

CONTENTS.

	Page
Admiralty chart of the Polar Seas (issued separately).
Hydrographer of the Navy's report upon the proposed expedition - - - - -	3
Deputation representing the views of the Royal Societies, &c. - - - - -	6
Report of the Arctic Committee of the Royal Geographical Society, explaining the scientific objects to be obtained by further Arctic exploration - - - - -	7-16
Further experience gained by the voyage of the U.S. ship "Polaris" - - - - -	16-17
Announcement of the Government's intention to fit out an Arctic Expedition in 1875 - - - - -	17
Admiralty Arctic Committee appointed - - - - -	17
Report of the Admiralty Arctic Committee - - - - -	18-23
Dogs required for the expedition. Correspondence with Danish Government - - - - -	23-24
Ice quarter-masters, selected by Commander Markham - - - - -	25
Naturalists. Appointment of Mr. Hart and Captain Feilden, R.A. - - - - -	27
Esquimaux interpreter. Mr. Petersen engaged - - - - -	28
Polaris Relief Expedition. Stores sent out by United States Government placed at the disposal of the British Government - - - - -	28-34
"Discovery" late "Bloodhound." Survey and purchase - - - - -	35-39
Complements of the "Alert" and "Discovery" - - - - -	39-40
