GATHERING AT GREEN LANTERN.

A number of Oddfellows assembled at the Green Lantern last night for their annual Craig Day dinner. The guest of the evening was, of course, J. A. Craig, Esq., P.G.M., known amongst the fraternity as "Johnny," and he was in his usual good form, his smiling face fairly radiating geniality and good fellowship. The management of the Green Lantern had prepared a menu of surpassing excellence which was thoroughly enjoyed. After the good things of an edible character had been discussed, the following impromptu programme went off with that vim and dash which always characterizes Oddfellows gatherings. Mr. J. M. Carberry, N.G. of Atlantic Lodge, presided and the following was the Toast List:

The King—Prop. the Chairman: Resp. "God Save the King."
Our Guest, Bro. Craig, P.G.M.—Prop. Bro. G. Bradley, P.D.G.M.: Resp. J. Craig, P.G.M.

The Encampment and Sister Lodges—Prop. Bro. G. T. Phillips, D.D.G. M. Resp. Bro. G. Soper, P.G. Encampment; Bro. W. Gaulton, N.G. Colonial Lodge; Bro. A. Alcock, Exploits Lodge; Bro. J. Moore, Cabot Lodge; Bro. J. Harvey, N.G. Wabana Lodge.

Interspersed between the different toasts were songs by Bro. C. Hammond and recitations by Bros. W. White, A. Tilley, C. Rodway and an instrumental solo by Bro. P. H. Cowan. Bro. Gaulton, in responding to the toast of Sister Lodges, made reference to the loss sustained by the brethren in common with others in the Bonne Bay fire, and concluded by moving the following resolution: "Whereas our brethren at Bonne Bay have suffered severe loss by fire, be it resolved that this gathering express its deepest sympathy with their brethren and send them a word of cheer and encouragement in their loss."
