

LITTLE HOPE FOR BLYTH

Unless Mr. Justice Riddell Grants Stated Case.

He Will Likely Be Executed at the Time Already Set.

Motion at Toronto to Wind Up Amusement Company.

Toronto, Sept. 24.—(Special.)—W. S. McBrayne, as counsel for J. Reuben Cambden, appeared before Chancellor Boyd in chambers at Osgoode Hall this morning, and asked for an order winding up the Hamilton Amusement Company. This is the second amusement company of Hamilton to come before the chancellor this week. The other day he applied the winding up procedure to the Maple Leaf Amusement Co.

Mr. A. M. Lewis, for certain of the shareholders, objected to the application on behalf of Cambden. He produced affidavits of Aza L. Burke and Harry Baker to the effect that Cambden wanted to get the company into liquidation in order to sell it out at a personal profit. Cambden said he had a claim against the company—money he had advanced to keep the business going.

"But I cannot give an order till your claim is proved," said the chancellor. Mr. McBrayne submitted that this would make the winding up act.

Unless Mr. Justice Riddell changes his previous ruling and consents to give a stated case to the Court of Appeal there is little ground for the hope that Walter Blyth will be saved from the gallows. He is under sentence to die on October 1st for the murder of his wife at Agincourt. The Court of Appeal gave judgment this morning on the application of T. C. Robinette, K. C., to that effect. Chief Justice Moise, in giving judgment, said: Mr. Robinette raised a new point, which had not been taken until the application was made to the court on Monday. This was the point as to whether there had been sufficient direction to the jury as to the condition of the prisoner. Mr. Cartwright, the Attorney-General, agreed to let the point come up, as it had been made before the trial judge, but this was a matter about which there should be no irregularity. It should be left now in such a way that if those representing the prisoner may ask Mr. Justice Riddell to state a case, if he thinks it proper to grant it, it must be heard.

ONLY SIX. Dr. Alway Says Scarlet Fever Danger Is Over.

It was reported in yesterday's issue of a local paper that there are 70 cases of scarlet fever in Crown Point and 33 houses under quarantine, also that new cases are being reported regularly. This morning Dr. Alway emphatically denied that there were so many cases and informed the Times that there are now only six cases in all in the afflicted district, three at Crown Point, one at Kenilworth and two at Prospect Place. He says he sees no occasion whatever for alarm, and has no notion whatever of closing the schools again.

Great Anniversary Sale. The 2 Ts., in order to celebrate their second anniversary, and to wind up a very successful year, are offering in today's paper some special sale lines that are the acme of value-giving. They are going to make this anniversary stand for everything that is best in clothing values—for intrinsic worth, thoroughness, through goodness, skillfulness of making, superiority of style. They are values that will command the attention of the housewife, and give confidence in their methods and their merchandise. Commencing Saturday, you can buy men's good tweed suits, values up to $8.50, for $3.95. What do you think of that? Also a lot of men's fall suits, values up to $10.50, for $6.95. Every size up to 44. Also boys' 2-piece suits, values up to $6.50, for $3.50. Men's soft shirts, values up to 75c, and some dollar lines, for 35c each; only 2 to a customer. And other lines advertised in large ad.

When you get up to-morrow morning go to The 2 Ts., 50-52 James street north, the store that sets the pace.

HOWARTH CASE. (Special Despatch to the Times.) Toronto, Sept. 24.—The jury in the Court of General Sessions, which heard the evidence in the case against Harry Howarth the 26-year-old Englishman charged with bringing 13-year-old Ethel Manning from her home, Hamilton to Toronto, and here living with her, filed out at 1 o'clock to consider their verdict, and were still out at the time of going to press.

WIRES WERE TANGLED. The shortage of power yesterday was caused by the transmission wires becoming tangled. It was thought that the trouble had been remedied by noon yesterday, but five times during the afternoon the power was suspended to run the street cars. The nearest lamps in the stores were nearly all blown out on account of the changing of the force of the power. The company announced today that no further trouble was expected.

HAD A VERY BAD RECORD.

The doctor said the wounds might have been done by glass.

"He would have to fall about a block," retorted the Crown Attorney.

His Worship reserved his judgment, after several detectives saying that he had known Allen many years, but he was never quarrelsome. Allen was let go.

Michael Gallagher said he did not steal Mrs. Rose's umbrella, but merely picked it up. Complainant said he put it under his coat and ran off with it, and her friend substantiated her story. His Worship found Gallagher guilty and sent him to reside in the precincts of Ogilviodom.

That famous Pole wedding was aired when Louis Lefkovich, 406 James street north, was charged with a breach of the Liquor Act. He was accused of selling liquor to Gabriel Baksa, 15 Harriet street, for the wedding. J. L. Scheller, for the defense, submitted that his client was merely agent for Mr. Blake, who has a shop license, and lives at the corner of Mary and Simcoe streets.

Baker admitted he asked Lefkovich to get him the refreshments, which amounted to 12 quarts of whiskey and eight loaves of beer. There was no evidence to prove that defendant had sold any of the drink, so the case was dismissed.

It Henry Sperza were asked which was his favorite song, he would likely admit the well-known ditty, "Any old place I can hang my hat is home, sweet home to me." There was no evidence, for there was no address entered against his name on the roster. P. C. Hodgson said he found Sperza asleep last night on the hay market and he was taken into custody and charged with vagrancy this morning. He was fined $5.

"I like you, Caledonia; but oh, you Hamilton!" might be inferred as the slogan of many Caledonia Indians. Yesterday Freeman Peter, a man with a skin as lurid as last-night's sunset, came hither and, after repeated calls on several refreshment bureaus, became obfuscated. In such a condition he went to the Terminal Station, where he gave several exhibitions of the Indian terpsichorean art. Station Constable Stephens deemed it expedient to call the trouble van. This morning Mr. Peter appeared and looked like a walking 15-cent store, by his display of jewelry. He said he remembered nothing of the previous night's exploits. It cost him $5.

It is plainly evident that the behavior of many of the Valley Town citizens is not synonymous with their quiet, unobsequious little burg, when they come to this city. Dennis Moore came hither yesterday and filled his reservoir with various alcoholic fluids, whereas he wanted to pugilize with some employees of the Hamilton Cab and Bus. P. C. Mackie told the story of incidents to defendant's behavior. "Three dollars or 14 days," said his Worship.

STRONG MUST PAY. An action was brought before Judge Monk this morning in which the old firm of McClelland & Bicknell were suing for costs incurred by William Strong and wife, amounting to $28. It had reference to costs incurred for drawing up a lease on property on King street east, which Mr. Strong claims was owned by his wife at the time and contended that she should pay. He said he was her agent in the transaction. The Judge held otherwise and said Strong was liable because he gave the instructions.

MUST FURNISH PARTICULARS. A motion was made before Judge Monk this morning in the action of T. Waldron vs. the International Harvester Company, which is to be tried at the Assizes next week. The motion was for an order for written particulars of the defence as to the contributory negligence set up against the plaintiff. The Judge granted the order that the defendant furnish in writing the particulars of the alleged contributory negligence of the plaintiff, on or before Monday next.

For the past ten days Messrs. Begg & Shannon, 40-44 James street north, have been hard at work arranging a stock that for fine quality and variety will make their fall opening to-morrow one of the leading events of the season.

The evolution of ready-made clothing is plainly apparent at this store, for the suits displayed are well made and of the latest fashion. No wonder, for these gents are the work of experts, who spend all their time studying the fashions, with the result that Begg & Shannon get supremely good clothes for the young men of Hamilton. All the best 1910 ideas are shown in these suits and overcoats, so that they give the wearer a distinction of dress and developed refinement.
