One of the department stores in my ome city has always been remarkable for the courtesy which it has shown in the matter of exchanges. Anything within reason-and sometimes much more than that-this firm would do. Recently, I heard someone say, "Soand-So & Co. are 'not so good about exchanging things as they used to be." | your privilege. If that statement is true, there is a good reason for the change. For, again and again, I have known of the courtesy of that firm being abused. I know one woman who bought a green silk lamp shade, used it six months. and then actually exchanged it.
