ted States she has more of her rights in Christendom than she has anywhere else. Weman and Christianity.

Now, compare this with woman secondition in lands where Christianity has made little or no advance—in China, is Barbary, in Borneo, in Tartary, in Egypt, in Hindous Bible makes it disgraceful and an outrage for a woman to listen to music or look out of the window in the absence of her husband and gives as a lawful ground for divorce a woman's beginning to eat before her husband and gives as a lawful ground for divorce a woman's beginning to eat before her husband has finished his meal. What mean those white bundles on the ponds and rivers in China in the morning? Infanticide. Female children destroyed simply because they are female. Woman welled and barricaded and in all styles of cruel seclusion. Her birth a misforum. Her life a torsture. Her death a horror. The missionary of the cross to day in heathen lands preaches generally to two groups—a group of men who do as they please and sit where they please; the other group, women hidden and carefully secluded in a side spartment, where they may hear the voice of the preacher, but may not be seen. No refinement. No ilberty. No hope for the life to come. Binged nose. Cramped foos. Dusfigured face. Embrated soul. Now, compare those two conditions that I speak of would woman go if Christian influences were withdrawn and Christian-ity were destroyed? It is only a duestion certain point and not fastened there and the lifting power be withdrawn, how long before that object will fall down to the point from which it started? It will fall down, and it will go still farther than the point from which it started? It will fall down, and it will go still farther than the point from which it started? Christianity has lifted woman up from the very depths of degradation almost to the skies. If that lifting power be withdrawn, she falls clear back to the depth from which she was resurrected, not going any lower, because there is no lower depth. And yet, notwithstanding the fact that the only salvation of woman from degradation and we is the Christian religion—and the only influence that has ever lifted her in the social scales is Christianity—I have read that there are women who reject Christianity. I make no emark in regard to those persons. In the silence of your own soul make your observations.

Seciety Demeralized.

If infidelity triumph and Christianity be overthrown, it means the demoralization of society. The one idea in the Bible that atheists and infidels most hate is the idea of retribution. Take away the idea of retribution. Take away the idea of retribution. Take away the idea of retribution and punishment from society, and it will begin very soon to disintegrate and take away from the minds of men the fear of hell, and there are a great many of them who would very soon turn this world into a hell. The majority of those who are indignant against the Bible because of the idea of punishment are men whose lives are bad or whose hearts are impure and who hate the Bible because of the idea of future punishment for the same reason that criminals hate the penitentiary. Oh, I have heard this brave talk about people fearing nothing of the consequences of sin in the next world, and I have made up my mind it is merely a coward's whisting to keep his courage up. I have seen men flaunt their immoralities in the face of the community, and I have heard them defy the judgment day and sooff at the idea of any future consequence of their sin, but when they came to die they shrieked until you could hear them for nearly two blocks, and in the summer night the neighbors got up to put the windows down because they could not endure the horror.

I would not want to see a rail train with 500 Christian people on board go down through a drawbridge into a watery grave; I would not want to see 500 Christian people go into such disaster, but I tell you plainly that I could more easily see that than I could for any protracted time stand and see an infidel die, though his pillow were of elder down and unders a canopy of vermillion. I have never been able to brace up my nerves for such a spectacle. There is something at such a time so indescribable in the countenance. I just looked in upon it for a minute or two, but the clutch of his fist was so diabolic and the strength of his voice was so unnatural I could not endure it. "

If Athelem Triumphed. Suppose now these generals of atheism and infidelity got the victory and suppose they marshaled a great army made up of the majority of the world. They are in companies, in regiments, in brigades—the whole army. Forward, march, ye hosts of infidels and atheists, banners flying before, banners flying before, banners flying before, beaners flying before the flying before the whose army. Forward, march, ye nosts of infidels and athelists, banners flying before, banners flying before the banners flying banners flying before the banners flying before the banners flying bann teries, and where you see "Asleep In Jesus" cut it away, and where you find as marble story of heaven blast it, and where you find over a little child's grave "Suffer Little Child'en to Come Unto Me". Substitute the words "delusion" and "sham." and where you find an angel in marble strike off the wings, and when you come to a family vault chisel on the door, "Dead once, dead forever." But on, ye great army of infidels and atheists, on! They will attempt te scale heaven. There are heights to be taken. Pile hill on hill and Pelion upon Ossa, and then they hoist the ladders against the walls of heaven. On and on until they blow up the foundations of jasper and the gates of pearl. They charge up the steep. Now they aim for the throne of him who liveth forever and ever. They would take down from their high place the Father, the Son, the Holy Ghost. "Down with them!" they say. "Down forever! Down out of sight! He is not God. He has no right to sit there. Down with him! Down with Christ!"

A world without a head, a universe without a king. Orphan constellations. Fatherless galaxies. Anarchy supreme. A dethroned Jehovah. An assassinated God. Patricide, regicled, cheide. That is what they mean. That is what they will have if they can. I say, if they can. Civilization hurled back into semi-barbarism and semi-barbarism driven back into Hottentot savagery. The wheel of progress turned the other way and turned toward the dark ages. The clock of the centuries put back 2,000 years. Go back, you Sandwich Islands, from your schools and from your colleges and from your reformed condition to what you were in, 1820. When the missionaries first came. Call home the 500 missionaries from India and overthrow their 2,000 schools, where they are trying to educate the heathen, and scatter the 100,000 little children that they have gathered out of barbarism intervillization. Obliterate all the work of Dr. Duff in India, of David Absel in China, of Dr. King in Grecce, of Judson in Burma, of David Brainerd and the American aborigines, and s and squalor and death the nations whom ye have begun to lift.

A Nefarious Flet.

Oh, my friends, there has never been such a nefarious plot on earth as that which infidelity and atheism have planned. We were shocked a few years ago because of the attempt to blow up the Parliament Houses in London, but if infidelity and atheism succeed in their attempt they will dynamite a world. Let them have their full way, and this world will be a habitation of three rooms—a habitation with just three rooms, the one a madhouse, another a leasarctio, the other a pandemonium. These infidel bands of music have only just begun their concert—yea, they have only been stringing their instruments. I to-day put before you their whole program from beginning unto close. In the theatre the tragedy comes first and the farce afterward, but in this infidel drama of death the farce comes first and the tragedy afterward. And in the former atheists and infidels laugh and mock, but in the latter God himself will laugh and mock. He says so. "I will laugh at their calamity and mock when their fear cometh."

From such a chasm of individual, national, worldwide ruin, stand back. Oh, young men, stand back from that chasm I you see the practical drift of my sermon. I want you to know where the road leads. Stand back from the chasm of ruin. The time is going to come (you and I may not live to see its, but it will come; just as certainly as there is a God it will come) when the infidels and the atheists who openly and out and out and above board preach and practice infidelity and atheism will be considered as criminals against society, as they are new criminals against society as they are new criminals against folicies

Victory for Christianity.

Victory for Christianity.

A thousand voices come up to me this hour, saying: "Do you really think infidelity will succeed? Has Christianity received its deathblow? and will the Bible become obsolete?" Yes, when the smoke of the city chimney arrests and destroys the noonday sun. Josephus says about the stime of the destruction of Jerusalem the sun was turnfed into darkness, but only the clouds rolled between the sun and the earth. The sun went right on. It is the same sun, the same luminary, as when at the beginning it shot out like an electric spark from God's finger, and to-day it is warming the nations, and to-day it is warming the nations, and to-day it is warming the nations, and to-day it is marming the nations, and to-day it is glidingshe sea, and to-day it is filling the earth with its light. The same old sun, not at all wormout, though its light steps 190,000,000 miles a second, though its pulsations are 450,000,000,000.

Ou undulations in a second. The same sun with beautiful white light made up of the violet, and the indigo, and the blue, and the green, and the red, and the yellow, and the orange—the seven beautiful colors, now just as when the solar spectrum first divided them.

At the beginning God said: "Let there be light," and light was, and light is, and light shall be. Se Christianity is rolling on, and it is going to warm all nations and all nations are to bask in its light. Men may shut the window himds so they cannot see it, or they may smoke the pipe of speculation until they are shadowed under their own vaporing, but the Lord God is a sun! This white light of the southern groves, and the venture of the southern groves, and the red of the auments. All the beauties of carth and heaven brought out by this spiritual spectrum. Great Britain is going to take all Europe for God. The United States are going to take America for God. All three of them will take Africa for God. "Who art them, O great mountain? Hefore Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain." "The mount of the Lord God hath moken it." H one doctor in a thousand will attribute these troubles to the right cause—weakness or disease of the sensitive feminine organs, yet almost without exception there lies the trouble. And there is just one known remedy that reaches and cures every case. It is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes women young again. It gives new strength and virility to the organs long harassed by weakness and disease. It promptly heals inflammation and ultraretion, stops was reaches the head and prepares for motherhood. It banishes morning sickness and other discomforts of ante-maternity. It makes "new women." One letter among thousands says:

the Creole Belles' Social Debut.

"Society goes to the French opera on Saturday night because its great-grand-fathers handed the custom down to it," writes Harrydele Hallmark in The Ladies' Home Journal. "So established is this custom that no social function is ever prepared for Saturday evening during the season. The family that gives out an invitation for that night is immediately classed as not versed in the usages of society and not worthy to be known. This is so deep-rooted in Creole life that such an invitation would be jeered at as if coming from a barbarian.

"The best singers save their voices for this crowning night, and the house is like a private ballroom, where the guests visit and laugh and chat from the balconies of the boxes as they do from the little iron balconies that connect their houses. If one does not go to the opera on Saturday night through lack of invitation or money one is very careful nat to be seen elsewhere giving out the suggestion that sickness or trouble impelled one's absence. The proud Creoles of the French set, some of them in grinding poverty, ignore all the Mardi Gas festivities, ignore all shat costs a pleayune, in order to save the amount to appear at the opera on Saturday night.

"Ne debutante of New Orleans enters society in the correct and approved manner unless she make her debut in a box on this particular evening. If the social aspirant has sufficient money and tact se secure the good-will of a leading family to invite her debutante daughter into its box, this daughter has received the most precious hall-mark of society. If a man who owes a social call pays the call to his friends in their box at the opera it is just the same as if he called at their house. The centre boxes are reserved for the debutantes. There they are wood and sometimes won, but certainly there they make or mar their chances for beliehod. Some of
