AROMA OF SPRING

Permeated Police Court
This Morning

When Evidence Was at Hand That the Slumber Brand is on Tap.

Notwithstanding the fact that snow was falling this morning, there was an aroma of spring in the air that was unmistakable. To notice this aroma, however, it was necessary for one to be in police court where John McCue was charged with having obstructed traffic — clogged the wheels of trade and commerce, a la Treadgold concession, by mistaking the street for a bunk house and lying down to woo nature's sweet restorer. John had looked upon the slumber brand of hothead when it stood aright in the glass, yes, he had poured and swallowed of it long and frequently—another case of spring swallows. He was assessed $5 and trimmings.

John McIntosh had ignored the slumber brand but had taken within his system until it became permeated the fighting brand. It took until five o'clock this morning to acquire a full head of steam but once obtained John was in a fighting mood and not until safely in the hostile attack did he give up the idea of giving to some one a "lickin'." When $5 and costs had been paid his account was square.

French Captain Killed

Paris, March 19.—The Journal des Debats today says it learns that the French column in the Lake Tchad district of Africa, which defeated Chief Rabah's son, has since met with serious opposition from Senoussi tribes. No details of the fighting have been received, but it is known that in an engagement near the capital of the district of Kanem a French captain was killed.

Santos-Dumont Coming.

Paris, March 19.—M. Santos-Dumont today accepted an invitation from the officials of the St. Louis exposition to go to St. Louis, assist the authorities in the organization of the proposed balloon contests, and select a site on which to erect a balloon shed for himself. The aeronaut will sail for New York on the steamer Deutschland, April 4. He will not take a balloon with him.

Southerners More Anxious to Free Boers Now Than to Free Negroes Years Ago.

Washington, March 19.—The Democrats of the house, at a caucus held tonight, unanimously adopted a resolution declaring that congress should express the sympathy of the American people for the struggling Boer republicans, and pledging themselves to use their utmost endeavors to "force" the committees to report resolutions expressive of such sympathy, if only that congress may have an opportunity to act.

Representative Hay, of Virginia, presided at the caucus, and Representative Robertson, of Louisiana, acted as secretary. The attendance was large. There was no division of sentiment as to the course to be taken, the question presented being simply one of choice between two resolutions, one offered by Mr. Randall, of Texas, and the other by Mr.
Sulzer, of New York. The Sulzer resolution was as follows:

"Resolved, by the Democrats of the house of representatives of the United States of America, in caucus assembled, That we sympathize with the Boers in their heroic struggle to maintain their liberty and independence, and protest, in the name of humanity and civilization, against a continuation of a warfare which outrages the feelings of all liberty-loving people, and that we shall use our best efforts to have the congress of the United States, being committed to the principles of arbitration for the settlement of international disputes, request the president to urge upon the government of his majesty the wisdom of adopting this policy for the purpose of stopping the awful atrocities now going on in South Africa, and that the government of the United States should maintain a strict neutrality between the contending forces."

SURPRISE

Jeweler's Peaceful Home Invaded Last Night

By Several Good Fellows Who Celebrated Hosts Birth Anniversary.

Yesterday was J. L. Sale's birthday. Just which one it was is not known, but it was not less than his 30th nor more than his 1st.

Last night while Mr. Sale was condoling with his son and heir for falling and knocking some skin off his nose, his usually peaceful home was invaded by a gang made up of Drs. Edwards, Sutherland, and Cassels, and Messrs. Wissel, Lanning, Russell, Sallimon, Lindemann, Schueck and Rudy and for the next few hours the Sale home, in a mild way, was a disorderly house.

Mrs. Sale had been apprised of the intended surprise on her husband and had prepared a nice repast in the form of cake and punch and later in the evening when "Jack" had thoroughly imbibed the spirit of the occasion, also of the punch bowl, he opened some wine that he had formally thought to keep until his son's wedding day.

The piano was played until the performer was tired and Rudy sang until the others were tired and thus the evening was merrily passed.

Brave as a Lion.

Chicago, March 19.—George L.
Howe, the youthful soldier who caused excitement during the visit of Prince Henry by trying to pass a letter to the royal visitor, distinguished himself before leaving Chicago for New York by enacting the role of a hero. The young man was on his way to the railway depot, and was crossing the thoroughfare at Van Buren street and Michigan avenue, when an automobile approached. A girl was crossing the street and was almost directly in front of the automobile, when young Howe dragged her to a place of safety. The act was witnessed by a number of persons. The youth, who has been rendered speechless by a bullet wound sustained in the Philippines, will endeavor to join the army in New York.

Just received over the ice, fresh turkeys, geese, ducks and oysters.
Bonanza Market, next to post office.
