Ladies' Jackets

Possibly there has never been a season when Ladies' Jackets were so distinctively NEW as this season. Change in the length, change in the sleeve, change in the materials used, in fact such a change in the general appearance as will make the selection of a new jacket extremely interesting to you this season. Our New Jackets have come to hand, and it is the general verdict of sales ladies and customers that they surpass in style and value our showing of previous seasons. It will be interesting for you to see them; it will be a pleasure for us to show them.

TWO STYLES stand out prominently, and are very worthy of special description, "The Empire Style," and "The Paddock Style."

THE EMPIRE STYLE

This coat is a distinct innovation from any style on record, cut semi fitting half way down to the waist line, forming what might be called a deep yoke, and falling from there to the entire length in full, graceful folds or pleats. The new large sleeve with the piped cuff completes the very stylish appearance of "The Empire Coat." This style is made in Black Beavers and Kerseys, Tweeds and Fawn Coverts. We show a splendid assortment of this style at

$10, $15 and $18

THE PADDOCK COAT

This coat, while extremely stylish, is not quite so abrupt a departure from past styles as the "Empire." It is made three-quarter and seven-eighths lengths and tight fitting. The skirt hangs in full pleats from the waist line and gives a decidedly mannish appearance to the garment. The large new sleeve with the new cuff adds greatly to the effect and tends to take away the severe plainness. This garment is made in Black, Kerseys and Fawn Coverts and is shown here at

HARVEST HOME AT HOLY TRINITY

Splendid Services and Delightful Music Characterized the Memorable Festival

Able Addresses by Rev. Mr. Hodgins—Service of Song & Tribute to Mrs. Bray and Miss
Morrison

"And He said, I beseech thee, shew me Thy glory."

"And He said, I will make all My goodness to pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the Lord before thee."—Exodus xxxiii, 17, 18.

Such was the theme of the earnest and eloquent rector, Rev. Mr. Hodgins, at the memorable and much-enjoyed harvest home festival at Holy Trinity church yesterday. He dwelt ably upon the bountiful harvest and the goodness of God in the manifest visitations of life and exhorted all to service of thanksgiving.

Two large congregations attended the services morning and evening.
The edifice was beautifully and bountifully bedecked with flowers, foliage and the rich grains from the harvest fields, charmingly interwoven into appropriate and pleasing designs.
The decorations were the work of the ladies of the church and were much admired.

The music at both services was distinctly enjoyable. In the morning three anthems were admirably rendered and Miss Eva Degge contributed an exquisite solo; in the evening the complete choral service was inaugurated and was much admired. Too much praise cannot be given the energetic and capable lady director, Mrs. R. V. Bray, who so successfully trained the choir and conducted the choral work, or to the accomplished young organist, Miss Rose Morrison, whose playing was so much admired and who contributed to such a large extent to the success of the services.

The offerings were liberal, and the era of spiritual and material prosperity so auspiciously inaugurated in Holy Trinity church under the pastorate of Rev. Mr. Smith promises to be further extended during the ministry of Rev. Mr. Hodgins.

MEETING CALLED

S. B. Morris summons the Bean Producers and Dealers to Ridgeway to Discuss Freight Rates

A circular letter has been issued by S. B. Morris, of London, calling a meeting of the producers of beans for September 29th at the Arlington Hotel, Ridgeway, at 10.30 a. m., for the purpose of taking united action looking toward the obtaining of more equitable rates of freight, and for the purpose of discussing the advisability of laying before the Tariff Commission the facts in connection with the bean trade of Canada, with the object of moving the Government to action, whereby the Canadian markets may be retained to Canadians, at present California producers and dealers are able to monopolize the Pacific Coast trade, while Ontario producers and dealers are excluded from the American market by reason of a prohibitory duty of 45 cents per bushel, we are authorized by the convener of the meeting to extend to all producers an invitation to present the farmers in the locality of Ridgway being the persons principally interested, should avail themselves of this opportunity to endeavor by united action to remedy the present unfavorable conditions which are said to exist, to their detriment.

Don't forget the Fair this week.
Better than ever.

MAKE CHANGE

Miss Gertrude Carnovsky Succeeds Miss Brackin as Organist of Victoria Ave. Church

A meeting of the choral managers of Victoria Avenue Methodist church is being held this evening to appoint a new organist to succeed Miss B.
Brackin, resigned.

The position, it is understood, has been offered to Miss Gertrude Carnovsky, a young lady of exceptional ability and who is, moreover, taken an earnest and much appreciated worker in the church and its various organizations. Miss Carnovsky's selection as organist would be most favorably received.

GOOD CHOICE

Ridgeway Dominion Says C. C. I.
Board Were Fortunate in Scurring Mr. McRitchie's Services

Writing editorially, in this week's issue of the Ridgeway Dominion, of the new teacher who to-day joined the C. C. I. staff, P. H. Bowyer, M.
P. P., says:—

"The Chatham C. C. I. Board made no mistake in securing the services of Mr. A. R. McRitchie, B. A. Mr.
McRitchie is a son of Kent county, who had made a high mark in his chosen profession when ill health forced his retirement to the farm.
He has now fully recovered his old-time vigor, and we are pleased to note not only his return to his profession, but that his valuable services are retained in his native county."

NEW ORGANIST

Mr. John Smith Will Assume Charge of the Christ Church Organ Next Sunday—Farewell Recital
Given by Mr. Doleman

The services in Christ Church were particularly bright and attractive yesterday, and were attended by very large congregations. Rev. T. Dobson filled the pulpit, as the rector, Rev.
Robt. McCosh, was conducting Harvest Home services in Tilbury. Mr.
Dobson preached two splendid sermons, which were greatly appreciated.
The Tilbury Church is fortunate in having such an able man for their rector.

The vested choir turned out in full numbers and contributed largely to the brightness of the service. In the evening the music was especially good and included a selection, "The Sands of Time are Sinking," from the male quartet, Messrs. Angus, W.
Smith, J. Smith and Wilson.

After the evening service an organ recital was given by Mr. Walter Dole-man, the retiring organist of the church. Mr. Doleman rendered a number of excellently executed selections, which were greatly appreciated. A number of people from other churches of the city attended the recital. Mr. Doleman is a capable organist, and his many friends wish him continued success in his future career.

The new organist, Mr. John R.
Smith, a member of the Christ Church male quartet, will take charge of the organ next Sunday.
Mr. Smith is a Chatham boy and a talented musician, and his abilities are well known to Chatham music lovers, who will be interested to learn that he is making rapid strides in his chosen profession.

At a meeting of the Speed committee it was decided that the farmers' race on Wednesday at the Fair should be trotted in one-half mile heats, and that in the running race heats should be five-eighths mile in place of seven-eighths mile, as published. These changes should not doubt be appreciated by those entering in these two events.

A SUCCESSFUL ANNIVERSARY

Excellent Services Charac-terize Occasion at St.
Andrew's Church

Splendid Sermons and Good Music Were Features of the Occasion

Large congregations attended both services on the occasion of the successful anniversary of St. Andrew's church yesterday and the proceedings were distinctly edifying and enjoyable.

Rev. Mr. Knox, of Strathroy, an able young divine, occupied the pulpit and preached two eloquent discourses, which were much appreciated. The morning text was "Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world," and the speaker spoke of the terrible power and presence of sin and its great remedy.
In the evening his address was of a stirring missionary character and a strong appeal was made on behalf of the Canadian Northwest.

The music contributed by the splendid choir under the accomplished leadership of Miss Ada Ross, was keenly enjoyed. Four splendid anthems were sung and exquisite solos rendered by Misses Brock and Somerville, while at the evening service Misses Somerville, Brackin and Ross sang an admirable trio unaccompanied.

The services were among the most successful in the history of the church and were a tribute to the zeal and effort of the popular and esteemed pastor, Rev. J. R. Battisby, D. D., Ph. D., LL. D.

NOT SO

Mayor Cowan Never Applied for School Board Books Nor Was He Refused—Chairman Morley's Letter

The Planet received this morning the following communication from Chairman Morley, of the Public School Board, which deals briefly with the allegation of the Mayor that he applied for and was refused access to the Board's books:—

To the Editor of The Planet:— Dear Sir,—In order to correct the mis-statement furnished to The Planet of Sept. 22nd re alleged refusal to show the minute books of the School Board, I desire to make the following brief and simple statement:—

The facts are these: On Friday morning last I was called to the phone by Mr. Wilson, the city solicitor, who informed me that Mr. Cowan wanted to see the minute book of the School Board. My answer was, "All right; any person is at liberty to do so. We have nothing to conceal."

Mr. Wilson then asked, "When can he see them?" My answer was, "Tomorrow. I am too busy to-day."

That ended the entire conversation.
I have two witnesses who can verify my statement.

Had Mr. Cowan come to me as a citizen and asked permission to see the books, busy as I was, I would have at once complied with his request.

I very much regret the absence of our secretary. He has been in the city there would have been no necessity for even making the request.

WM. N. MORLEY,
Chairman.

A BUSY DAY

Several Cases Disposed of by Judge Houston at the Police Court
This Morning

There was a full Police Court docket this morning and Judge Houston was kept busy dealing out justice during most of the morning.

The two men who were found guilty of stealing wood from the Pere Marquette were allowed to go on suspended sentence, after paying costs, which amounted to $35. The Judge took into consideration the evidence of the men when they said that they thought the wood was abandoned by the railway. He gave them a severe lecture, however, and it is thought the men will not have to appear in Police Court again—not on a similar charge, at any rate.

Richard Masters, who was locked up for attempting to commit suicide, was also allowed to go on suspended sentence.

Gus Smith showed up bright and early, sober as a judge, to answer to an old charge of being drunk and disorderly. Gus was locked up one night last week and the judge let him go with the understanding that he could get off by paying a fine if he did not take a drink of liquor before Monday. Gus was true to his word and showed up with the dough this morning. The Judge warned him that if he ever got drunk again it would go hard with him.

William Watson was fined $1 and costs, $5 in all.
The Transient Traders' case against Mr. Sharpero was adjourned until the 2nd of October. The case was argued this morning by Counsels Lewis and H. D. Smith, the former appearing for Sharpero.
