CHESTER JORDON PLACED ON TRIAL

Alleged that He Killed Wife With Flatiron During a Quarrel

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Apfil 20 .- Chester S. Jordan of Somerville, a vaude-The actor, was placed on trial today in East Cambridge for the murder of his wife, Honora Jordan, in Somerville on September 1st last. II is alleged that during a quarrel Jordan killed his wife by striking her on the head with flat iron, afterwards dismembering the body to conceal the crime. Portions of the body were found in a trunk in a lodging house in Boston through the suspicions of a cabman who moved the trunk for Jordan. The woman's head was discovered later in the furnace in her home and other parts of the body were found in a washtub. The police claim that Jon day confessed the crime. The introduction of the alleged confession court is expected to form the basis of a protracted battle. Jordan is brother-in-law of Jesse I

Livermore, the New York cotton operator, and it is understood that the Livermore wealth is aiding in Jordan's defense.
