

Case of insolvency or death of party entitled to notice provided for. 5. In the event of the statutory insolvency of a party to a Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note, the service of notice of Protest, in the manner hereinbefore provided for, shall be upon the assignee or assignees of the insolvent; and in the event of the death of such party, the service may be upon his legal representative, or his own address 5 may be continued, and the notice sent to his last domicile or place of business.

Service in other modes to remain sufficient if in time. 6. Nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to affect the sufficiency of any service of notice of Protest that would have been sufficient if this Act had not been passed; but all such services of notice 10 shall have the same force and effect as if made in the mode provided for by this Act, provided the same be made within the time limited by this Act.

Note payable on Sunday or holiday. 7. When the last day of grace on a Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note falls on a Sunday or legal holiday at the place where the same is 15 payable in Upper Canada or Lower Canada respectively, such Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note shall be held to be due on the next juridical day after such Sunday or legal holiday.

Juridical days defined. 8. ~~All days except~~ Sundays and legal holidays, including those which relate specially to Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange, in either 20 section of the Province respectively, shall be deemed and taken to be juridical days.

Damages. 9. Damages on all inland Bills of Exchange drawn after the 31st day of December, A.D. 1863, are abolished.

Commencement. 10. This Act shall come into force and take effect upon, from, and 25
after the day of , one thousand eight hundred and sixty

Repealing clause. 11. All provisions of any Act in force in this Province, or in any part thereof, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby 30 repealed.