Qdgen. The advent of a rain storm just at that hour served to dampen the proceedings somewhat; but the party passed off pleasantly. Among the visitors in town last week were: Hon. W. S. Fielding, D. C. Fraser, J. D. McGee, Mr. F. W. Warden, Mr. Douglas. Rev. James Cartwright, of New Glasgow, occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's church on Sabbath evening last. The Liberal picnic came off at Buctouche on Friday. Quite a large number of ladies graced the field with their presence. A fine day made it possible for a large crowd to attend. BREDA.
