

RUSSIAN REVOLUTION BEGINS; 11 KILLED, 100 HURT BY BOMBS

Parliament Defies Govt., Demands Its Resignation and Seizes Supreme Power.

Government Must Either Resign and Make Way for Constitutional Ministry or Dismiss Parliament, Which Will Mean Civil War - Czar Must Choose Between Constitution and the Loss of His Crown and His Head

ST. PETERSBURG, May 28.—At the end of a memorable seven hour session the lower-house of parliament today indignantly rejected the government's policy as presented by Premier Goremykhin, and with only seven dissenting voices, voted a lack of confidence in the ministry, practically throwing down the gauntlet to the bureaucracy with a demand for the retirement of the present cabinet and its suppression by a ministry approved by the majority in the house.

THE GOVERNMENT'S REPLY. While the premier's statement promised co-operation with the lower house in so far as the latter does not transgress the limits of the fundamental laws, it recognized the agrarian question as paramount, proposing to remedy the deficiency in land by loans from an agrarian bank and migration to Siberia.

It declared that the government's flat and exceptional laws cannot be withdrawn in a circuit for amnesty, was the morning before Mr. Reed without a jury. Hon. Mr. Parlee appeared for the plaintiff, John T. Hawke, in his examination on the 14th of April, 1905, the council chamber of the town, the councillors all being one exception, Alder-

Such briefly was the government's reply to the address of the house, and the premier's words seemed to arouse all the latent resentment in the hearts of the members of the house. The constitutional democratic leaders for the first time gave free range to their passions

GENERAL NEWS OF GREAT BRITAIN

Happenings of Special Interest to America.

Paul Lambeth a Famous English Journalist of London Writes of the Mother Land.

(Special to the Sun.) BY PAUL LAMBETH (Copyright, 1906, by Hearst News Service.)

LONDON, May 28.—The real facts about the recent scare caused by the rumor that King Edward had died suddenly in Paris have only just leaked out. Many persons, of course, jumped to the conclusion that the rumor was spread by people interested in sending the price of government stock down on the stock exchange, but the actual facts are as follows:

These facts were gathered at the earnest request of the King himself, who was very much distressed about the matter, and insisted on knowing how the report had arisen.

There was an amusing scene at the Opera House Covent Garden the other day during one of the early evening performances which begin at 8 o'clock and end at 11 or later. The majority of people do not know what to wear on these occasions, and the result is chaos.

Eleven killed in Sebastopol. SEBASTOPOL, May 27.—Several bombs were thrown here today while a review of troops was being held after the Te Deum in celebration of the anniversary of the emperor's coronation. Three persons were killed, and several wounded.

RECENT DEATHS. DAVID LAMORAUX. The death of David B. Lamoraux, of King street, Carleton, removed one of the oldest and best known residents of the west side. Mr. Lamoraux was 90 years of age, and could remember the time when Fort La Tour stood on the site now known as the "Old Fort."

MRS. JOHN ESTABROOKS. SACKVILLE, May 27.—The death of Mrs. John Estabrooks, Salem street, occurred on Wednesday evening after a short but painful illness which was patiently borne. Mrs. Estabrooks' maiden name was Bulmer. She was a woman of sterling character, and her death is sincerely regretted not only by her immediate family but by a wide circle of friends.

DEAN PARTRIDGE'S WILL. FREDERICTON, N. B., May 28.—The will of the late Dean Partridge was probated this morning. Estate consists of $2,700 entirely personal, and is left to the widow. Under the will Mrs. Partridge and the late R. B. Winslow are the executors.

Wear Oak Hall Clothes

If You Want the Best in Saint John — and They Cost You Less, too.

Hundreds of men who have found here just what they wanted, after failing to find it in other stores, have been added to our constantly growing army of customers this spring.

They now know that what we have believed from the opening of the season is true—the most SATISFACTORY Clothing is here, the most pleasing variety of the new fabrics and styles, the best possible value at each price. Being makers, we can and do sell to you for less than other stores charge. Other stores must pay the manufacturers' profit, and must get it back by adding it to their selling prices. This profit is what you save by buying at Oak Hall.

Suits, - - $5.00 to $25.00. Top Coats, 8.50 to 15.00. Rain Coats. 8.50 to 18.00.

Oak Hall Clothes Please Boys and Satisfy Parents.

Boys like the style and cut of our clothes. There's lots of snap about them, and they're made so well that they'll stand any amount of hard wear. Parents like them because they cost much less than such good clothes can be bought for elsewhere.

The business in this department is bounding ahead of all records, which is pretty good evidence that styles and values are right.

Buster Brown Suits, $3.50 to $8.00. Sack Suits, $3.00 to $9.00. Russian Suits, - - 4.25 to 7.00. Top Coats, 2.00 to 12.00. Sailor Suits, - - .90 to 7.50. Rain Coats, 3.75 to 15.00. Washable Suits, an exceptionally large selection, - 5.00 to 5.00.

TROUBLE IN MONCTON

MONCTON, May 28.—Lively times are promised in provincial newspaper circles. It is certain well founded rumors which are rife in Moncton amount to anything, and it is quite likely that they will.

It is understood here that four distinct actions for alleged libel will be taken by I. C. R. employees at Moncton against the Montreal Star, its managing editor and those responsible for contributing to or promoting the publication of articles attacking these four persons.

It is reliably stated as well that an application is about to be made to the supreme court in connection with the recent assault case at Dorchester for a rule calling upon the editor of the Moncton Times and his reporter to show cause why they should not be committed for contempt of court for having, it is alleged, unfairly commented upon the case during the progress of the trial.

There are, too, an unusually large number of French business people in London awaiting details of the "Fairs in London" scheme, which may be one of the great sights of the Strand in the future. Where all the Americans still to come will be housed in London is a mystery, for even the private hotels are full.

Mr. John Sargent, the great Anglo-American painter, is, as usual, the principal attraction at the Royal Academy this season. Artists—not those artists whose pictures have been rejected—declare that it is the most mediocre exhibition on record.

Mr. Sargent's portrait of Lord Roberts strikes some of the critics as being a little stiff. The picture of the year is undoubtedly the "Landing of Columbus," by another great American artist, Edwin Abbey. Crowds surround this picture daily.

Mr. Sargent, by the way, has determined never to give a private view of his pictures again. His studio in Chelsea was mobbed by people he did not know or did not invite, and he was so annoyed that he left his guests to amuse themselves as best they could.

Kingston, Ont., May 28.—At two o'clock this morning John McLean, the convict who tried to escape from the penitentiary during Thursday night, died from the injuries he received by falling down the chimney up which he was climbing.

Liverpool, May 27.—Canadian Pacific railway's stmr. Empress of Britain arrived at eight o'clock this morning (Sunday).
