FORTY-SEVEN YEARS AGO

Items of Interest Colled From the Second Volume of The Advocate During the Years 1868-9.

Walter M. Bush, C. E. was Engineer of Surveys for the Miramichi District in 1869.

Mrs. Margaret Neilson, wife of James Neilson, a former well-known engineer on the Miramichi, died at Chatham on Tuesday, April 27th, 1869. Many Miramichi people will remember Mr. Neilson as having lived to a good old age. The "Str. James Neilson" was built by him, by his own labor, some few years ago in Chatham.

Forty-seven years ago the Werder rifle was introduced into the Barvalley army. Trials given it proved that eighteen shots per minute could be fired by practical riflemen, and at two hundred paces not a single ball missed the target.

Two compact engines manufactured for W. J. Fraser, to be used for hoisting coal at the Sydney Mines, Cape Breton, were built at the Miramichi foundry, under the direction of James Neilson in 1860.

J. H. Gibson, of Gibraltar, Wis., was married to Alice, the eldest daughter of the late William Batesman, of Daughlastown, on January 21st, 1869, by the Rev. Jesse Cole, of Sturgeon Bay.

Mrs. Lydia Kingston, relict of the late Paul Kingston, died at the residence of her son-in-law, Wm. Allison, on Sunday, May 16th, 1869, aged 83 years. She left four children, 38 grandchildren and 39 great grandchildren.

A thirty-six pound salmon was caught at McGee's fishing grounds, about eight miles above Newcastle, this week, says The Advocate of June 12th, 1869.

The Chatham Gleaner suspended publication in June, 1869, owing to the ill-health of its proprietor.

The barque "Jennie Armstrong," 450 tons register, was launched from the building yard of Adam Tait, at Shediac, in June, 1869. Mr. William Sinclair, a native of Miramichi, was master builder.

A large water tank, for fire purposes, holding 3,750 gallons, was built at the foot of "Street's Hill" in 1869. A company then known as the N. B. Slave Company, leased the privilege of using the water running from it.

The body of a man found drowned on June 24th, 1869, near what was then known as McInerney's shore, between Newcastle and Chatham, was thought to be that of a missing man from the man-of-war "Philomel."

Campbellton Man Killed Sifton Mann, 14th Battalion, being on duty at Campbellton, has been reported killed in action.

Made Assignment A. B. Scalliey & Co., of St. John's, jewelers and watchmakers, have assigned for the benefit of their creditors.

Reduction in Lumber Cut The lumber cut on the Miramichi and Restigouche rivers will be about seventy-five per cent. of the amount cut last season, according to report.

Well-Known Citizen Dead James Arbuckle, aged 78 years, a well-known citizen of Pictou, N. S., died suddenly on Thursday evening. He was at one time a police officer in Pictou.

Re-Elected by Acclamation Thursday last was acclamation day in Woodstock for civic honors. Mayor Sciton was re-elected by acclamation. Six members of the old Council were also re-nominated.

Five on Police Force The police force of Truro, N. S., now numbers five, the fifth man having been added recently. There are also a number of military police patrolling the streets as well.

To Swear in Recruits Capt. L. Barry, Capt. Norman C. McKay, Lieut. J. R. McKay, Lieut. A. J. McIntyre, and Lieut. R. S. Holmes, of the 132nd Battalion, have been appointed Justices of the Peace, in order that they may carry on their duties as recruiting officers and swear in recruits.

Serious Potato Shortage A number of the large cities in Canada and the United States fear a potato famine during the next two months and there is a pronounced bull market in consequence. In St. John the supply is only fair, with some wholesalers asking as high as $3 a barrel. In Ireland they are selling at $4.12 wholesale.

The Woman in Halifax Who Didn't

A little incident about "Beaver" Flour

MRS.—(well, never mind her name) couldn't make good Fies with "Beaver" Flour. The crust was "always heavy", as she said her grocer.

"Beaver" Flour is a better pastry flour than even special pastry flour because it contains the same choice Ontario wheat from which special pastry flours are made. In addition, it also has a little Manitoba wheat to increase its strength.
