min."

2.—"The Shepherd of Jerusalem," by P. R. Morris, A.R.A. An impressive scene on the summit of Mount Calvary after the crucifixion.

3.—"La hadouna dei Ansidei" by Raphael. A touching representation of motherhood and childhood and one of the noblest embodiumnts of Christianity ever painted. The original was recently bought by the British Nation for $350,000, and the National Art Society has secured the only copperplate that exists; each of the above measures 34x22 inches.

4.—"The Monarch of the Glen," by Sir Edwin Landseer, 35x34 inches.

35x94 inches 5.—"The Challenge," by Sir Edwin Landseer. 371x20 in. 6.—"The Sanctuary," by Sir Edwin Landseer. 371x20 in.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Sweatman, of Toronto, writes:

"I have to thank you for sending me copies of the 3 engravings publish d by the National Art Society, of the well-known pictures, "The Madonna dei Ansidei." "The Shepherd of Jerusalem," "The Good Shepherd." The object of the Society, to disseminate among the people a taste for a pure and more elevated standard of art, and to put it within their reach to replace the inferior and too often debased tyres that disfigure rather than adorn their homes, by copies from the best masters, which will educate both eye and mind, is worthy of all commendation and encouragement. You have my permission to use my name as one of the patrons of your Society."

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Hamilton, of Ottawa, writes: OTTAWA 16th Feb., 1897.

"I hasten to make my acknowledgments of your kindness in sending me three engravings of the National Art Society. "The Good Shepherd." The Shepherd of Jerusalem" and 'The Majona dei Ansidei," are admirably fitted to promote the excellent objects which the National Art Any of the above six engravings will be sent carriage paid to any address in the postal union for $1.25 each or $3 0 for three.
