A rainy day spent in putting that mowing machine, hay loader, binder and other harvesting machinery into shape is a mighty good investment of time. This is more true this year than usual for two reasons—first, labor is much scarcer, and therefore the loss of any time wasted will be greater, and, secondly, the parts may be harder to get than usual, due to a shortage of supplies in many lines. Forethought may save some after-worries.

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE

"Use the Bell to Sell"

The Ear of the Public!

IS it waiting for your message? The telephone is at your elbow—and over the telephone you always get a hearing.

How much of your traveller's time is spent in selling? While he is on the train or cooling his heels in an outer office, waiting, you or he might be talking to the customer by Long Distance, making another sale.

One merchant estimates that 46% of a salesman's time is spent in travelling—that only 15% of his time goes to actual selling. He sells only while the other man is listening! enables a salesman to cover ten towns a day and stay at home, writes the Banking Service Corporation, Limited, Toronto.

A banker tells us that every day's delay in turnover costs Canadian business men one million dollars. If you placed orders by Long Distance and secured shipment the same day, or next, by how many dollars would it increase your turnover?

We have yet to hear of a business that has not been benefited by an increased use of Long Distance. Apply the classified Long Distance schedule to your business consistently, and you will secure good results. Our manager will give you hearty, intelligent co-operation.

In all, after redistribution, it is estimated that the House of Commons will have 241 seats.

HOCKEY THE LEADING SPORT

Intermediates Defeat Alvinston Juniors Lose at London

Glencoe Defeats Alvinston

The Glencoe sextet proved too fast for the Alvinston team in the O.H.A. intermediate league game played here last Friday night, winning from the visitors by a score of 9 to 5. The Glencoe intermediates are undefeated up to the present time and from all indications will walk away with all games. Although out-matched, the visitors put up a plucky fight all through the three periods, but were unable to break up the speedy combination of the home team. Willis, the right wing man for Glencoe, won the scoring honors for the evening, netting a total of 5 goals. Davenport, Aldred and Calderwood scored the other goals. The first period ended 3 to 1 in favor of Glencoe; the second period 3 to 1 in favor of Glencoe; the third period 3 to 3, making a total of 9 to 5 in favor of Glencoe.

The line-up: Glencoe—Goal, Quick; defence, Calderwood and Davenport; centre, McPherson; wings, Willis and Aldred; sub, Weaver.

Alvinston—Goal, McDougald; defence, Myers and Wallis; centre, Leitch; wings, McEachern and McEachern; subs., McTaggart and Banks.

Sid Rankin, London, referee.

London 7, Glencoe 6

Glencoe Juniors went up against the Manhattans at London on Monday night and lost the game by one goal, which was scored by their opponents in the last moments of play in a scramble—some say the puck was accidentally kicked in. The score was 7 to 6.

The Manhattans come to Glencoe tonight for the final round in the group series and with a lead of three goals. It is announced that goals will count in the series, and Glencoe has a good chance to win the group. Undoubtedly it will be one of the most interesting games of the season. The two teams, says a London paper, are about as evenly matched as any two junior teams that have met in London for many years.

SOME BOY!

The following, taken from a Longdon paper, is of local interest owing to the fact that Mr. York is a former Brooke boy and Mrs. W. Reader and Mrs. A. E. Johnston of Alvinston are sisters:

Claims to physical perfection still come in full, and they are throughout London and district. The latest claim comes from Baby Oscar York, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. York of 78 Westmorland Ave., who is 18 months old and weighs 27 lbs. This baby measures 31 inches in height, is 31 inches from finger tip to finger tip, 15 inches from hip to foot, and his arm is 12 inches long. He is 19 inches about the head and abdomen and 20½ inches about the chest.

LEAGUES FRATERNIZE AT APPIN

Monday evening about 7.30 o'clock a number of the young people of the Methodist League gathered at the church. Five minutes later several cars carried them to Appin, where they spent an evening with the Appin League. A very interesting debate was given, the subject being "Resolved that man makes greater sacrifice for money than humanity." The affirmative was upheld by Alex. Pole and Louise Garbutt, and the negative was taken by Stanley McCutcheon and Mrs. York. The judges decided that although money talks, yet humanity speaks louder. Musical numbers were given by Mr. McLean on the saxophone, Miss Pearl George on the piano and Miss Ethel George vocally. Lunch and games completed a most enjoyable evening.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

On Monday, Dec. 26, a pleasant day was spent at the home of Mrs. Sarah Souter, 2624 Maryland avenue, Detroit. The affair was of unusual interest. Besides being the Christmas celebration, it was the 84th birthday of Mrs. Souter's father, Geo. Seates, an old and respected resident of Ekfrid township. After a splendid dinner and toast, all repaired to the living-room, where Santa Claus distributed many gifts, some of which were quite generous. Among Mr. Seates' well-wishers were his three daughters and their husbands, his three grandchildren, his only surviving brother, Robert Seates of Woodstock, and the hostess, Mrs. Souter. Many congratulations were received by Mr. Seates from friends both in Canada and the United States.

PRESENTATION AT APPIN

Appin, Jan. 18.—At the annual business meeting of the Presbyterian congregation held on Tuesday evening, Jan. 10, D. E. McAlpine, choir leader, was called to the front and presented with a nicely-worded address and a handsome overstuffed tapestry chair. Mr. McAlpine has been connected with the church for about 18 years and has been a faithful and devoted leader of the choir, also an active member of the managing board for three years.

Mr. McAlpine replied suitably in a few words, thanking the congregation for their mark of esteem, and the event closed with the singing of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

DEATH OF MRS. FREELE

The death occurred at her home in Glencoe on Monday night, January 16th, of Jean Freele, wife of Dr. L. W. M. Freele, in her 28th year.

Mrs. Freele was taken ill several weeks ago and complications which arose soon gave cause for alarm. Many times she rallied during her illness, which gave hope that she might eventually recover, but her ailment was one that was extremely hard to combat and notwithstanding the best of care and medical treatment she was unable to withstand the weakening effects of her illness.

Mrs. Freele, who was a granddaughter of the late Donald Graham, had been married but a short time and was living in London when her husband was called overseas. On his return Dr. and Mrs. Freele decided to make their home in Glencoe, and here they soon made many warm friends. Mrs. Freele leaves a daughter slightly over a year old, and to the little one and the grief-stricken husband the heartfelt sympathy of the community goes out.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, with service in St. John's (Anglican) church and interment in Oakland cemetery.

DWELLING HOUSE BURNED

On Saturday afternoon the frame dwelling house of Mrs. Douglas McCallum at Walkers was completely destroyed by fire, together with a portion of the contents. Mrs. McCallum and her youngest son were the only ones in the house at the time and in their efforts to save the house Mrs. McCallum was severely burned. The fire started from a burning chimney. The house and contents were insured for a small amount.

DEATH OF MRS. WEAVER

The death occurred early Monday morning, January 16, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. A. Watterworth, Glencoe, of Mrs. Mary Ann Weaver, wife of the late Clark Weaver, in her 66th year. Mrs. Weaver is survived by one son, Jacob Weaver, and one daughter, Mrs. Russell A. Watterworth.

Funeral services were conducted in the Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon and interment was made at Oakland cemetery.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

The annual business meeting of the Glencoe Presbyterian congregation was held on Wednesday evening of last week. Reports of the different organizations connected with the church were read and showed much success in the various branches of the work during the year.

The report of the Working Workers was particularly gratifying and was received and adopted with applause. About $900, including a balance from the previous year, had been raised by the ladies and contributed to various objects, one item of $773 being towards the decorating and repair expenditure on the church.

The missionary committee's allocation of $1,900 had been met, besides which there was forwarded by J. G. Lethbridge, M.P.P., to Honan, China, $400 for the furnishing of a ward in the new hospital at Hwaiking, in memory of his late daughter, Miss Sadie Lethbridge.

The board of managers had undertaken a big work in the repair and redecoration of the church and Sunday School room. While the total cost of this had reached in the neighborhood of $3,500, the response of the congregation was so generous that there remains only about $400 to be provided for this object after all subscriptions are paid. Heavy and unforeseen expenses in other ways had, however, left the church with a deficit of some $1,200. Included in these extra expenditures was the installation of an organ blower. It is a matter of great satisfaction to the church and the management that all property are now in that splendid state of efficiency which will ensure little or no expenditure for upkeep for years to come, and the managers are very hopeful of the united effort on the part of all the liability will soon be wiped out.

ORANGE CONVENTION

Appin, Jan. 18.—The annual convention of the Ekfrid District of the Orange Association was held in the Odd Fellows' Hall, Mount Brydges, on Tuesday, Jan. 10, the four lodges of the district being well represented. After routine business, the reports of the retiring district master, W. T. May, and retiring primary masters, Bechill of Glencoe, Wyatt of Mount Brydges and Bardwell of Appin, were heard, all reporting good progress throughout the year in all ways and especially with regard to interest in the work of the Order. The next annual convention will be held at Midland in January, 1923.

Big Fancy Dress Carnival Wednesday to Mark Event

The official opening of Glencoe's new rink, the Carman Arena, is set for Wednesday evening of next week. That it will be a brilliant event goes without saying. THE LATE T. C. REYCRAFT

The death of Thomas C. Reyecraft took place January 10th, after a lingering illness, which he bore with great patience. Mr. Reyecraft was born in Kent county, near Highgate, living there until fifteen years ago, when he moved to Glencoe, where he lived until his death. He was a consistent member of the Methodist Church for over thirty years and was always in his place at church as long as he was able to attend. A short funeral service was held at his late residence by Rev. J. Garbutt, assisted by Rev. Frank Reyecraft, nephew of deceased. The funeral then proceeded to the Methodist church at Highgate, where service was held, conducted by Rev. Mr. Reyecraft and Rev. Mr. Conway. Interment was made at Gossell cemetery. The pallbearers were six of deceased's nephews—Nelson Stone, Thomas Gordon, Leslie McLaren, W. J. Reyecraft, Anderson Fenton, of Highgate, and Norman McCutcheon of Glencoe. There are left to mourn his loss a wife and family of seven daughters and two sons—Vida of London, Mrs. S. J. Smith of Chatham, Ada and Anna of Chatham, Emma, Laura, Helen, Nelson and Llewellyn at home. Mrs. Hugh McCutcheon of Mosa and Mrs. Alfred Weekes of Bonlea, Alberta, are sisters.
