JOKE GAME ON HOLIDAY

The Massey-Harris Team of Toronto Looked Like "Bushers"

WERE HELD TO ONE HIT Verity's Won Encounter 16-1 Though Playing Listless

A FARCE ENCOUNTER

Toronto enjoys a reputation for many things, and has a reputation for others wished upon it. In addition to being The Good City, and the capital of Ontario, it is noted for being the home of pretty girls, and can now in addition claim the distinction of housing the poorest ball team which ever appeared on a diamond.

Local fans here often wondered if baseball inferior to our city league calibre was ever played. Those who saw yesterday morning's game know beyond doubt that it is, or the visiting segregation racket—what show of merit one could ever guess—from the entire Massey-Harris plant of Toronto, put up an exhibition which in a less dry country would have driven all normal fans to drink. It may be that a few of the team had headed a ball before, but it must have been long enough to permit them to forget the fact, and on yesterday's showing it should be a long time before any of them will be trusted on a diamond again. Verity's pennant contenders in the city league, are for from being of big-league class, and the credit the visitors they showed up like world beaters, and playing listless ball throughout, amused the game by a score of 16-1.

Try as they might, Toronto were unable to drive a single run across the plate until Harwood took pity on them and handed out four passes, giving the visitors their only tally. For the rest of the game, Harwood, though hardly at his best, toyed with his opponents, holding them to one hit and fanning fifteen men.

The exhibition put up by the visiting team was a spectacle to wring tears of laughter from the downtown heart. In the wilds of Greenland and Siberia, the natives know nothing at all about baseball, but there are nine or ten would-be players in Toronto who know even less. Had the game been less ludicrous, the fans might have been disgusted at the false pretences under which they had been induced to pay out their perfectly good money, but the burlesque which was put on was worth more than the price of admission.

The game in detail, would be difficult of description. Verity's, though not playing their best brand of ball, were vastly superior, five minutes after the visitors had stepped on the field. In fact, among many the opinion prevailed that Manager Kerr had been the victim of a hoax, and that a bunch of amateurs had been shipped from the Queen City. It's a cinch Toronto would be glad to get rid of 'em.

The Plowmakers found their stride in the third inning and forth then on scored every inning, generally several times. When they failed to hit safely, either Picknell or Gingsra could be depended to boot the ball back over a couple of men a life. Every runner who reached the first stole second, and the visitors, in fact, could scarcely hang onto the ball when it was tossed from one to another. If the Massey-Harris team ever played in an organized league, it must have been one with a doubly reinforced concrete bottom to prevent them from falling through. To paradise, it was magnificent, but it was not baseball.

TORONTO GRABS CHAMPIONSHIP

Leafs Took Two Games Yesterday While Binges Dropped One

TWELVE-INNING GAME

Lear Drove in Winning Run Returning His Team as Champions

Toronto, Sept. 3.—Dan Howley's Leafs are champions of the new international league. They staged one of the greatest finishes ever in the history of the game, and the trick yesterday, and the credit must go to King Lear. Three times during a thrilling twelve-inning game Lear stepped up, and each time he delivered with a stinging hit that sent over a run. His last effort was the greatest. It sent over the run that won the championship.

The Leafs had to win two games from the Bisons yesterday to be called champions. They did. The morning count came our way 4 to 4, and it took twelve innings of the most desperate battling to get the verdict 5 to 4 in the afternoon. To make the championship possible, Jack Dunn and his Baltimore team won the second game of a double-header from the Binges. It was the Bird's first victory in five starts against Binghamton, and the Leafs' battling would have won for none but the Binges had squeezed over a win in the second game.

The afternoon game yesterday was the hardest fought of the year. It meant the championship of second place, and the Bisons gave the Leafs their toughest argument of the season. The Bisons forged ahead early, but the Leafs caught them in the fifth thanks to Lear and his trusty bat. Two hits and a wild pitch let the herd go out in front again in the tenth. Lear ambled up with Dolan on the paths in our half. Lear smashed out a beautiful hit to right, and again it was tied. In the twelfth, with the bases full and Callahan just passed purposely to make a play at every corner, Lear hit it far over the centre fielder's head, and the game was won and the old flag rescued. It was a great finish to a thrilling fixture.

If Toronto fans do not see a ball game for many years to come, they will always be able to go back and delve into the doings the day that King Lear won the new international league pennant in 1918. The first-batter won undying fame with his trusty war club in the second game yesterday, and he is the man to thank for the championship. Three times during the second game Lear appeared in a pinch, and each time he stepped out a hit. He drove the ball far over the centre fielder's head in the twelfth inning to send over the winning run. It was a fitting climax to a great game. The final score was 5 to 4.

The Bisons played like league leaders. They went to the front in the early stages. The Leafs caught them in the fifth, but the Buffalo crew took the lead again in the tenth. Lear stepped in for the second time during the afternoon and drove over the tying run. He then waited until the twelfth, and smashed one over Buckley's head with one down and Bobby Heck on third. It was an easy home run, but Lear only needed to touch first base and Heck the home plate and the title was ours.

The crowd simply went wild and awarmed onto the field and hugged and patted the players on the back like long-lost brothers. Cozy Dolan was waiting at the plate to dump a bucket of water over Bobby Heck as he crossed the plate with the run that won the flag.

One could spend the best part of a day explaining all about this great fixture, but what is the use, Justin retired in the eighth after he was spiked at first base, and Bobby Heck was on the mound when the Leafs turned in the victory. Bobby gets the credit for the win, as the score was tied when Justin retired.

The Leafs fielded in brilliant style. Anderson and Gonzales pulled sparkling work on ground balls, and the outfield work was all that could be asked for. Buckley kindly dropped two flies that the Leafs took full advantage of.

The Bisons were out to do their bit. They went after the Leafs as a victory would give Buffalo the championship of the world. In fact it was said that $33 was the reason for the great Bison fight. The visitors fought tooth and nail until Lear won it in the twelfth.

The Leafs got a run in the first, and it was a gift. With two down Callahan cracked out a hit to left and stole second. Lear sent up an easy fly to centre and Heck dropped it. Callahan trotted home with a run.

Buffalo took the lead by scoring two in the fourth. Strait walked and Corcoran sacrificed. Witke singled, and Bengough's sacrifice fly to left let the first run over. Armstrong cut a hit to centre for a tally that put the Leafs up. McCarron's triple and Strait's single in the fifth gave Buffalo a two-run margin.

King Lear got in his first telling hits in the fifth. The Leafs tied it here for the first time. Buckley dropped Fisher's fly and Justin doubled to right. Dolan walked and Gonzales flew out to short centre. Callahan's sacrifice fly to centre let Fisher home, and Lear's corking hit to left let Justin over with the tying run.

It was a great battle until the 10th, without any scoring. The first man up in the eighth bunted to Lear, and Justin was spiked trying to cover first. He retired and Heck finished the pitching duty. With one down in the tenth, Thomas beat out a hit to first, and went to second on a wild pitch. Buckley supplied a hit to score him.

Nothing daunted, the Leafs went back and tied it again. Dolan opened with a neat single and Gonzales sacrificed. Callahan popped out on the first pitched ball. Lear hit an honest one to right, and again the Leafs stood on even terms. Herche hit one a mile-a-minute down to third. McCarron just touched the ball and deflected it to Armstrong, who threw out Herche by a step. If the ball had gone through it would have meant has been prohibited.

the ball game. The twelfth was the grand and glorious finish for 1918 baseball. Heck got a life when Corcoran topped his pop fly when Strait bumped into Mickey. Dolan neatly sacrificed and Gonzales hit to left. Callahan was purposely walked. Witke figuring on a play at every corner, Lear hit one over the head of centre field, touched first, and Heck came home with the run that won the championship.

Toronto won the morning game 4 to 1 by using their clubs with telling effect late in the game. Dolan pulled a real one by stealing home cleanly in the opening inning.

CUBS ALL SET FOR THE BIG SERIES

Will Clash With Red Sox in Opening Game at Chicago Tomorrow

VAUGHN IS TO PITCH?

By Courier Leased Wire.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—The Chicago Nationals returned from Pittsburgh today and began preliminary practice for the opening game of the world's series here to-morrow, with the Boston Red Sox, champions of the American League. Ideal weather is promised for the initial contest.

Manager Fred Mitchell ordered his team to report at the American League Park this afternoon for a practice session in which the Cubs will acquaint themselves with the lights and shadows of the grounds. Charles A. Omsky, president of the Chicago Americans, present world champions, has invited Manager Edward Barrow to hold a practice session at the grounds on the arrival of the Red Sox probably late today. Jim Vaughn, the big south-paw, has been picked by Omsky as sport writers, as the probable choice of Manager Mitchell for the opening game, while the baseball radio guesses that Boston's right-hander, Carl May, will start for the Red Sox with Ruth as second choice. May's peculiar submarine delivery, the like of which the National League champions have not met, has led fandom to believe that he will start off the ball's earliest world championship game.

Tickets for reservations for the games which in price will be the cheapest on record have sold far better than anticipated by Walter Craig, secretary of the Nationals. Two thousand box seats for to-morrow's game at $3.50 war tax included were placed on sale and otherwise for the following games will be held.

The export of casein from Canada has been prohibited.
