HAZEN TRIES TO SHUT OFF EXPOSURE OF IRREGULARITIES

Hon. Mr. Grimmer stated that the

Mr. Tweeddale said that the yeracity of his statements had been questioned by the surveyor general and he only wished to put before the house evidences and affidavits to verify what he had said about Mr. Stevenson.

Hon. Mr. Hazen said that the member for Victoria wished to read affidavits and make statements at this late hour in the session so they could go before the country and no fair opportunity be given to reply to them. The surveyor general intended to investigate the whole matter, and it was decidedly unfair for the member for Victoria to pince his side of the quest tion before the house and the country without opportunity for mr. Stevenson to be heard, which opportunity could not be afforded at this late hour of the session.

Mr. Robinson (Westmorland), said that members of the house had some rights. It was not Mr. Stevenson whose veracity was questioned but it was the hon. member for Victoria and surely the member for Victoria and surely the member for Victoria and affidavits read by the surveyor general that gave the direct lie to statements made by the member for Victoria and surely the member for Victoria and surely the member for Victoria and surely the member for Victoria statements made by the member for Victoria and surely the member for V

Hon. Mr. Hazen said there was already a provision in the municipalities act under which the county councils act under which the county councils could impose a tax on non-residents coming into the county to work. He believed they could not legally tax laborers on the Government railway and he did not see what good would be accomplished by passing the bill.

Mr. Woods thought people of our own country must be protected. By the morning papers he saw where a Queens Co. man had been stabbed by foreigner who was there without paying any tax, and the county would be put to large expense to deal with him in addition to having heavy criminal ex-

GUSSIP REGARDING THE NEW CHAIRMEN

Caucus Will be Held Tomorrow Afternoon But the List is Pretty Well Picked in Advance.

The allocation of the chairmanships of the various stanting committees is one of the chief toples of conversation around City Hall these days. The caucus of the aldermen will be held tomorrow afternoon to decide the question, but in the meantime the list is pretty well gramed up. Ald. McGoldrick shows no signs of letting go his grip on the Board of Public Works and will likely continue. Ald. Baxter has been for the past year on the Treasury Board, and will probably continue in charge of it. Ald. Frink has expressed a desire to get out of the duties connected with the chairmanship of the Water and Sewerage Board, but in compliance with the desire of the other aldermen is likely to take up the work again this year. Ald. Vanwart will probably continue as chairman of the Board of Public Safety and Ald. Sproul, who has distinguished himself by the way he had handled the appeals committee, will again be at the head of that important committee.

The enforced retirement of Ald, Baskin leaves the ferry committee without a head. It is understood that Frank Potts is after this position, but it is likely to go to Ald. Elkin, who has had the necessary experience at the couse."

Ald. Pickett, who did not offer for Ald. Pickett, who did not offer fo tax, and the county would be put to large expense to deal with him in addition to having heavy criminal expenses already incurred. Mr. Hazen said county councils had power to itcense men working at any occupation who were not ratepayers in such county. They had power also to revent non-residents from working.

Mr. Tweeddale thought the attorney general in all fairness should bring before the notice of the Dominion Government was doing any work in the province at all. It was the contractors who were bringing in the men. The municipal act gave full power and should be enforced.

The act was amended to read that persons not ratepayers in the province qan be prevented from working in any county without licenses.

The bill to authorize Madawaska County to issue debentures was agreed to and the several bills were reported. The house took recess till 3 p. m.

MAN WHO LAID OUT CITY OF WASHINGTON

Unusual Honors Paid to Memory of Major L'Endant

NEW YORK, April 28.—Hurling her companion aside to safety and thereby sacrificing her own chance of escape, Sister Angela, a nun of the Dominican Order, was run down and instantly killed by a delivery wagon today. The nun, with another sister, was on her way to visit an ill weman. The two nuns were walking through Sixty-third street, and as they started to cross Third avenue did not see a runaway horse attached to a heavily loaded delivery wagon rushing down the street.

Thomas Davis was the only prisoner in the police court this morning. He was charged with being drunk. Sergt. Kilpatrick informed the court that since the prisoner got out of jail about a month ago he has been drunk nearly devery day, begging money, and has been a great bother to the general public. The magistrate remanded Davis to jail and said he would consider whether or not he would send him into sail for six months without a fine.

Ald. Pickett, who did not offer for re-election, was chairman of the bills and by an committee. Owing to the technical ture of a large part of its work a lawyer is usually selected as the chairman, and this year there are only two to choose from.

Ald. Baxter will have his hands full with the finances and the post is likely to go to Ald, Kelley, although he has already been slated for the office of warden of the municipality.

Dr. Christie has been a member of the council for several years without holding any office, but this year he is likely to get a chance at the limelight in the job of deputy mayor.

To SAVE A COMPANION

HI Inving's there are many surprises in the way of bargains and in the variety of the stock which please every one.

Last evening some thirty young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Starkey, No. 8 Paradise Row, in honor of their daughter's birthday. This was celebrated in the form of a handkerchief. The evening was spent in games and dancing and afterwards supper was served.

Thomas Davis was the only prisoner loaded delivery wagon rushing down the street.

It was too late for the two of them to escape when they realized their danger, but Sister Angels, seeing the only chance left, seized her companion and hurled her aside, and fell as she did so under the wheels of the vehicle.

Jones of the 62nd Regt. has ben given a pension of £10 per annum from the Imperial government in recognition of the bravery he displayed on board the troopship Sarah Sands when he and others carried 90 barrels of gun powder from the hold of the burning ship and dumped them in the sea, thus preventing an explosion.

The body of the man found yesterday afternoon along side of the Loch Lomond road about five and a half miles from the city is believed to be E. Sidney Morris of Wrekham, Eng. The identification was made from papers found on the body. Morris arrived here on the Alian liner Tunisian on November 21st and put up at the Salvation Army Metropole. He left there on January 4th last and nothing was heard of him until yesterday, when his body was found. Morris belongings are still at the Metropole. are still at the Metropole.

Mrs. Colin L. Hayward of Sloatsburg, N. Y., formerly of St. John, is seeking information regarding her relatives. In a communication she says: My father's name was John Lester or Luster. I have a brother by the same name, also a sister Annie. I was taken from St. John, N. B., to P. E. Island about twenty-four years ago, by Miss Eliza Weatheral, who died about eight years ago. I was, when taken there, two and a half years old, my brother five and my sister nine. My mother's name was Miss Knowdell before she was married. All attended the Episcopal church if any. My foster mother brought me up as her own child, and I knew no difference until I had grown up, then she told me, By that time even she had lost all recollection of the little she had ever known of my relatives. She, too, is dead.
