

COMPLETELY FREE OF CONSTIPATION

Tried for Years to Find Relief

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" GAVE IT

Chronic Constipation or insufficient action of the bowels, is one of the great causes of disease. Some authorities even claim that Constipation cannot be permanently corrected. This is a great mistake, because here is the proof that constipation can be cured and the bowels made to act regularly and naturally.

YARMOUTH, N.S.

"For years, I was troubled with Constipation, and had to take laxatives and purgatives all the time. If I neglected to take these, the bowels would refuse to do their work.

About two years ago, a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives", which I did. The first box helped me so much that I obtained further supplies of the remedy and continued the treatment. After using about eight boxes, my bowels were able to perform their particular function without aid.

The relief in my case has been lasting, as up to date, I have never had any further trouble. I can recommend "Fruit-a-tives" to all suffering as I did and I am sure they will derive equal benefit."

A. W. FRANKLIN.

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c., or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

Singing Band Coming

A keen observer says Ralph Dunbar is surely an innovator, for he did the "impossible" when he produced "The Nine White Hussars", who will appear at the Chautauque. He developed the highest possibilities in band music with nine, just nine—not five times that many—men. Of course, he secured young men of musical ability, and, best of all, with real personalities. To do this would have been an achievement, but to find men who really sing well, and also are artists at playing the necessary band instruments, was a master stroke in the organizing of musical forces.

The point is, it was done; and the Hussars, now eight years old, are one of the most talked of musical organizations in America today. They have appeared during the past season in every important American city.

Their engagement means plenty of real band music, that is as if a Sousa or a Santelman were wielding his baton over half a hundred players. It means unusual ensemble singing—splendid timbre, shading, studied tone, quality, real artistry. It means occasional solos that really get somewhere, are not just endured but enjoyed. It means some clean, clever fun that will bring a laugh from the kindergarten on the front row to the grown-ups further back, and all between. In short, it's worth while.

Backache

Backache is the outstanding symptom of kidney disease. Women often make the mistake of attributing other causes and overlook the derangement of the kidneys until serious developments have made it difficult to obtain permanent relief.

This letter points to a treatment which has been so thoroughly tried and proven so effective in the great majority of cases that you cannot afford to overlook it when cause arises for its use.

Mrs. Albert Brunet, R.R. No. 1, Ottawa, Ont., writes:

"I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for the past two months, having been afflicted with kidney trouble. I used two doctors' medicine previous to this, without any good results. A friend told me to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and the second box made me feel a good deal better. I have now used about six or eight boxes, and am completely relieved."

BATH STILL IN THE LEAD

On Wednesday evening, July 19 the Village of Bath was again the centre of attraction. The reason and cause was the unveiling and dedication of a practical and useful Soldiers' Memorial. The Kent and Wicklow Soldiers Memorial is somewhat different to the usual form of public monument, in that the concrete base is fitted with an automatic waste-preventing water supply, for man and beast. On this stands a polished granite monument, on which, in two parallel columns, stands out in bold relief the names of the twenty four men from the Parishes of Kent and Wicklow, who died for Home and Country in the Great War of 1914-1919.

Superimposed on this is another piece of granite on which a symbolic design is carved—crossed guns and laurel wreaths—signifying that through the gates of death they gained the victors crown; and though the entrance fee was high, it gained for them initiation into the glorious company of those immortals, who through all the ages, have fought, bled and died, so that freedom, truth and justice should not perish from the earth.

Bath honors itself by thus erecting in respectful and grateful memory of those who helped to make the blessings of peace possible, this unique Memorial to the dead which supplies a vital necessity of the living, to the greatest good of the greatest possible number. Owing to the heavy showers, part of the program was abandoned.

We regret that the base ball game was not carried out, for the reason stated. Nevertheless the other important events were carried through. Just before 7 p.m. a procession was formed, headed by a band of young girls in charge of Women's Institute, which paraded to the speakers stand on Main Street, where a very large audience was assembled to hear a number of speeches by prominent public speakers.

The proceedings opened with the choir singing "O Canada." A letter was then read regretting the inability of Rev. W. M. Donohoe of Johnville to be present, but the message breath a spirit of devotion to the principles of justice and right for which our men went forth to win. Enclosed was a donation which we are glad to acknowledge.

After which Misses DeMerchant and Davenport performed the ceremony of unveiling, with some idea of the meaning of the act.

Then followed an eloquent address by Rev. O. O. Howlett, formerly of Bath, but now residing in Victoria County. The hymn "Lead Kindly Light" was sung, after which Rev. Mr. Wasson invoked the blessing of the Almighty Father of all. Then another address by Rev. Mr. Chown of Florenceville. "In Flanders Field" was the next item, splendidly recited by Jackson Giberson. Then followed in succession, able, earnest and patriotic addresses by T. W. Caldwell, M. P., C. L. Ketchum, Hon. J. K. Flemming and Charles F. Gallagher.

It was plainly evident that the spirit of patriotism is not dead in this section. On the contrary, it is very much alive and ready to burst into flame, at the first sign of aggression on the part of any nation which dares to test it.

The memorial service closed with the presentation by the chairman to J. N. Drost, G. W. Perry and Hugh G. Tweedie of the title deed to the land and premises on which the Memorial stands, to be held by them and their successors in office, forever, in trust always, for the perpetual use and enjoyment of the public.

While this was being done a silent tribute to the memory of our dead was placed on the monument—a wreath contributed by Mrs. Gideon Gray, the wife of a returned man.

The National Anthem was then heartily sung by the audience. This event will long be remembered as one of the most important in the history of Carleton County.

While the public Memorial service was in charge of the Finance Committee, the entertainment at Brennan's Hall later in the evening was in the charge of the Women's Institute, the members of which co-operating with us in providing sufficient funds to pay the expenses incurred in the erection of the Memorial. The children of the Village of Bath, dressed in the patriotic colors, red, white and blue, marched from the Monument to the Hall, followed by a vast crowd.

While the audience gathered, the Summerfield Orchestra played several selections.

The first number on the program was the Glangarry Flag Drill nicely done by nine little girls.

Then the ladies of the Women's Institute presented the play "The Old Maid's Convention" to a house filled to its capacity.

As the players went forth all the efforts in their power to please, the audience responded by enthusiastic applause and generous donations.

Credit is due both to the players and to the Summerfield Orchestra, for the excellency of their performance. After the sparkling comedy was over, then came the Market Social, and the eyes of the ladies sparkled when the baskets were eagerly bought up by the hungry bachelors and others present. When the contents were properly disposed of, all went their several ways, well content.

We are pleased to announce to all that the financial results is that the proceeds amounted to the satisfactory sum of Two Hundred and Two Dollars and seventy cents, which enables us to further announce that we will be able to present the memorial to the public, for their use and enjoyment forever, free of debt, together with the land on which it is erected.

Our sincere thanks are tendered to all who helped us on this occasion—W. H. B.

In addition to the above The Observer has received the following: "I am, aware that W. H. Bramley is sending you in a report of the Soldiers' Memorial unveiling event of last Wednesday for your paper to print. The report is good but I would like to add that it does not do half justice to W. H. Bramley's own part in the transaction. Mr. Bramley has been head and shoulders to the whole matter, even in its origin three years ago. He has patiently and patriotically kept pounding the way to the final glorious finish and whatever glory in the affair which might not be entirely absorbed by the names of the dead heroes on the monument should be reflected in the halo which this community owes to W. H. Bramley. He is all right!"—M. E. Commins, M. D.

Do You Like Poetry? If You Don't You Will.

Many people don't like poetry—or think they don't. Of course, there's a reason for what they think they think—they haven't heard or read the right kind. And yet, if you ask the man in the street to tell you the names of any six pieces of literary composition which are a possession of his memory, it will be safe to wager that four of them are poetry.

There is poetry and poetry. Some of it is mere words, full of sound and fury, signifying nothing. But there is also some poetry, which puts into catching and striking and holding verse the little happenings and mis-happenings, the daily vexations and mistakes, the faulty ideas and words and deeds, that make so great a part of this common life; which shows us our shortcomings and misdoings; which laughs at and with us over our little vanities and weaknesses. Are you going to turn a contemptuous back on the kindly criticism and the gentle satire, the homely truth, the lesson that goes straight to the point, the wit and the wisdom, the fun and the earnest—because it rhymes?

There is a man who is a master of this kind of expression, who sees all human things in all kinds of lights and relations that escape us, and knows how to put them into verse with a snap to it.

He sings songs for everybody, at all seasons and in all moods; always sound and wholesome, full of good, common sense, or brimming over with healthy fun; "Impertinent Poems" to prick our vanity and laugh us out of our dearest weaknesses—"Rimes to be Read" by everybody to their great pleasure and profit—tender love songs, poems for and about children, such as few poets have written or can write.

It is hard to say in which vein Mr. Cooke is at his best. You will have a chance to judge for yourself, for he will appear at the Chautauque.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. CATARRHAL DEAFNESS requires constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. CATARRHAL DEAFNESS is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions. Circulars free. All Druggists. F. J.
