The Associated Press, this morning ssues the following: After 1,567 days of horror, during which virtually the whole civilized world has been invulsed, the greatest war in history the tremendous event was made at the State Department at the Capital at 2.45 o'clock this morning and in a few seconds was flashed throughout the Continent by the Associated Press. Details of the terms dictated by Marshal Foch on Friday forenoon to the German armistice delegates, have not as yet been given out, but it is believed they of such a nature as to protect the world from a resumpion of the struggle by the Germans. It is assumed that they call for the demobilization of Germany's army, the sur render of part of her fleet and the dismantling of the rest and the evacuation of occupied portions of France and Belgium, and of Alsace-Lorraine It is probable, also, that Germany has agreed to call home all her troops now in Russia and Rumania. The terse an nouncement of the State Department did not tell anything of the scene at Marshal Foch's headquarters at the time the armistice was signed. It was stated, however, that at five o'clock, Paris time, the signatures of Germany's delegates were affixed to the locument, which blasted for ever the dreams which embroiled the world in a struggle which has cost at the very AMSTERDAM, Nov. 11. Street fighting is taking place in Warsaw, the capital of Poland, the railway station there has been occupied by Polish forces, who have refused the German troops permission to pass through to Polish territory.

CELEBRATING IN LONDON.

LONDON, Nov. 11. News of the signing of the armistice soon became known to those persons in the centre of the city, as flags were immediately flown to the breeze and the issuance of evening papers for which there was a great rush. At 11 o'clock the first official celebration came, when the old air raid signals were fired from all police and fire stations. London then gave itself to the celebration of the event which, aithough unexpected, was welcomed nevertheless.
