The object of this association is two-fold. First, being composed chiefly of graduates, it aims at uniting them in the closest bonds of friendship, not only to one another but also to their Alma Mater. Second, by offering prizes in English Composition, it strives to cultivate within the College a taste for literature and for literary culture. The membership fee is one dollar per annum. For the next two years all money thus subscribed will be expended in replenishing the library of the College with recent works in literature. The aim of the Society, however, is not so much to render pecuniary assistance as to bind the Alumni together and to the College. And for this purpose an annual meeting and dinner is held in connection with the commencement exercises in June. At this meeting old friendships are renewed, new friendships formed, and matters of interest to the Alumni and of importance to the College are discussed and promoted. An interest is thus awakened which it is not difficult to foresee will be of no slight value in advancing the welfare of the College.
