Mr. James Lane Allen's
NEW NOVEL

The Heroine in Bronze

Cloth $1.25

As a love story it is idyllic; as a novel it is entrancing; as a setting the scene is unique; of the hero and heroine the same is true; as a literary production it is a gem in the same collection as "Aftermath" and "A Kentucky Cardinal."

Send at once for catalogue of Christmas books, containing new books of Fiction, Travel, Biography, Art, Music, books for thinking people and for little people. Ask also for a list of books on the farm and garden, or any subject in which you may be interested.

ARNOTT INSTITUTE

The Champlain Society

THE Champlain Society, organized in 1905, is the most exclusive cult devoted to book-publishing in Canada. Its aim is to publish "valuable and practically inaccessible material relating to the history of Canada." Its president is that indispensable head to financial and art associations, Sir Edmund Walker. The volumes published by the society are not sold to the public. The actual number sold is 500, which go to subscribers only—men of means as it may be surmised, who can afford the luxury of high-class works on Canadian history. There are two secretaries—Prof. G. M. Wrong and Eric Armour. The latter is a lawyer with considerable musical aptitude, and a strong interest in financial affairs. The former is well known as senior professor of history in Toronto University. The treasurer is A. H. U. Colquhoun, Deputy Minister of Education, for many years a most able journalist, a man of ripe scholarship in a general way, and much interested in the needs of the general public. Vice-Presidents are: Sir Louis Jetty, Sir D. D. McMillan, Sir Richard McBride, President Falconer, and C. W. Colby. Councillors: A. G. Doughty, Dominion Archivist; Adam Shortt, chairman of Civil Service Commission; James H. Coyne, of the Elgin Historical Society; H. H. Langton, University Librarian, and Walter C. Murray.

Seven volumes have already been published at the rate of one a year.

The History of New France, Vol. I., by Marc Lescarbot, with English translation and appendices by W. L. Grant, and an introduction by H. P. Biggar. (To be completed in three volumes.) The Description and Natural History of the Coasts of North America (Acadia), by Nicolas Denys, translated and edited with a memoir of the author, collateral documents and a reprint of the original, by Prof. William F. Ganong. Documents Relating to the Seigneurial Tenure in Canada, 1598-1854; edited, with historical introduction and explanatory notes, by Professor Bennett Munro. The Logs of the Conquest of Canada, edited, with an historical introduction constituting a history of the naval side of the British conquest of Canada, by Colonel William Wood. New Relation of Gaspesia, by Christien LeClerc. An interesting study, hitherto untranslated, of the Gaspé region and of the North American Indians, translated and edited by Prof. W. F. Ganong. Samuel Hearne: Journey from Prince of Wales Fort, in Hudson Bay, to the Northern Ocean, 1769-1772. A new edition edited by J. B. Tyrrell. The original, published in 1795, is now difficult to obtain. The History of New France, by Marc Lescarbot. Vol. II. Several more are in course of preparation.

Captain John Knox: Historical Journal of the Campaigns in North America, 1757-1760; edited by A. G. Doughty, Dominion Archivist. This work, now very scarce, is by far the fullest account of the events of the time, including especially the two sieges of Quebec in 1759-1760. The Works of Samuel de Champlain: An English translation with the French text. Edited by H. P. Biggar. With Mr. Biggar will be associated a number of scholars who have made Champlain's period a special study. The Journals of La Verendrye: An English translation with the French text. Edited by Lawrence J. Burpee. These Journals make an interesting narrative of the discovery of the Rocky Mountains. Louisbourg: From its Foundation to its Fall, 1713-1760. Edited by J. S. McLennan. This work will contain much new material about the famous fortress and its sieges. The Canadian War of 1812. An important work upon the War of 1812 extending to three volumes and containing much hitherto unedited material, is also in preparation by Lieut.-Colonel William Wood. Diereville: Acadia and New France, 1708-1710. Edited by Professor W. F. Ganong. An interesting work relating to the early history of Nova Scotia. The Journals of David Thompson. Edited by J. B. Tyrrell, assisted by W. S. Wallace. The Journals, hitherto unpublished, relate to the writer's journeys and discoveries, chiefly in Western Canada. A volume relating to the administration of General Murray in Canada is in course of preparation by Mr. D. A. McArthur, of the Canadian Archives. A volume relating to the administration of Sir Charles Bagot in Canada is in course of preparation by Professor Kylie, of the University of Toronto.

Canadian Poetry Appreciated

THE Literary Digest has this appreciation of the work of the late George Murray, a Canadian poet:

"Metrical translations of verse are not, usually, satisfactory. However skillful the rendering may be, it frequently seems that the spirit of the original poem is lost. There are exceptions to this rule—many of them are found in the work of that too little-known Canadian poet, the late George Murray. Mr. Murray had a thorough command of the French language, and his translations of Gautier, Theuriot, and others are remarkably good. His

BETWEEN TWO THIEVES

By RICHARD DEHAN, author of "The Dop Doctor." Cloth, 12mo., $1.25

"I have no hesitation in affirming that 'Between Two Thieves' is one of the few really great prose epics of war of any age or of any country. In its more personal aspect, tracing the life struggle of a single human soul under the stress of peculiar temptation, it is one of the strongest books that I have been privileged to read during the past decade. Overgrown and disproportioned it may be in part; but it is the disproportion and the overgrowth of actual life, seen unflatteringly and as a whole."—Frederic Taber Cooper.
