LOOKING IN PAWNSHOPS FOR STOLEN JEWELS

NEW YORK, March 8.—Central office detectives and representatives of private agencies are making a thorough canvass among pawnbrokers and dealers in precious stones throughout the city, in search of diamonds worth $50,000, which were stolen several days ago from the J. J. Sweeney Jewellery Company in Houston, Texas. A reward of $10,000 has been offered for the return of the jewels. The authorities in Houston believe the thief was a New York man and would dispose of his plunder here.

MONTREAL'S MISSING ARTIST IS FOUND IN VIRGINIA

MONTREAL, March 8.—Mrs. Arthur Behanna, who disappeared two weeks ago in Norfolk, Virginia, with her daughter. Although word had been received before saying she was not there, a telegram yesterday said she had arrived. No details are given. The Ottawa senior hockey team played an exhibition game with Renfrew, an intermediate team, last night, and were beaten 9 to 5. The Cornwall accident had unnerved them and the referees sent Ottawa men to the side if they moved.

COMMERCIAL

WALL STREET.

NEW YORK, March 8.—The stock market opened weak. Individual stocks showed severe declines on the opening sales, and the list generally was considerably lower than last night on active dealings. Declines in most of the active speculative stocks ran to a large fraction.

CHAMPION HAMMER THROWER AND FORMER POLITICIAN DEAD

MONTREAL, March 8.—L. C. Rodier, a former politician and champion hammer thrower, died at his home at Cornwall today, aged 65. Besides his political career he was well known as an athlete. His records with the hammer still stand. At a picnic the hammer killed a boy and he never threw again.

My experience goes to show that there is no more direct and sure investment than the placing of a business before the people by advertising. —Manager Hale, N. E. Conservatory of Music.

NEW SPRING CLOTHING!

More men every day are hearing of the goodness of the clothing we are selling. More rapidly than we had reason to expect we are wiping out the prejudice that once existed against ready-to-wear clothes. We have set a standard of our own and have gone into the clothing subject deeply and with conscience. We have made up our minds to supply the best ready-to-wear clothes obtainable in Canada. We have formed connections with the best makers and can sell you the most perfectly tailored clothing extant. These are pretty broad statements, but if you will give us an opportunity we will demonstrate to your entire satisfaction the accuracy of every word.

Spring Suits.

Conservative materials for dress wear and for business, and in the shadier fabrics for those who like them best, cut in the most distinctive styles, elegantly trimmed, faultlessly tailored, perfect in fit, at prices beginning $10 and rising by easy stages to $25.

Frockcoats and Waistcoats

Cut in latest models, made of black vicuna cloth $18.50 and $20.

Trousers,

In handsome and effective stripes, a large variety to choose from, at from $2.50 to $6.50.

Spring Overcoats,

In Covert Coats and Chesterfields, fancy patterns, greys and dressy blacks. And drive the long $12 to $25.

Raincoats,

In quiet and very smart cloths, a large selection $5.50 to $25.

Cotton, Linen, Flannel and Wool Vests

For Spring and Summer in immense variety. We have developed a big business in vests because we price them on the principle of small profits and quick sales. Prices $1.10 to $3.75. We invite you to inspect the most stylish, best-fitting ready-to-wear garments that have ever been shown in St. John.

WILL ENTERTAIN BRYCE

ON HIS WAY TO CANADA

British Minister to be the Guest of Honor at a Banquet in New York

NEW YORK, March 8.—The Right Hon. James Bryce, the British ambassador, and Mrs. Bryce, who will visit Canada the latter part of this month, will be publicly and privately entertained here enroute; the Pilgrim Society will give a dinner for the ambassador and he will be the guest of the Chamber of Commerce at a special meeting on March 28. He will meet the members and will be given a luncheon after the reception.

Ex-Ambassador Jos. H. Choate and Mrs. Choate, will give a dinner for Mrs. Bryce, March 22, at their home, and March 23, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander will give a reception for the Bryces at their town house.

MCGEE SENTENCED TO

EIGHT YEARS IN PRISON

MONTREAL, March 8.—W. J. McGee, ex-secretary of the Shamrock Lacrosse Club, who embezzled some $25,000 from the People's Building Society by forgery, was today sentenced to five years for forgery, three years for theft, the sentences to run consecutively. On two other charges, sentence was suspended.

MONCTON HOCKEYISTS

ARE OUT OF THE GAME

Two of Them Injured and One Away—Contest With Sackville Has Been Postponed.

(Special to the Star.)

MONCTON, N. B., March 8.—On account of accidents to players the Victorians will be unable to go to Sackville tonight to play a return game with the N. B. A. H. L. team there. Last night at practice Billy Styles, spare defence man, fell and struck his face on a skate, inflicting a terrible gash which required a number of stitches. Thomas was injured the night before while skating in the rink, falling and badly injuring his knee, and last night Cushing, right wing of the team, was called to Maligne to attend an I. C. R. investigation. The team is thus deprived of two regular and one spare players, and could not put on a team to play Sackville tonight, so the game was postponed until next week. Guy Arthur, the well known local trotting horse which has a mark of 2:29.4, was sold this morning to W. H. Copp of Port Elgin for three hundred dollars. W. H. Wilson of Moncton was owner.

Joseph Crockett will go to St. John tomorrow to represent this city at the conference between the N. B. A. H. L. and Maritime Province Athletic Association representatives.

ALL THE NEWS OF INTEREST FROM VICTORIA COUNTY

(Victoria County News.)

We receive the news each week and is looked for as anxiously as a letter from home.

No wonder the boys sing Oh land of rest for thee I sight. When will those moments come. When we shall lay the Bob Sleds by. And drive the long sled home.

Times are very good at present glad to see people doing so well.

Some of the folks of this place were visiting friends at Cogan a week or so ago.

Glad to see our doctor home a gain back on the hill.

Please inform Mrs. Lucy that her cards are getting sleepy.

Mrs. Thomas Underwood has been calling on Mrs. Jas. McCormick and new baby.

Hello Mary got a letter after long waiting but not from the one she admired.

We see our number 45 mail carrier is on the war path again he got Postal Card instead of Valentine. Bill Gillespie was calling on friends Saturday. Guy Porter was here on one day last week taking orders for phosphate we hope the fellow that is driving the black team on Sison branch will desert the house on the hill this summer. The pulp is moving across the Lake to Uncle Sam prayer beads are the talk of the day.

La Grippe is still around, leaving slowly. Mrs. Percy Everett is sick again with rheumatism.

Mr. Fowler called at B. L. B. one day this week.

Glad to see the smiling boy from Bridgewater. Burt is calling on his brother-in-law Fitz. Cold house sell at James D's.

The fat Ashman was home for Sunday. Longfellow has gone to Caribou. A. A. Lennon has been doing some sealing for J. R. Fanning at Rapids de Penne, Silver Beach, Gallagher Brown and Medford.

Miss Julia Bowmaster is spending the winter with her Aunt here. You don't suppose everyone caught that hearty laugh at the wedding. Four sheep were killed by the C. P. R. one day last week, they belonged to Willie Hitchcock. The British have landed several car loads of pulp wood at Limestone siding. The Whippervill will sing next Saturday night, come with your doe.

Udine has been asleep for quite a while but is woke up now.

Some of the lumber camps are breaking up now, the young girls will be glad when they all come out.

Mr. Rideout and wife and son, was calling on friends Saturday.

Pretty new organs are the order of the day now but some of the folks will try new pianos.

Very bad roads in this vicinity looks as though the snow plough was needed.

Chan. Brown and family have returned home from the woods all are pleased to see them.

The McInnes boys have returned home, some of the girls are wearing smiling faces.

Wonder what has become of David suppose he has the toothache.

Arlington Day was visiting John Day.

Mrs. and Miss Lafling took tea one day last week with Miss Day, both report a pleasant afternoon.

Easter is fast drawing near. How are your hens? ours seem to know that Easter is coming.

Congratulations at the home of Frank Bishop on the arrival of a son.

The people of this place are very much pleased to have their mail three times a week, especially on Saturday

so the boys and girls can write their letters on Sunday. But we ain't very much pleased with our post master as he seems to be very cross when we go for our mail and says she has to clean dirt after the whole Narrows. I guess Walter intends to drive the mail, he has put himself inside of a big fur coat so he looks just like a chicken peeping out of its shell.

John Allen has resigned working on the Section in favor of William Williamson at Rowena.

I think the plow boy has taken up the job of plowing the roads, as I have not heard from him for some time. I thought I would send a few to let the public know we are still living.

As it is lent now times are very quiet so I will not promise to write anything very interesting.

Most of the children of this place have the whooping cough which makes the attendance at school very small.

Miss Della V. Cassidy who has
