

THREE FORGES AGAINST SUZERANITY ARE THROWN OUT

New York Governor Wins Triple Victory in His Impeachment Case.

PROSECUTION EXPECTS TO FINISH EVIDENCE TODAY

Witnesses Called to Prove Corrupt Bargains Between Sulzer and Assemblymen But Judge Refuses to Admit Testimony.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Governor Sulzer today won a triple victory over his accusers at the trial of his impeachment.

Presiding Judge Cullen, of the High Court, barred the introduction of evidence to prove that the governor had made a corrupt political bargain with Assemblyman Patrick, of Greene County, and held that the evidence brought forward to show that he had made similar bargains with other assemblymen incompetent.

The legislation had to do in each case with certain improvements which the assemblymen had advocated in bills, subsequently passed by the legislature to which they were desirous of getting the governor's signature.

The other cases were specified in Article VII of the impeachment. Assemblyman Sweet today testified that when he went to see the governor in regard to getting his bill approved he was asked whether he had assented to the direct primary bill, which had been defeated in the regular session of the legislature.

"I told him I voted against it," said the witness.

The primary bill was to come up again at the extraordinary session in July, and the governor wanted to know how Sweet proposed to vote at that time.

"According to the sentiment and in the interest of my district,"

To this, according to Sweet, the governor replied with the personal counsel, Valentine Taylor, "and smooth him the right way."

Sweet then explained that Taylor had seen him, John H. Delaney, chairman of the department of efficiency and economy, and submitted to him a brief showing the need of the legislation proposed in his bill, and that Delaney prepared a favorable report on it, but that the bill was vetoed.

"How did you vote on the primary bill at that session?" asked Attorney Brackett.

"That is objected to," interrupted D. Coddick Herrick, of counsel for the defense.

"We anticipated," argued Attorney Todd for the impeachment managers, "that the fact that the witness did not smooth Mr. Taylor the right way had some bearing on the question."

"Objection sustained," ruled Judge Cullen. "He has already said he voted against the bill, and if this witness was already against the bill it showed he did not receive the price of a corrupt bargain."

On practically the same grounds Judge Cullen also held that the charges in connection with the Prime case were likewise invalid. The difference was that at the regular session of the legislature Prime did not vote at all.

Judge Cullen ruled out all evidence intended to show that the proposed legislation of Assemblyman Sweet was for the public good.

With the introduction of evidence of these more contributions not reported in the governor's sworn statement of campaign receipts and of more evidence concerning the governor's alleged Wall Street speculations, the assembly managers drew near the end of their case today. It was announced that with the calling of possibly two more contributors and one or two other witnesses tomorrow the case against the governor would probably be completed.

MORE THAN 400 KILLED IN FIERCE FIGHT IN MEXICO

Federals and Rebels Meet in Sanguinary Two Days Battle.

LACK OF WATER CAUSED HOSTILITIES TO SUSPEND

Rebel State of Sonora Resorting to Conscription to Provide Forces to Meet Federals in Campaign this Winter—Mining Towns Destroyed.

Piedras Negras, Mexico, Sept. 29.—More than four hundred federal and rebel dead were left on the field below Barroteran. Here a fierce struggle took place between the two forces Saturday and Sunday.

Both sides were compelled to retire from the field last night because of lack of water and ammunition, the constitutionalists falling back to Salina, where they dismantled the great railroad bridge crossing the Sabine river to prevent another attack from federals under General Masa.

Eyewitness say desperate hand-to-hand fighting occurred after exhaustion of the revolutionists' ammunition, and that the federals at one time were on the point of fleeing from the field when they were rallied by their officers. The dead are piled high where these conflicts took place.

Both sides agreed to a virtual armistice late Sunday to care for the wounded.

Despatches today indicate the federals will resume the march to Salina after a short rest. The body of the destruction of all the mining towns in the path of the retreating constitutionalists was received today.

O'Brien, the police announced, admitted having taken the boy to the outdoors, where the deed was committed, after a street car conductor had identified him as the man who was with the boy Friday night.

According to the police the prisoner said he had killed the child because he had called his (O'Brien's) mother a foul name.

The murder of the child was a particularly brutal one. His head was battered, there were bruises all over the body, and a shoestring was tightly drawn about the neck when the body was found in the wreck of a passenger train between Baku and Batum. A PROSPEROUS LOCAL INDUSTRY

Halley Brothers Woodworking Establishment.

The woodworking business on the corner of Charlotte and Broad streets is one of St. John's most prosperous industries, but like many another it is prevented by scarcity of land from expanding as rapidly as the demand for its output warrants.

This business was originally conducted by John E. Turnbull and the plant operated by him was destroyed in the fire of 1877. In the following year the land and what little was left of the buildings was purchased by Kinney and Halley of Yarmouth. Some few years afterwards this company was bought out by Rupert G. Halley and his brother, Henry E. Halley, the latter being at that time a resident of Yarmouth.

Their father, one of the original purchasers remained in St. John for a time and later moved to St. Stephen, where he became associated with Henry E. Halley in a business established there. Henry E. Halley was never an active partner in the St. John business. Rupert G. Halley has thus for a considerable number of years been the sole owner and proprietor of this St. John industry.

The business of the concern is woodworking and the class of product has undergone many changes since the plant was first established. It now consists almost wholly of factory work from architect's drawings, although a large business in rough lumber is carried on.

There are some sixty-five men employed in the factory with a weekly payroll of seven hundred and fifty dollars. Steam power is used. The plant occupies land equal to twenty city lots.

Mr. Halley states that during the past ten years their sales have shown a remarkable and steady increase and that the business is now limited only by the inability of the company to increase the working area of the plant.

Former Lieutenant Governor of New York Taken Ill While Addressing Fusionists—Complained of Pain.

New York, Sept. 29.—Timothy L. Woodruff, former lieutenant governor of New York, was stricken tonight in Cooper Union. Just as he concluded an address at the fusion notification meeting.

Physicians who attended Mr. Woodruff announced that he had suffered a stroke of paralysis and his condition was serious.

As he was speaking, Mr. Woodruff turned to John Purroy Mitchell, the fusionist candidate for mayor, and complained of a pain in his knee. He continued his address, however, but as he concluded it, he rested and would have fallen to the floor of the stage had not Mr. Mitchell and others on the platform supported him.

Mr. Woodruff was carried to an anteroom, where he was attended by two physicians. Later he was taken in an automobile to his apartments in an uptown hotel, accompanied by Mrs. Woodruff, who had attended the meeting with him.

Timothy Lester Woodruff, who is 55 years old, has been a political figure in New York state for nearly thirty years.

A SOUTH AMERICAN TRIP FOR COLONEL ROOSEVELT

MISSIONARIES IN HANDS OF THE CHINESE

Eight Lutherans Captured by Rebels at Tsaoayang Station.

AMERICAN CONSUL ASKS PROTECTION.

Inter-provincial Fighting Fierce and Bloody—Many Barbarities Have Been Committed—Troops in District.

Beiping, Sept. 29.—A missionary's telegram received at Hankow today from Fan Cheng in the north of the Province of Hu-Peh says:

"On Friday bandits looted and still hold the town of Tsaoayang. Eight foreigners, according to apparently authentic reports, were captured by them."

"At Fan Cheng there is a mission station belonging to the Hauges Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran Synod of America to which are attached five men and six women."

Edward T. Williams, charge d'affaires of the American legation, made representations to the Chinese foreign office today calling for the protection of the American missionaries.

At the request of J. Paul Jameson, acting American consul at Hankow, General Li Yuen Heng, vice-president of the Chinese republic, is sending troops to the district, but Tsaoayang is a long distance from Hankow where it is hoped the Chinese brigands will respect the captured foreigners.

The latest list of the members of the Hauges Norwegian Lutheran mission at Fan Cheng contains the names of Rev. C. Stokstad and wife, B. A. Anderson, M. A. M. D., Miss Olive Hedflect, Miss Carrie Olsen, Miss Anna Nelson and Miss Anna Lee, the headquarters of the mission in America are at Redwing, Minn.

The mission station at Tsaoayang belongs to the Lutheran Brethren and is composed of two men and four women. Their names, according to the latest records, are Rev. Reinhold Killen and wife, Rev. M. Wortahl, Miss Ida Waaler, Miss Caroline Amundsen and Miss Marie Harstad. The headquarters of the missionary society are at Wahpeton, North Dakota.

Concerning the inter-provincial conflict, press despatches from Chung-King, in the Province of Sze-Chuen say that troops from Kwei-Chow Province have annexed the town of Ki-Kiang, across the Sze-Chuen border, and that it is feared they also will annex Chung-Chang which city they also occupy. Chung-Chang has a population estimated at 300,000, and contains the stations of several missionary societies.

The people of Chung-King are said to be terror-stricken because many barbarities already have been committed. The troops have promised to protect foreigners.

Montreal, Sept. 29.—Under ideal conditions for "clipping the shirts" the annual ladies' meeting of the Royal Canadian Golf Association opened on the links of the Royal Montreal Golf Club, at Dixie, today. The greatest interest centered in the three first pairs of the forty-three to tee off. In these pairs no less than five holders of titles were pitted, against one another in Miss Ravenscroft, the English champion of 1912; Miss Harrison, the Irish champion of 1913; the American open lady champion, Mrs. R. H. Barlow; Miss Dodd, the English open lady champion of 1913, and Miss Anderson, at one time the holder of the Canadian championship.

Will Carry Out Lecture Tour Before Going into Interior.

NOTED NATURALISTS TO ACCOMPANY HIM

Expedition Under Auspices of American Museum of Natural History—To Explore Interior on Three Months Hunt.

New York, Sept. 29.—For more than three months, from about the middle of December to the end of March, Theodore Roosevelt will be buried in the wilds of South America. Arrangements for this end of the Colonel's South American trip were described today but the announcement did not tell much about times and places because the Colonel himself is not sure just where he will go or when he will emerge into civilized country.

Col. Roosevelt will sail from New York October 4, and will spend about two months visiting various cities in Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Paraguay. In these countries he will be the government's guest, and he will deliver several formal addresses. Late in December a little river steamer will leave him and his party of naturalists at Cuyaba, Brazil, the head of navigation on the Parana River, and at that point the hardships of the journey will begin.

The Colonel's companions from this point will be Anthony Pala, of New York, the Arctic explorer, and George K. Cherris, of Indiana, and Leo E. Miller, of Newfane, Vermont, naturalists connected with the American Museum of Natural History, under whose auspices the expedition will be undertaken.

Mr. Pala will look after the equipment of the expedition, Mr. Cherris will have charge of the collecting and preparation of bird specimens, and Mr. Miller will superintend the collection of mammals. The expedition will be the party's chief huntsman.

These four, with native Indian bearers, canoe-men and servants, will embark at Cuyaba in light draft motor-boats and canoes, although later it is expected that canoes alone will have to serve.

It was said today that when Col. Roosevelt first received invitations to lecture in Brazil, Argentina and Chile, his first idea was to decline, but that the opportunity to hunt and collect scientific specimens in the wilds of Brazil was too attractive for him to resist.

This opportunity was brought to his attention by the Rev. John Augustine Zahm, of Washington, Provincial of the Order of the Holy Cross, a missionary and a scientist who has explored much of the wild country that Mr. Roosevelt will enter. Father Zahm has been equipped about the itinerary and the equipment of the Roosevelt expedition.
