To the Rev. Thomas Carey, P. P., Brewer Mills:

Rev, and Dear Father—It is with feeling of the most intense sorrow and grief of mind that we, your former parishioners, gather around you to day on the eve of your departure from among us to bid you a fond good-bye.

For over seven years you have been the zealous pastor, the kind Father and the faithful friend of the people of the mission. And during those years of toil, care and anxiety, your spirit of labor, of self sacrifice and untring zeal have made you the idol of your people.

Ever attentive to our spiritual wants, never sparing yourself even when in a delicate state of health, always ready to break the bread of life to your flock, ever anxious to instill into the minds of our children the instruction necessary for the cultivation of virtue, the formation of their character and the moulding of their precious lives in accordance with the precepts and maxims of Him who said "Suffer the little children to come unto Me and forbid them not for of such is the Kingdom of God." Surely we could not but learn to love and respect you as a man of truly Apostolic Spirit, and it is little wonder that as we gather around you for the last time to day our hearts are sorely afflicted.

Since your appointment here what a change has taken place in the parish! Under your care the Christian Doctrine Society has been re-organized. The association of the League of the Sacred Heart, of which all the people of the mission, young and old, men and women, have become members, has been established. Beautiful pieces of statuary, most artistic in design, have been placed in our church. A flourishing branch of the C. M. B. A. founded, and, lastly, a beautiful and commodious prespetry by far the finest and the most complete and best equipped in the archdiocese of Kingston, has been built. All these things done, and nearly paid for, awaken the gratitude and excite the admiration of all. These improvements for the material as well as the spiritual advancement of the mission s memory in benediction among us for ages to come.

We know full well that it is the fatthful discharge of the duties of your exaited state that is taking you from among us. The illustrious Archbishop of Kingston realized this nearly a year ago when here on his pastoral visitation, and when the opportunity presented itself he has rewarded your generous and self-sacrificing epirit by promoting you to a wider field of labor in the important parish of Erinsville.

In conclusion we wish you, dear Rev. Father, many years of strength and vigor to continue your usefulness in the Church of God, and we shall earnestly pray that your labors and efforts for His honor and glory, the salvation of soul and the improvement of the parish of Erinsville will have the same blessing from on High and the same success as they have had in the mission and with the people whom you are about to leave.

in the mission and with the people whom you are about to leave.

We sak you to accept this purse as a small token of our gratitude towards you and of our appreciation of the many favors of which we have been the recipients during the seven years of your pastorate in Brewer's Mills.

Signed for the congregation, Sylvester Sidley, J. P. Murphy, James Webb, Terence Donnelly, P. McKenna, Storrington; T. J. Shortall, M. Shortall.

Rev. Father Carey replied as follows:

were kind enough to give him when leaving the parish. He said he had spent seven years among them, probably the best portion of his life, and during that time owing to the kind co operation of the members of the congregation in everything periating to the good of religion things went on well and satisfactorily. It was owing to this fact that the works and improvements which they mentioned in the beautiful address and which they were good enough to attribute him were begun and completed, and not only that, but well night paid for.

He said that the building and furnishing of the presbytery, the church and house, and the articles procured for the church involved an outlay of several thousand dollars. Neverthers, swing to the kindness and gener osity of friends and benefactors, and the kind and actiful semination of the people the debt was only something a little over nine hundred dollars. He said he was assured that the Almighty would bless all who, out of whatever substance they possess, let that be great or smail, contribute cheerfully according to their means to the proper keeping of the church and everything connected with it.

During the seven years of Father Carey's pastorate at Brewer's Mills he had made many improvements and was most active in furthering the interests of his good people in that Mismyrovements, and leaves the mission with only a debt of $900, fully provided for.

The Rev. Father Kelly of Smith's Falls, has turned from Ireland. He is looking well and returned from Ireland. He is looking well and thoroughly enjoyed his visit to his untive land. He visited Waterford, his native city, and many points of interest in Ireland. His people in Smith's Falls gladly welcome his return. The flourishing condition of this mission is to a great extent due to Father Kelly, who has fully sustained and carried out the noble work done here by Father Stanton, the beloved pastor of Brockville. We heartily welcome the return of Father Kelly, and wish him health, peace and happiness in the continuance of his good work at Smith's Falls.

Dr. Vincent Sullivian has returned to Kingson from Gravenhurst Sanitarium, Muskoka, His many friends will be glad to learn that he is improved in health.

There was a religious profession held at the House of Providence on Saturday morning, 15th inst, when Miss M. C. McIntosh, of Martintown, Glengarry county, pronounced her religious vows and received the holy habit. The ceremony took place in the beautiful Ehurch of Our Lady of Sorrows, His Grace Archbishop Gauthier presiding. In religion the newly professed Sister will be known as Sister Mary Regina. The following clergy were present: Rev. Father Duffus, Chaplain of the House of Providence; Rev. Father Kehoe, Rector of St. Mary's cathedral; Rev. Father Keilty, Douro, diocess of Peterbourgh and Sheedy, We congratulate the good Sister and trust that she may walk in the steps and follow the example of her namesake the late Venerable, Archdeacon Andrieux's Golden Jubilee.

The grand and unusual celebration of a priest's Golden Jubilee.

The grand and unusual celebration of a priest's Golden Jubilee took place at Paincourt, London Diocese on Thursday morning last. Rev. Paul Andrieux on that solemn occasion ascended the altar to offer up a. High Mass of thanksgiving to the God of all mercies for the graces without number, and untold blessings vouchsafed him since the hallowed morning fifty years ago when Episcopal hands were imposed on him and he was elevated to the dignity of the Christian Priesthood. Right lev. Bishon McEvay occupied the Episcopal throne, having for deacons of honor Very Rev. Josenb Bayard, V. G., and Very Rev. D. Cushing, President of the College of Assumption. Sandwich, Ont. The deacon and sub-deacon of the Mass were Rev. P. Boubat, P. P., Ridgetown, and Rev. A. Farent, P. P. McGregor Station in Essex, Maskers of Coremony D. Downey and Rev, Y. Rev. Dr. Kilroy, In. On the evening, previous the church was literally packed with Father Andrieux's faithful and attached parishingners. After the Liturgical Reception of a Docesan Ordinary was gone through and all the priests were arranged on each side of the sanctuary. His Lordship, with the audience in congratulatory terms of the work done in the parish of Paincourt by the zealous and untiring efforts of the distribution of the work done in the parish of Paincourt by the zealous and untiring efforts of the parish priest, and urged them to the work done in the couragement in the work of wiping out the church debt, already well nigh extinguished, and of establishing the new Catholic Separate school on solid and permanent footing. Two little tirls robed in white then came, on the part of the children of the parish, and, walking side by side into the sanctuary, presented His Lordship and Rev. Father Andreux with handsome bouquets of fragrant roses and lillies, emblematic, of charity and innocence. On the part of the ladies of the congregation Madame Bordeaux then advanced and having read a well-worded address presented the jubilarian with a very valuable gold-headed cane. Twelve men walked up the main sile and with an address presented a costly set of gold vestments, including chasuble, daimatics and magnificent cope, all in cloth of gold. The address presented he handress by Rev. Dr. Flannery of Windsor. The addresses were all in French. Bishor McEvary pronounced a brief allocution, in the course of which he proclaimed that henceforth Father Andrieux should hear a title in keeping with his merits as a long and fattful worker in God's Church and as an exemplary model of priestly zeal and obedience to Episcopal authority—ne shall henceforth be known and revered as "the Venerable Archdeacon Andrieux." Many long years of usefulness may he live to wear

OBITUARY.

MRS. SUSAN M. EDSON, GLENCOE, MINN. Seldom indeed is it a newspaper's duty to record a death under circumstances as ad as those which attended the demise of Mrs. Susan M. Edson, of Glencoe, Minnesota, on Saturday morning last. The deceased, whose maiden name was McFeely, had spent some three weeks with her sister, Mrs. F. McLean, at Webster Groves, Missouri, and together they planned a trip to Lindsay, the old home of the family. They arrived on the So'clock train Saturday evening, Sept. S. Mrs. Edson going to the home of her chidhood's friend, Mrs. B. J. Gough, while Mrs. McLean and baby daughter Dorothy became the welcome guests of Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin, with whom she and other members of the family had visited previously. By McLean's request of the bowels and lossishly an abscess on the advice of Dr. McAlpine, Mrs. McLown Toronto specialist, who arrived on the Sociock train that evening, and performed a surgical operation. An abscess was found, and while Dr. Peters expressed himself hopeful of the result he said that unfavorable complications might set in. The patient passed a fairly restful night, but grew worse next morning, and it was decided to summon Mrs. McFeely from Minneapolis. During Friday the patient's condition remained practically unchanged; despite the hopeful utterances of the friends about her bedside she seemed to realize that the Angel of Death was hovering near, and while resigned and cheerful she deemed it wise to settle her earthly, affairs and make ner peace with her Creator. Rev. Father Phelan. curate of St. Mary's, administered the final sacraments and the consolations of the Roman Catholic Church.

On Saturday morning the anxious mother reached town from Minneapolis, being met at Blackwater Junction by several friends who cheered her somewhat with the news that her daughter was no worse and was looking forward with pleasure to her arrival. Over the sad meeting between mother and aughter we must draw the veil—little was said, as words were not needed to interpret the great love in the heart of each. From that time until the end—about 8:29 Sunday morning—the daughter, and Mrs. McLean was also present to receive the last fond look of a loving sister.

The sad news created profound sorrow among the old friends of the family, they having resided in Lindsay for many years previous to their removing to Minneapolis twelve or fifteen exerned l

In 1850, however, he came to live in Berlin and had as his assistants, Rev. D. Fennessy, C. R., and the late. The little Sparate school was built in 1855 by Rev. P. Laufhuber, S. J., but in a short time the progress of the parish was such that a two roomed school had to be built. This was short; it afterwards increased no school. But a few, years ago it was again found necessary to increase the capacity of the school and therefore the additional six rooms were built, making it now one of the most commodious and beautiful schools in the county. It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of the Very Rev. Edward Plus De Cantillon, which occurred at Louisville, Ky., on the 5th inst., who died of paralysis after an illness of five hours. He had the rare privilege of celebrating Mass the morning of his death, and was taken suddenly ill soon after and passed away after receiving the succession and the Order. A solem mass of Requiem was celebrated at Shessing bresent being something remarkable. His brother Peter and sister, Mra. S. J. Walsh of Chicago had the sad privilege of attending the funeral. In the afternoon the remains were transferred to St. Rose, where he had made his noviliate, and there with all the beautiful ceremonial of the Order he washuried amongst his Brethren. He was in failing health for two years, but had improved somewhat during the last summer, and his death came as a shock to his many friends. Deceased was the eldest son of the late James De Cantillon, one of the pioneer school teachers of Huron county, Ont. He was in the fiftieth year of his age and the twenty seventh of his ministry. In 1890 the Rev. Father De Cantillon was sent as one of the delegates of the Dominican Order to Rome and received the title of Preacher General, which is granted but to distinguished preachers of the Order. On this occasion he visited other European countries, including Ireland where he had the great privilege of celebrating Mass in the old hallowed church in Kerry, where his forfathers had worshipped years before. Rev. Father De Cantillon was a man of strong but simple piety and attracted souls by his unostentatious virtue. As a preacher he coupled a high position in the order and also in the ranks of the secular clergy. Endowed by nature with a strong, commanding voice, gifted with wonderful eloquence and learned in Catholic theology, it is no wonder that in Toronto and other cities of Canada where he has preached his name and fame as a great orator should be respected. The TRANSVAAL WAR.

The report is repeated from the Transvaal that General De Wett is dead, but it does not appear that there is as yet a certainty of this. It is also reported that Fresident Steyn intends to surrender to General Roberts. Beyond this the situation in the Orange Free State and the Transvaal is not very materially changed since last week.

On Sept. 18 it was announced that a battle was going on at Koomati-poort, and several minor skirmishes were reported from near Machadodorp, in all of which the British were successful. Gen, Roberts states the Boers are now all dispersed except a few small bands which have so far succeeded in evading the British forces. The fugitive Boers, beaten at Koomati-poort took refuge in Portuguese territory, and are now stated to be fighting with the Portuguese troops and among themselves. General French captured 50 locomotives at Machadodorp and 43 at Barberton, with much rolling stock and supplies. At the latter place, French liberated 500 British prisoners, and captured 100 Boers. Among these prisoners is the commandant Van der Post, late chairman of the Free State Raad or Parliament.

It is now beyond doubt that the war is practically over, though, no doubt, the Boers will be restive for some time; and Lord Roberts will leave for England on Sep. 29 to take the commandership in-chief of the British army. ### MARRIAGE.

St. Patrick's Church, Ottawa, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Wednesday last, Sept. 11th., when Mr. T. P. Hogan, son of Mr. R. Hogan of Westport, was united in marriage to Miss L. M. Healy, second daughter of Mrs. R. J. Healy, of Ottawa. The bride, who was escorted by her brother, was attired in a neat going away suite of pearl grey and hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Kate Healy, sister of the bride, looked very pretty in flowered mauslin de swa, and flower hat and carried a bouquet of pink roses; while the groom was attended by Mr. J. McNaily of Westport. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Fay. Special music was provided by the choir. Immediately after the service the party drove to the home of the bride where the wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Hogan left on the 9a. m, train for New York, carrying with them the best wishes of their many friends. HOGAN-HEALY.

"blue" The tainted blood has poisoned the entire nervous system, the very well-spring of life and energy.

The victims try remedy after remedy, with only temporary benefit. For neither "blood medicines" nor tonics can cure this Catarth of the Nerves.

There is only one way. Kill one can cure this Catarrh of the Nerves. There is only one way. Kill out the Catarrh germs. Otherwise the former state is sure to return.

This is frequently repeated until friends and relatives lose patience, and decide that it is "all imagination."

VOLUME XXII.

The Catholic Record.

London, Saturday, October, 6, 1900. THE MISSING LINK.

One of the Vanderbilts has fitted out an expedition to search for the missing link. He has always taken an interest in that kind of thing, you know, and feels that some of his wealth should be devoted to the interests of science. Besider, what a delightful thing it will be to annouce to an admiring world that at one of Mr. Vanderbilt's recherche entertainments each guest was presented with a little missing link. It would be away ahead of a pig, and would not exhale such a pungent odor. We feel that the gentleman has in point of novelty "got the drop on the Newport set." Its one regrettable feature is the ignoring of the home article.

THE SOUPERS AT ROME.

The Soupers are now doing business in Rome. For the benefit of our readers who may not know the meaning of the term, a souper is a dealer in spiritual soft truck and a doler out of food and raiment to all those who will renounce the teachings of the Catholic Church. The first Protestant souper was Luther, who catered to the libid. inous cravings of the Landgrave of Hesse, and he has certainly left a numerous progeny. We are informed that the supporters of souperism, which is a propaganda of lies and calumnies among poverty-stricken Italians, are mainly British and Americans.

Does it ever occur to these individuals that their material and spiritual aid could be much better given to the unchurched and destitute denizens of their own countries instead of being wasted on Latins who may lose their faith but not their reason?

MONARCHY OR DEMOCRACY

The editor of the Catholic Union and Times is a relentless foe of al things pertaining to Monarchy. Now we venture to remind him that some proof for such assertions as " monarch; is the principle of might," would give him greater weight with the public.

We know that monarchy may de generate into tyranny just as democ racy may become mob rule; but the monarchy as such is the principle might is unmitigated nonsense. Som Catholic philosophers teach that mor archy is the best form of Government But all discussion as to the excellent of politics is vain. What does in the United States would not thrive Europe. A monarchy or an empi may afford ample protection to the liberties of the subject, and a republ may be, and has been as in the case Gambetta s in France and Castelar s Spain, a hot bed of despotism.

We should further remind him th all civil government is for the commu ity, whether its ruler be the Quee Lords and Commons, as in England, the majority as in democracy.

Again, the statement that the mo archical principle is government of people by the monarchs for the m arch's benefit, is, to say the least, n leading. St. Thomas Aquinas teac that the kingdom is not made for king, but the king for the kingdo for God has constituted kings to and govern and to secure to every the possession of his rights. Such the aim of their institution; but kings turning things to their own fit should act otherwise, they are longer kings but tyrants.

Until we receive more informa on this subject we intend to follow Angelic Doctor in preference to esteemed Buffalo contemporary.

PROTESTANTISM vs. CATHOL ISM.

One of our contemporaries says Austria has become within the year the battle-ground between testantism and Roman Catholicism

We should like to know what pa ular brand is engaged in this con We fear that our friend has been m by the fairy tales that are conce for home consumption by the lab in foreign fields. He should l that Protestantism, the prolific me of innumerable and irrecond opinions, has no effect upon the th ing world.
