Colonial Office Downing St

26 Feb: 1833

Sir

I have received a letter which you have done me the honor to send to my house at Kensington Lane, accompanied with the printed copy of a Petition about to be presented by yourself to the House of Commons. I acknowledge the receipt of these Documents, but the want of such an acknowledgment is the want of such an acknowledgment.

Colonial Policy of the Ministry

-Document which be misinterpreted into a failure of respect to my house, I make no remark on their contents, because, as it is almost impossible to say, I occupy no station which entitles me to correspond with you or with any other person on any subject connected with the
