ST. JOHN GIRL ARRESTED POPE SENDS BLESSING FOR ATTEMPTED MURDER TO CANADIAN CATHOLICS

Message From His Holiness Received by Mgr. Sharetti Forwarded to

NAHANT, Mass., Aug. 9.—Ida Bursey, aged 19, said to be of St. John, N. B., has been arrested here, charged with attempting murder on her three months' old baby. The child was found on Nahant beach yesterday, wedged between two rocks. Otherwise than being chafed and bruised the baby was an uninjured. It had been washed up between the rocks by the tide. A negro, named George Jackson, states that the baby had been living at his house for several weeks. It had been brought there by a colored woman who wanted him to look after it. Chief Larkin thinks that the child was carried to the meach and thrown The following message, including greeting and benediction to Canadian Catholics from the Holy Father, was received this week by His Lordship Bishop Casey:
