104 pp., 12 Maps, and 26 Illustrations. Price 40 cents.

The Maritime PRIMERS and WALL CARDS, just issued are on an entirely new plan. The PRIMERS consisting of parts 1, and 2, are sold at 3 and 6 cents each respectively. They are handsomely printed with large type, profusely illustrated, and very durable. They are constructed in such a way as to assist the teacher in leading the child from a picture to the name of the thing which the picture represents.

The PRIMERS are accompanied by a Series of WALL LESSONS, 17 by 22 inches, reproducing in an enlarged form the introductory six pages of the FIRST PRIMER. The constant use of these cards in conjunction with the PRIMERS in the Schools is recommended. They are handsome and substantial and are varnished so that they can be cleaned. Price per set, 60 cents.

THE SIXTH READER, NEW EDITION
The Publishers of the MARITIME SERIES at first contemplated the issue of a Seventh Reader for advanced classes but acting on the advice of several experienced teachers of Nova Scotia, they determined to enlarge the SIXTH MARITIME READER in a more advanced book, without adding parents and guardians to the expense of a separate volume. The New Edition of the Sixth Maritime Reader is now ready. It contains over a hundred pages of new matter of a class suited to advanced pupils. Besides many declaratory pieces of the highest order, there are sections devoted to words difficult to spell, words frequently mispronounced; prefixes, affixes and roots, and lessons in elocution. The arrangement of the new matter will not in any way interfere with the use of the first edition in classes which may already be supplied, as all the new selections are inserted at the end of the volume, and the binding of the first edition has not been disturbed in the second.
