Nine Teams Represented at Annual Session and Officers for Coming Season Installed

The organization and annual meeting of the Y.M.C.A. Basketball league was held in the association building last night, when some thirty or forty enthusiasts turned out to get the league away to a good start. The mee opened with last year's ny Spence, in the chair and fficers were elected for the the following officers were elected for the ensuing year, Geo, Barnes being secretary protem: Honorary president, Stanley Brant; president, Wea, Pattison; vice-president, J. H. Curle; secretary-treas-urer, Bert Talling. Delegates from the following teams were present: Last year's champions, Regents-Vics, Fords, Hillhurst, Old-Timers, Magoics, Dentals, 78th, Battery, Wich School 1627 Rest

High School, 103rd Regt. Discussion as to drawing up the year's schedule followed, when it was definitely decided to start a preliminary round of games on Wednesday. November 7th, so as to arrive at the relative merits of the different entries before alloting them to their class. A schedule committee com-posed of the following: Pres. Wes. Patti-son, Vice-Pres. Curle, W. Dingle and Doc Wallace was appointed to arrange this series of games, which will be published in Monday's paper, giving each team an opportunity to prepare for its first game. fule followed, when it was definitely

Entries Close Thursday

Entries for the league will be accepted until Thursday night and a courteous in-vitation is extended to any other body of fellows, business house or organization to enter a team, more especially is this ex-tended to the C.P.R. Dept. of Natural Resources, Mark Drumm Sales, Universal Motors, Machlin Motors and the larger wholesale houses of the city. These en-tries can be made to the secretary before Thursday night by phone either at M3407 during the day, or at M2147 after business

Various 'suggestions as to conducting the league along proper lines were given by the new Y secretary, Mr. Brent, Doc Wallace, Mr. W. Dingle and retiring president Jimmy Spence, which were all put in the form of resolutions and unani-monaic adopted

Calgary Y last year maintained a rather aloof position regarding playing with out-side teams owing to the criticism re-garding conducting of sport during the war, but it-was generally felt by the meeting that outside games could and would be played now that this obstruc-tion had been removed and the enthusi-asm displayed made the result a rather foregone conclusion. The University of Alberta have already asked about home and home games for the holidays and

FAIRBANKS' AND SUNDAY'S BALL TEAMS PLAY BALL FOR SOLDIERS

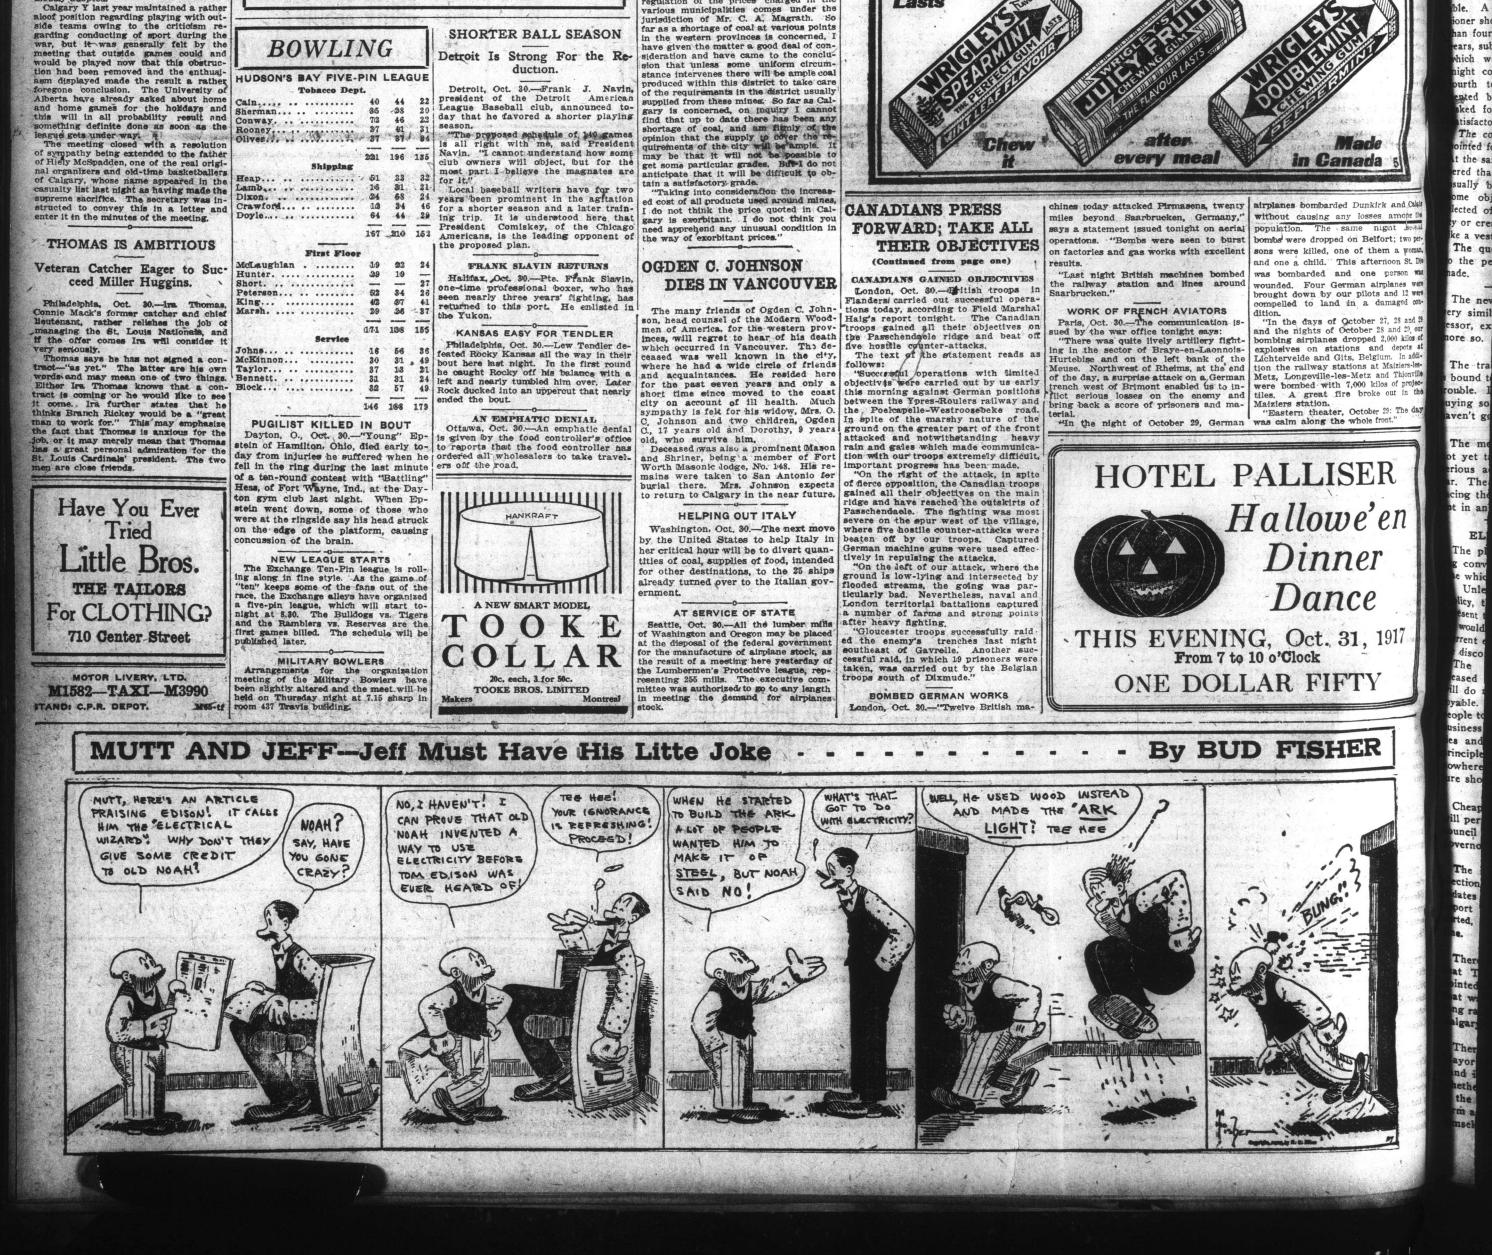

Right to left: Douglas Fairbanks, the celebrated movie star, and Billy Sunday, the famous evangelist, and their nines out for a ball game in Los Angeles, the proceeds to buy sporting goods for the soldiers and other fighters in Uncle Sam's service. Doug's team had the edge on the Sunday nine, and the game went to them by the very close score of 1 to 0.

"THE MANLY ART"

New York. Oct. 30 .- The late Les Darcy was virutelly hounded to death in this country a few short months ago by persons who flung the ugly word "slacker" in his face at every turn. That was before the United States entered into the war. Six months have elapsed since this country declared war on Germany, and thousands of young Americans have enlisted in the about or navy, yet among these there has been only one boxer of prominence-Jee Welling, who enlisted in the National Reserve force.

Pete Herman, bantanweight champion, is in the National Army. having been drafted after his plea for exemption was denied. Jess Willard. Mike Gibbons. Ted Kid Lewis, Benny Leonard, Johnny Kilbane and others holding titles in their respective classes of generally regarded as leading contenders have all failed to enlist, yet there has been no protest from those who were loudest in their cries against Darcy, who, according to reports from Australia, had a family depend-ent upon him and was in no position to offer his services to England.

Incidently, it might be remarked that on the night Darcy died in a

Every day boxes from home are going to the boys in the trenches. And of the things they get, a great prize is Wrigley's, the Gum with Lasting Flavour.

It takes the place of food and drink in case of need — which is often. It keeps spirits up - gives vigour and vim. A packet in the pocket lasts a long time.
