FASHION HINTS.
New Make of Cluny Lace—Linen and Tussore Silk.
There is a new make of cluny lace in silk which is very effective for a trimming of plain voile frocks, and it is not at all expensive. A charming costume recently seen was in rose pink voile with a bolero of this cluny lace finished with a silk fringe. The bolero really formed a cape and collar in one.

CHINA SILK NEGLIGEE.
with a pelerine effect and sleeves ending at the elbow. The gown was eminently suited to race meetings, country gatherings and similar occasions, and although it was smart, it was very simple. The skirt was made with three plaits on each hip and five folds at the bottom of the hem. The blouse bodice under the lace bolero consisted of thin box plaits on either side worn with a plain fawn leather band. The whole was surmounted by a neat black straw toque.

Linen closely resembling hopsacking is soft and does not crease readily. A good many tussore and silks of a similar nature are also used for ordinary wear. The ecru tints of tussore and linen require relieving with embroidery or colored ribbon.

The china silk negligee in the cut is trimmed with ecru lace, and the main portion is accented plaited.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

PRETTY EFFECTS.
Some Costly Frocks With Jeweled Lace—Simple Muslins.
A fichu stole or scarf of lace or embroidered lawn is a useful adjunct to any woman's toilet.

Very beautiful frocks are made of white kilted chiffon veiled with jeweled or spangled lace. These transparencies in evening wear are much in vogue in Paris. They are generally placed over a kilted underskirt of a contrasting shade. Such an idea is very picturesque for a ball frock. Inexpensive muslins make very pretty evening gowns if chosen in dainty shades and carefully trimmed with inexpensive yellow insertion. Very pretty are the new scroll patterns in black and white and red and white. These make up charmingly with the plain spotted muslin or lace fichu. The skirts of such frocks look well cut with five frills around the hem and only long enough to touch the ground. The sleeves should be very full. These dresses are not hard to make at home if one has a good pattern.

A SMART WAIST.

The illustration shows a pretty waist of black tulle with red and black embroidered bands.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

A Body Blow to the Air Ship.
The resistance of the air to moving bodies of various shapes has been tested by M. Canovetti by attaching each form to a carriage sliding down a wire 400 yards long, one of whose ends was seventy-five yards higher than the other. From the time made with and without the load the resistance was calculated. It was shown that more power was necessary for driving an aeroplane through the air than for propelling an automobile of equal weight along a road and that the weight of engine necessary must make this form of air ship impracticable.

BABY'S SECOND SUMMER.
Why It is a Dangerous Time for the Little Ones.

Baby's second summer is considered a dangerous time in the life of every infant because of the disturbance to the digestive functions caused by cutting teeth during the hot weather. In slightly less degrees every summer is a time of danger for babies as is shown by the increased death rate among them during the heated term. Of great interest to every mother, therefore, is a comparatively recent discovery of which Mrs. David Lee, of Lindsay, Ont., writes as follows:

"My little girl had a hard time getting her teeth. She was feverish, her tongue was coated, her breath offensive, and she vomited curdled milk. On the advice of our doctor I gave her Baby's Own Tablets and she began improving at once. She had not slept well at night for about three months, and I was almost worn out caring for her. Nothing did her any good until I gave her the tablets. Now her food digests properly, her breath is sweet, her tongue clean and she is quiet and good. I can strongly recommend the tablets to other mothers as they cured my baby when nothing else would."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by all dealers in medicine or will be sent postpaid at twenty-five cents a box, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

Unappetizing Start.

"Papa," said the distinguished statesman's petted daughter, "you have never told me anything about the house in which you were born."

"No, my child," he replied, with a groan, "I have not. I could not bear to destroy the fond illusion that your father is a great man. I am not a great man, my dear. I am an impostor. I was not born in a log cabin, but in a three story brick with stone trimmings!"

And he turned away in anguish.—Chicago Tribune.

Sally and Willie.

"Strange about giddy young girls, isn't it, Sally?"

"How so, Willie?"

"Why, there's a girl in town who used to boast that she was kissed by President Grant when she was a baby, but she now declares it was President Hayes who kissed her. In a few years she will be claiming that President Roosevelt kissed her when she was a mere child."—Roller Monthly.

A Financial Note.

"What's up, old man? I never saw you look so haggard."

"The Steenth bank is up; that's what's up. And my deposit's gone up with it."

"Oh, I wouldn't let a thing like that upset me."

"I'm not upset; merely lost my balance."—Philadelphia Press.

Accidental, Maybe.

Snodgrass—A fool of a fellow shot a man in the leg this morning, and it wasn't reported to the police.

Spruceberry—That so? Who was the man shot?

Snodgrass—Me.

Spruceberry—Who shot him?

Snodgrass—Me.—Toledo Blade.

A Watery Farewell.

An Irishman and a Frenchman were parting at the steamer. The Irishman, standing on the wharf waving his hand to his friend, shouted, "O reservoir!" The Frenchman, politely saluting, replied, "Thanks!"—Boston Christian Register.

Hard Work and Much of It.

"Is it hard to be a detective?" asked the young woman admiringly.

"Very," answered Old Slookshaw. "It keeps a man studying day and night to behave like the detectives that the story writers describe."—Washington Star.

THE DARTING DRAGON.

An Amusing Toy That Any Clever Little Boy Can Construct.

The darting dragon is a clever toy out of which you can get a good deal of fun. If you have a sharp knife and some pieces of thin wood you can make the dragon yourself, and that will be interesting. As a rule, a boy gets more pleasure out of a toy he makes himself than he does out of one that is bought for him. Try this one and see if that is not so.

To make this amusing toy get a number of pieces of thin wood, each one three or four inches long, half an inch wide and not much thicker than the wood of a cigar box. Arrange them as in the picture, pivot them with a short nail with a large head and arrange the dragon (made out of a large piece of thin wood) as shown. By putting the thumbs into the hole shown at the other end and working these handles as you would a pair of scissors the dragon will dart back and forth. The end pieces, or handles, must be large enough to permit of making the holes for the thumbs, as shown. A body to the dragon may be made of light colored cloth or calico. The nails for the pivots must be malleable, so they will bend over after being driven.

How a Rose Was Named.

Many flowers owe their names to famous people. Among the number are the dahlia, named for Dahl, a Swedish artist; the magnolia, for Magnol, a celebrated French botanist, and fuchsia, for Fuch, a distinguished German savant, but there is only one instance known when a man and a flower received a title at the same moment.

This is how it happened: When Niel, a brave French general, was returning from the scene of his victories in the war between France and Austria he received from a peasant who wished to honor the hero, a basket of beautiful yellow roses. One of the stems, which happened to have roots clinging to it, the general took to a forist in Paris, in whose care it remained until it became a thriving bush covered with blossoms.

Niel then took the plant as a gift to Empress Eugenie. She expressed great admiration for the exquisite flowers, and on learning that the rose was named after him significantly: "Then I shall name it. It shall be the 'Marechal Niel.'" And at the same moment she bestowed upon the astonished general the jeweled baton that betokened his promotion to the high office of marshal of France.

Homemade Crokinole Game.

Take a table two and a half feet across. With chalk draw a tiny circle the size of a dollar, and around that draw three other circles, each about three and a half inches apart. The center spot counts 20, the circle around it 15, the next one 10, the outer one 5. Each side takes about fourteen checkers, flipping them in turn, one at a time, with the thumb and middle finger toward the center. The object is to keep your men in the middle circle. To knock your opponent's checkers off the board with your own you must always shoot from the outer ring. At the end of the game the men in the same circles are matched and the remaining ones are counted. One hundred, 300 or 500 constitute a game. Each player tries to place his men in the smaller center ring. If you shoot too hard and your man goes clear off the board it is held by your opponent till the next game. It is fair to knock your other men toward center with the checker in hand.

Going to Do For Mother.

It is difficult to be patient with a boy who boasts that he is going to do so much for his mother "when he's a man" and who will not even do so much as study his lessons for her now. The present work, whether it is adding a column of figures, or building a fire, or doing an errand, is the work that is the true test of love. The people who do not do their best today will not do it tomorrow. Do not forget that today is yesterday's tomorrow. How have you fulfilled yesterday's promises?

A Little Mixed.

At the examination of the lowest class the pupils were asked, "What are the three chief occupations of Michigan and how are they carried on?" One pupil wrote as follows: "Apples, potatoes and celery. They are carried on wagons."

Came In Itself.

A mother once said to her little son, who always forgot to wipe his shoes on the door mat, "Harry, did you bring that mud into the house?"

"No, mamma," replied Harry. "It just stuck to my shoes and came in itself."

The Rooster.

The rooster was flapping his wings and crowing, and Bert turned to grandma and asked:

"What makes the rooster fan himself before he crows?"

ONLY A MASK.

Many are not being benefited by the summer vacation as they should be. Now, notwithstanding much outdoor life, they are little if any stronger than they were. The tan on their faces is darker and makes them look healthier, but it is only a mask. They are still nervous, easily tired, upset by trifles, and they do not eat nor sleep well. What they need is what tones the nerves, perfects digestion, creates appetite, and makes sleep refreshing, and that is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Pupils and teachers generally will find the chief purpose of the vacation best observed by this great medicine, which, as we know, "builds up the whole system."

Some positively lazy men honestly believe they are only economical.

Don't buy a thing simply because you want it.

The girl is the mother of the woman just as "the boy is the father of the man." The period when the womanly functions begin is one to be carefully watched and considered. Irregularity or derangement at this time may be promptly met and cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. But neglected at this critical period may entail years of future suffering. "Favorite Prescription" acts directly upon the womanly organs, giving them perfect vigor and abundant vitality. It removes the obstructions to health and happiness, and delivers womanhood from the cruel bondage of "female weakness."

You pay the postage. Dr. Pierce gives you the book. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, 700 illustrations is sent free on receipt of stamps to defray cost of mailing and customs. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the paper bound book, 50 stamps for cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

It is amusing to hear young fellows brag about their knowledge of the world.

Some women refer to a husband as though he were kept in a glass case.

—Your step has lost elasticity because your blood has lost vitality, which Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore.
