

the divine determinations impressed on Israel, he was, in a true spiritual sense, the concentration of Israel; and in his life and work he actualized the ideal of Israel according to the mind and purpose of God.