A Hunter's Story.

EXPOSURE BROUGHT ON AN ATTACK OF RHEUMATISM.

TACK OF RIBUMATISM.

Nervousness and Stomach Troubles Followed—Sleep at Times Was Impossible—Health Again Restored.

From the Amserst, N. S., Senimel.

The little village of Petitoodiac is situated in the south-easterly part of New Brunswick, on the line of the Intercolonial Railway. Mr Herbert Yeomans, who resides there, follows the occupation of a hunder and trapper. His occupation requires him to endure a great deal of exposure and hardabip, more especially when the snow lies thick and deep on the ground in our cold more especially when the show her times and deep on the ground in our cold winters. A few years ago Mr I comman tells our correspondent that he was seiz-el with a severe bilious attack and a o implication of diseases, such as sour

Mr Yeomans' version of the facts are "I became very ill and suffered the most excruciating pains in my arms, legs and shoulders, so much so that I could not shoulders, so much so that I could not rest in any position. I frequently could not sleep nights, and when I did I awoke with a tired feeling and very much de pressed. My appetite was very poor, and if I ate anything at all, no matter how light the food was, it gave me a dull, heavy feeling in my stomach, which would be followed by vomiting. I suffered so intensely with pains in my arms and shoulders that I could escreely raise my hands to my head. I tried different remedies, but all to no purpose. A neighbor came in one evenidg and asked 'Have you tried Dr. Williams' Pinh Pills I' I had not, but thee determined to try them, and procured a box, and before the pills were all gone, I began to Inprove. This encouraged me to purhaps even more serious than my own, and then I felt my Father's call to this service."

After telling, more fully than I shall here quote, the details of her response to the service.

What Our Flower Mission Saint is Still Doing.

BY FANNIE CASSEDY DUNCAN.

Since the Union Signal so kindly asks me for something about Jennic Cassedy and her love for those shut in from the luxuvies of life, I will avail myself of his courtesy to tell its readers of our latest success in carrying forward her especial pet work—the summer home for wage-carning women. I do not mean that this work met the approval of her judgment more than all or any other of those she set in motion, for she entered into all of them with deliberate judgment of their need to be, of their availability as forces that make for righteousness, and of their practical, material

The homospataic school—the smaller he dose, the better it suits me.

"I once drove 28 nails," said the comanly little woman, "without ever litting my thumb."
"How did you do it?" asked they in conderment.

"With a hammer—and a man." "I heab you and the Majah had a little difficulty last night, Colonel ?"
"No difficulty on my paht, Judge, I assuah yo?. It may be that the Majah had a little difficulty in getting himself togethah to go home after it was ovah, sah."

"What's your husband's politics?" asked the new neighbor.
""Jim ?" said the lady addressed. "He's an anti."
"Anti-what?"
"No. a net anti-what. "It asked the said."

"No; net anti-what; jist an anti. He's agin anything that happens to be." With the blood full of humors, the heated term is all the more oppressive. Give the system a thorough cleansing with Ayer's Saraparulla, and a dose or two of Ayer's Pills, and you will enjoy the summer as never before in your life. Just try this for once, and you'll not repeat it.

Potts—The thing that mystifies me about this Turkish-Grecian fight is—Motts—The powers?

"Bosh, no, but rather the way people nere who haven't seen the inside of a hurch in 40 years go wild with sympathy for Greece because the Greeks are hiristians."

Stranger—As I was going home late last night somebody fired a pistol at me and shot this hole through my hat.

Western Judge—What the mischief have I got to do with that? This ain't a hat atore. If the man shoots a hole through your head, then come to me and I'll see what can be done about it.
