JERSEY CLOTHS HOLD SWAY

Silk and Wool Jersey are used in Combination
Cool Summer Voils Appear in November

New York, June 14, 1917

All through the spring, one of the materials that has kept steadily increasing in popularity is wool jersey. It has been used for coats and suits, for one-piece dresses, separate skirts and for middie blouses. It has been braided, stitched and even beaded, just like all the other smart materials. Colored beads combined with silk embroidery is the latest form of decoration to which jersey has taken. As summer approaches, there is not the slightest indication that wool jersey is on the wane. But, on the contrary, one seems to see more and more of it every day. On a dress that could not possibly be too warm for summer, it was combined with dotted crepe in the following manner: pink crepe with white polka dots made the waist and sleeves; the waist extended down to the hip line, and from there downward the skirt was of white wool jersey. There was a small yoke of the white jersey at the neck of the dress. This is one of the novel ways in which this popular material is used.

White jersey suits bound with white silk braid or trimmed with black and white check are in very good style at present. They look cool and summery. All shades of gold and mustard are high in favor and especially so in the jersey cloths. Lavender and purple in jersey cloth are also among the popular colors of the hour. Gold silk jersey has been combined most successfully with gray wool jersey in some suits and dresses, and with dark tan wool jersey in others. This combination of silk and wool jersey is frequently used by the best dressmakers. In some loose-fitting

CHILDHOOD CONSTIPATION

Constipation in children can be promptly cured by Baby's Own Tablets. They are a gentle but effective laxative which thoroughly regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus drive out all childhood ailments. Concerning them Mrs. J. B. Tauffenbach, Richer, Man., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets and have found them an excellent medicine for constipation." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ally pretty, as shown in the sketch. The puffed pockets are a charming novelty especially suited to this type of summer frock. A long collar of white organdy provides the finishing touch in this dainty hot-weather frock.

It is the collar that makes the blouse in a great many cases. Large cape-like collars falling in joints over the shoulders and continuing down the front of the waist are now being worn. A blouse with one of these new collars is illustrated. It is fashioned of white organdy, which is being used a great deal for blouses. The skirt that accompanies this blouse is one of the smart wool plaids. It has pocket sections at the sides, giving a graceful draped effect.

Plaids are lovely for sport skirts and for other kinds of skirts too.

"CROWBOROUGH"

Mrs. A. R. Christie has received a card containing the following rhyme, from her husband, Pte. Christie, who is evidently stationed at Crowborough:

There's an isolated, desolate spot I'd like to mention,
Where all you hear is "Stand at Ease"
"Slope Arms" "Quick March" "Attention."
It's miles away from anywhere, by Gad, it is a rum 'un,
A chap lived there for forty years and never saw a woman.
There's only two lamps in the place, so tell it to your mother.
The postman carries one, the policeman has the other,
And if you want a jolly night, and do not care a jot,
You take a ride upon the car, the car they haven't got.

There are lots of little huts, all dotted here and there,
For those who have to live inside, I've offered many a prayer.
Inside the huts, there's RATS as big as any Nanny Goat,
Last night a soldier saw one fitting on his overcoat.
For breakfast every morning, just like old Mother Hubbard,
You double round the bloomin' Hut and jump up at the cupboard.
Sometimes you get bacon, and sometimes "lively" cheese,
That forms Platoon upon your plate, Orders Arms and stands at Ease.
It's sludge up to the eyebrows, you get it in your ears.
But into it you've got to go without a sign of fear,
And when you've had a bath of sludge you just set to and groom.
And get cleaned up for next parade, or else it's "Orderly Room."

Week in, week out, from morn till night, with full pack and a rifle, Like Jack and Jill, you climb the hill, of course that's just a trifle.
"Slope Arms," "Fix Bayonets," then "Present" they fairly put you thro it.

And as you stagger to your hut, the Sergeant shouts "Jump to it!"
There's another kind of drill, especially invented for the army.
I think they call it Swedish, and it nearly drives you barmy.
This blinking drill it does you good, it makes your bones so tender,
You coil yourself up like a snake and crawl beneath the fender.
With tunic, boots and putties off, you quickly get the habit,
You gallop up and down the hills, just like a blooming rabbit.
"Heads Backward Bend," "Arms Upward Stretch," "Heels Raise," then "Ranks Change Places,"
And later on they make you put your kneecaps where your face is.
Now when this war is over and we've captured Kaiser Billy,
Too shoot him would be merciful and absolutely silly.
Just send him down to Crowborough among the rats and clay,
And I'll bet it won't be long before he droops and fades away.
BUT WE'RE STILL MERRY AND BRIGHT.

They are worn with short coats of a plain material and with slip-on blouses for sports use.

The New Mannish Shirtwaist
Mannish shirtwaists are growing in favor. Some models of linen are made with finely tucked fronts, like those of a man's shirt. In addition to these tucks, there are sprays embroidered in colors on some of the waists and turnover collars of pique.
As separate waists and skirts grow more and more important there, are always some novelties to be found among them. White tuck skirts of cotton gabardine are made with yokes of colored linen, and where the skirt is attached to the yoke there are several rows of machine stitching done in heavy colored cotton the color of the yoke. White skirts with green, blue or orange-colored yokes are quite effective.
A strong military note is observed in suits of mannish cut for women. The coats are short and plentifully provided with pockets like those on a soldier's uniform. These suits are developed in dark blue, and khaki-colored materials. Perhaps the military spirit is also responsible for the combination of blue and red so frequently seen. Blue dresses are embroidered with red beads or red silk, and in some very striking models there are entire sleeves of red with, perhaps, pockets on the skirt showing a bright red lining. Hats also show the red and blue combination, generally in touches of red on blue.

"NEU-TONE"

An Oil Paint For Flat Interior Decoration

Simple, harmonious color schemes in plain, restful tints, give an added charm to the home. "NEU-TONE" is the modern wall finish. It is cheaper and better than wall paper—and doubly pleasing because of its quiet effects.

"NEU-TONE" is waterproof, sanitary and durable. It cannot scale, fade or rub off—and may be washed with soap and water.

When you get new furniture and want to change the "NEU-TONE" decorations of any room, simply apply a fresh shade of "NEU-TONE" over the one on the wall.

"NEU-TONE" saves the scraping and muss that usually accompanies decorating. "NEU-TONE" is equally good for every room in the house—for any plastered wall, ceiling, burlap, wood or metal surface.

Ask for a copy of "Harmony in Neu-Tone", "Town and Country Homes" also "Floors, Spie and Span". All are free, to you.

AYLMER.
