Attorney

General J. A. Clark, K. C.,
475 Howe Street,
Vancouver, B. C.

My dear Arthur:

This is to acknowledge yours of 27th. I have read carefully the enclosures. Will certainly have something to say about the dependents' allowance situation when the House opens. Of course, the only proper place for the row to be raised is in the Commons, and I hope it will be taken up there with force.

Yours sincerely,

AM/E.
