To Jim on the Swim team, We're glad you moved from LA. heard you're an "amazing" guy. What's your neck size. Even though you shave your legs, you have a great backstroke. Can you go for hours too?

Mike Taylor,
Why don't you go to Sweetwaters anymore? It's not the same without you!
I hope to see you there again sometime with your big bad cowboy boots stomping up a storm.

The Forestry Association, the 1st year class and everyone who participated in the annual Forestry Sleigh Ride, would like to thank Dave Erb and Moosehead for their generous contribution to the event.

To Slomo and the rest of the Neil guys, hope you had a great Neil week and have an even better formal night.

I don't usually answer these things, but I'll make an exception this time. The Brunswickan has been doing layout for 128 years—seventy years more than you.
By my count, if you don't think that we're professional, then you won't reach professionalism until at least 2064.
Electronic layout and design is not intrinsically superior to the old way, especially when your design skills suck.
