The photograph herewith shows Harry Thaw on the steps of the Coatcook Town Hall and Chief of Police Boudreau. It was Chief Boudreau who on the instigation of Sheriff Kelsea, of New Hampshire, made the arrest of Thaw.

CASE ENDED ABRUPTLY AND CROWD CHEERED VERDICT FAVORING THAW

New York State Lawyers Told by Judge That There Was Nothing Doing For Them--What's Next? That is the Question Which is Bothering Everybody--Details of the Great Case.

[Canadian Press Despatch] SHELBROOKE, Que., Aug. 27.—After an almost sleepless night, during which attack and counter-attack were discussed by the leaders, the opposing forces in the case of Harry Thaw, held in the Sherbrooke jail, a truce was struck this morning prepared for a struggle to determine whether Lord White's slayer shall remain in his cell indefinitely or be arraigned in court, freed of the charge on which he is held and turned over to the immigration authorities to be sent to England. Thaw's lawyers, having served notice yesterday that they had withdrawn the habeas corpus writ on which Thaw was to be brought to court to-day, maintained that this insured his detention in jail until such time as he saw fit to elect to go on the charge of being a fugitive, either before a magistrate or before the King's bench, criminal court, in October. In withdrawing the writ they contended that they were within their legal rights.

Dr. Mawson and Party Saved in Nick of Time Relief Just Got There—Party Famished After Living on Hearts and Tongues of Sea Elephants.

CHRISTCHURCH, New Zealand, Aug. 27.—Relief arrived just in the nick of time to save the lives of Dr. Douglas Mawson, the Australian Antarctic explorer and his five companions who were left in March last on MacQuarie Island in the Antarctic Ocean, when the remaining 24 members of Dr. Mawson's expedition returned to Tasmania on board the Aurora from their South Polar trip. The six men were believed to have simple provisions to last them until the Antarctic spring, but the commander of the government steamer found that the men had been living on some time on the hearts and tongues of sea elephants. All of them were obviously in a very weak condition when the relief ship reached them.

STRIKING ADDRESS OF THE PRESIDENT TO-DAY IN CONGRESS ON MEXICAN MUDDLE

[Canadian Press Despatch] WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—President Wilson appeared in person before congress to-day and laid bare to the world the details of this nation's efforts to bring about peace in Mexico, the fact concerning Huerta's rejection of the peace proposals and the policy to be pursued now by the government.

The president announced the position of the United States to be as follows: "No armed intervention; strict neutrality (forbidding the exportation of arms or munitions of war of any kind from the United States to any part of the republic of Mexico)." Under no circumstances "be the partisans of either party to the contest that now distracts Mexico, or to make ourselves the virtual umpire between them."

To urge all Americans to leave Mexico at once, and assist them to get away in every way possible. To let everyone in Mexico who assumes to exercise authority know that this government "shall vigilantly watch the fortunes of those Americans who cannot get away and shall hold those responsible for their sufferings and losses to a definite reckoning."

Reception of a Mexican ambassador in Washington. That the United States send a new ambassador to Mexico without restraints. Strict observance of the neutrality laws and see to it that no American monetary assistance is given to the rebels. Unconditional recognition of the Huerta Government.

Magistrate Livingston Is Surely a Good Samaritan

He Hands Thirty Cents Out to a Commercial Traveller Charged With Beating a Restaurant Keeper Out of Meal Money.

Another heavy docket faced Magistrate Livingston this morning and until nearly noon, the court officials were kept decidedly busy. John Ryan was charged with a breach of the market by-law in that he did sell meat by retail on the public street. To this he pleaded not guilty and the evidence of a number of witnesses was taken, these people claiming that they bought meat from Ryan on the street. The accused pleaded that the people in question had stopped him while he was on his route and asked to buy meat. Peddlers of vegetables and fruit could be seen on the streets of Brantford every day except Sunday, the accused declared.

Magistrate Livingston expressed the opinion that Ryan had not solicited orders on the street and despite the strenuous objections of Crown Attorney Henderson, dismissed the case. Welby Lutes has only been married four months but this morning he appeared on the carpet charged as a drunk and with assaulting his wife. To the first charge he pleaded guilty but regarding the assault charge he said he did not remember. Mrs. Lute endeavored to refresh the memory of the accused when she told the court of a lively struggle which took place last night, when Lute came home under the influence of liquor and attempted to choke her. Witness called for help and neighbors ran to her rescue. In the meantime Lutes received a beautiful black eye, while the wife got away with a number of marks on her body. Magistrate Livingston told Lutes that he ought to be ashamed of himself and warned him that a similar offense again would mean the lash. He adjourned the case for a week and stated that Lutes' conduct in the

HIGH TENSION LINE ON RAILWAY ROUTE RIGHT INTO THE CITY

Arrangements have been completed whereby the high tension line of the Hydro-Electric from the Brant sub-station near the Paris Road will be taken care of on the right of way of the Lake Erie & Northern Railway right into the city to the Greenwich street sub-station. This move on the part of Engineer Ireland is a most commendable one, as it will mean that the 26,000 volt line will be away from any residential streets, and the danger will be reduced to a minimum. The expense will also be reduced. It is likely that the power for Paris will also go in over the Lake Erie & Northern Railway right of way, although arrangements in this regard have not been completed.

Some worry was occasioned last week as a result of a visit to the sub-station which is far from being completed. Engineer Ireland took the matter up at Toronto and was informed that the cause of the delay was in the steel construction. He was assured that the station would be ready to connect up by January 1 next. The local Hydro-Electric work is being rushed ahead with all possible despatch and while Engineer Ireland refuses to make any definite announcement as to when the "juice" will be turned on in Brantford members of his committee are confident that he will have things in great shape by December so that the new Hydro lights will be on in full blaze in January.

Rural Mail Routes Vastly Increased

OTTAWA, Aug. 27.—The rural mail delivery system has undergone an immense increase within the past year. At the present time eighteen hundred routes are in operation. This is an increase of about a thousand since the present Government assumed office. While a number of routes are being established in the West, the service is much more largely centred in the East, especially in Ontario, which has displayed a much greater tendency to utilize it. The result has been the closing of a large number of country post-offices.

Mr. R. H. Reville Writes Breezy Western Letter

Edmonton is Wonderful City With a Great Future Before it—Touring Brantfordite Enthusiastic.

EDMONTON, Aug. 23.—It's a nice little faunt' shiegly of prairie, eight hundred miles from Winnipeg to Edmonton. Its broad streets, its magnificent stores, public buildings and fine churches, its glorious air and sunshine—the term "Stoney Alberta" finds its perfect exemplification in Edmonton and its environment—make it an ideal city for residential or business purposes. It is superbly situated on the fast-rushing Saskatchewan river, with well wooded slopes—a pleasing observation cars are a feature on all the railways in the West, the latest English, Canadian and United States magazines are supplied for the edification of the traveller. All the berths are electrically lighted and another capital feature which is greatly appreciated by the traveller is the posting from time to time of a "pony news service," covering the important events transpiring in the world, stock market quotations and sporting events. Certainly this is travelling de luxe!
