The list of contestants will be published each day. You will notice it is not a very large one; there is plenty of room for energetic candidates to enter and win one of the many prizes. In fact this announcement really means the opening of the contest. Many who have sent in inquiries claim that they have not the time to devote to campaigning. We want to convince you that these prizes may be won with votes secured during your leisure moments. You are not asked to neglect your business or occupation, whatever it may be. We could not consistently expect that of you. We want you when this great contest is finally over to have nothing but the very best of feeling toward the SUN and STAR. We would not expect to look for this were we not fair and square to each and every contestant whose name appears in the list. The Contest Department is ever at your service in the matter of advice or suggestion which may help you win the prize which you want most. So do not delay, but fill out a nomination blank at the bottom of next page and send to the Contest Manager. He will either call or send some one to convince you of the vast importance of having your name in this list when it next appears. You really cannot afford to miss this opportunity.
