MC 2033

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

THE BORDER TOWNS.

St. Stephen, May 29—Victoria Day passed off very pleasantly and gaily, although the weather was dull and there were a few slight showers that prevented the wearing of pretty summer costumes, raincoats and umbrellas being more en evidence. In the morning Milltown celebrated with a firemen's parade and procession of school children. In the afternoon the athletic sports at the driving park were the centre of attraction. In the evening a ball in the curling rink, given by the Knights of Pythias, finished the day. There were a number of visitors in town, who departed to their homes on Saturday morning.

Mrs. J. Royden Thomson and children arrived from St. John on Friday last and are guests of Colonel and Mrs. Chipman.

The Grate Concerte, given in Elder Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening by the ladies and gentlemen of the Presbyterian church choir was well attended and greatly enjoyed. The programme was well selected. All the singing and recitations were old-fashioned of long years ago, and the costumes worn were of bygone styles, some dating back sixty years. At the close of the "concerte" Auld Lang Syne was sung.

Mrs. John D. Chipman is the hostess this afternoon to an informal tea given for the pleasure of Mrs. J. Royden Thomson.

Mrs. Osborne Hannah, of St. John, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William McKay Deinstadt, this week.

Messrs. G. Durell Grimmer, Skiff Grimmer and Frank Grimmer, of St. Andrews, have been recent visitors in town.

Mr. Crawford Allen, of Providence (R. I.), is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harris D. Eaton.

The ladies and gentlemen of the St. Stephen Golf Club who went to Woodstock on Victoria Day to take part in a tournament with the Woodstock club, have arrived home and, although they are the losers of the game, yet they are loud in their praise of the way they were entertained and of their delightful visit. Those who enjoyed this pleasant trip to Woodstock were Mr. and Mrs. George J. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ganong, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Cameron, Mrs. Geo. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. David A. Bruce, Miss Noe Clerke, Mr. Frank V. Lee, Mr. John Black and Mr. Stewart McGibbon.

Mrs. Harris D. Eaton entertains friends with bridge at her home in Calais this evening.

Miss Anna Eaton has returned from an extended visit in New York and southern states.

A most delightful bridge party was given on Tuesday evening by Mrs. Percy Lord at her very beautiful home in Calais. There were twelve tables of whist. Mrs. George Wilson won the first prize. Miss Margaret Black the second prize. The gentlemen's prizes were captured by Dr. Stephen Webber and Mr. Harold Purves. After the prizes were awarded and supper served there was some waltzing and other dances that lasted until an early hour on Wednesday morning. The ladies were all beautifully gowned in light summer costumes. Mrs. Lord looked extremely well in a violet organdie over violet silk, made princess style.

MONCTON, May 31—(Special)—The body of a man was found on the beach about half a mile below Point du Chene last night. It is believed to be the remains of one of the sailors of the Swedish bark Adeona, wrecked off Richibucto last fall. The body was considerably decomposed and had evidently been in the water a long time. The flesh was eaten, apparently by fish, off face and hands and the features were unrecognizable. Coroner Smith was notified and the body was ordered to be buried. This is the second victim of the Adeona wreck found on the shore within the past two or three weeks, the other body being found at Buctouche a short time ago.

Havelock Mitton, car inspector at the I. C. R. depot had his head severely jammed while coupling hose on the Maritime Express last night. Mitton was coupling hose between the engine and the baggage car when the shunter, attached to the pullman at the rear started. In the jolt he was caught between the drawbar and a severe scalp wound inflicted. He was knocked out for a few seconds, and it was at first feared he was seriously injured. Besides his head being bruised and cut, one shoulder was slightly injured. He will be laid off work for a few days. He had a narrow escape from death.
