WINTER PORT MATTERS.

The Allan liner Parislan, which reached Halifax at 12.45 yesterday morning from Liverpool, after a long voyage, due to adverse weather, left for St. John at 12.40 yesterday afternoon. She will land here 8 saloon, 8 second cabin and 7 steerage passengers. She has 1,200 tons of cargo to be landed at St. John. This will be the first visit of the Parislan to St. John this season, and a more popular boat never ran in the mail service. The Donaldson line str. Alcides, Captain Horsburg, left No. 4 berth at Sand Point for Glasgow with a call at Liverpool to land a part of her cattle at 1 p. m. yesterday.
