FUNERAL DIRECTORS IN ANNUAL SESSION

Meetings of Maritime Association Continued Yesterday—New Brunswick Section Elect Officers.

The Maritime Funeral Directors' Association continued in session yesterday. Election of officers, will be held today and the meeting will be brought to a close this evening with a banquet at White's. Lectures by Prof. Dodge, of Boston and Dr. G. G. Melvin, city, were features of the morning's session and little or no business of importance was transacted.

In moving a vote of thanks at the conclusion of Dr. Fisher's address, Mr. Wallace pointed out that the aims and objects of the funeral directors' association was to assist all medical doctors and health boards to improve the arrangements in disinfecting houses where contagious diseases caused death.

At 4.30 the members of the New Brunswick Funeral Directors' Association adjourned to another room and held their annual meeting. After transacting routine business and receiving reports of various officers and committees, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—President, D. H. Jonah, Petticoat; first vice-president, A. O. Tuttle, Moncton; second vice-president, W. E. Campbell, Sackville; secretary, F. W. Wallace, Sussex; treasurer, O. K. Black, Richibucto; chaplain, Louis Brennan, St. John; sergeant at arms, P. J. Fitzpatrick, St. John.

This morning's session will open with a lecture and demonstration by Prof. Dodge, after which the election of officers for the ensuing year will be held.

SAYS HAGUE DECISION FAVORABLE TO CANADA

Prof. Shortt of Ottawa Arrived Yesterday—Examinations for Naval Service Here This Fall—Fishing Interests.

Prof. Adam Shortt, of Ottawa, chairman of the Hague Commission, arrived in the city last evening. He has been on a tour through Nova Scotia, and has made arrangements for holding civil service examinations at various points.

Prof. Shortt stated that arrangements would probably be made for holding examinations for entrance to the Canadian naval service in St. John this fall. These examinations will be conducted by the present civil service examiner here, Dr. G. U. Hay. They will be of a kind that a boy half way through the high school might be expected to pass.

Those who pass the examination will be eligible for nine positions in the civil service branch of the navy, or to proceed to Halifax and enter the Naval College to be established there.

The ships that are being put in service by the government, said Prof. Shortt, "will no doubt be officered entirely by men from the Royal Navy until we train up officers of our own." "The ships that are being put in service by the government," said Prof. Shortt, "will no doubt be officered entirely by men from the Royal Navy until we train up officers of our own."

A Magnificent Display. What is probably one of the finest piano exhibits ever shown in St. John is that of the C. H. Townsend Piano Company on the lower floor of the new building. It includes the Heintzman Grand used by Madam Melba at Halifax and St. John; a Heintzman Player and a large assortment of that company's beautiful pianos.

First Millinery Opening in New Store. F. W. Daniel and Company announce for tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, their first fall millinery opening held in their new store. Great preparations for this event have been in progress for some months and following the trend in all larger cities, it is much earlier than usual. This will give visitors to the exhibition an opportunity to see a larger and better collection of distinctive pattern hats that ever before. A cordial invitation is extended to all.
