The Young Men's Christian Association

The Young Men's Christian Association is an organization of young men for mutual helpfulness. It stands for a robust body, a cultivated mind, and a Christian character for the young men of our city. It is not a charity but a philanthropy. It has the same basis of appeal for the financial and active sympathy of Toronto's citizens as its churches and universities. It specially needs their co-operation at this time. Its management is in the hands of a board of twenty business and professional men, who cordially solicit an inspection of its diversified activities.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. invite additions to their membership. Annual fee, $1.00.

Additional names and information
