

THEY GOT THERE!

The Tecumseh Scalp the Ex-Hamiltons.

Toronto Won by the Sagibays-Bucolic Baseball at Chicago.

London Crickets in the Field—"Old Heads vs. Young Shoulders"—General Sporting News.

THIRTY-SEVEN ON SPOGELL.

The closest between the Montreal and London Tecumseh Park yesterday should have attracted a big crowd.

The game was interesting from start to finish, and until the last man on the visitors' side was retired, neither team was over-confident of winning. The reason it ended as it did was that London managed to launch their hits off Spogell's delivery in the second, and thus won the game.

London started the fireworks by making a two-bagger, Lutenberg, Wright, Reidy, Leighton and Friel made singles, which with Hilland's home on left and somewhat pardonable errors by Wally and Powell gave the home team a run. Connors again banged the bat for three bags in the third and Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

Montreal's experience seemed to be the reverse. Until the sixth inning only one hit had been made. Cartwright made it a two-bagger in the first inning. He followed on a passed ball, and, according to the umpire, scored on Casey's sacrifice.

The score remained at 7 to 1 when the game was reached. Powell led off with a single base hit, Hulin singled safely and Soss brought both home with a one-bagger. In the seventh Dowie hit safely, single second and scored on Spogell's hit. Spogell ran for third and Demarcus threw to second on a similar gift to Leighton and Connors' single. A peculiarity of the game was that six hits were made in the second, one in the third and fourth and five and none through-out the remainder of the game.

At Cincinnati—Cincinnati.....000000000-0 3 9

Batteries—Getzen and Bennett, Foreman and Baldwin. Umpire—McQuade.

At Cleveland—Cleveland.....000000000-3 4 2

Batteries—Lincoln and Zimmo, Lovett and Daly. Umpire—Lynch.

At Chicago—Chicago.....100100210-5 7 3

New York.....403040100-12 18 2

Batteries—Luman and Nagle, Luman and Stenzel, Russe and Buckley. Umpire—Zach.

At Philadelphia—Philadelphia.....000110014-7 0 1

Batteries—Wiley and Robinson; Barr and McGuire. Umpire—Doehner.

At Syracuse—Syracuse.....0000202100003-8 7 0

Batteries—Morrison and O'Rourke; Mattimore and Fy. Umpire—Doehner.

At Buffalo—Buffalo.....020020102-8 12 5

Batteries—Haddock and Mack, Crane and Brown. Umpire—Knight and Jones.

At Pittsburgh—Pittsburgh.....000000000-3 7 1

Batteries—Haley and Carroll, Buffington and Cross. Umpire—Holbert and Ferguson.

At Cleveland—Cleveland.....000200001-3 9 3

Batteries—O'Brien and Sattelle, Kilroy and Murphy. Umpire—Matthews and Leach.

At Chicago—Chicago.....3301310002-22 15 3

Batteries—Baldwin and Farrell; Gray and Darling. Umpire—Haitzen and Dally. Umpire—Chaffey and Barne.

A FORESTERS' GAME.

A friendly game of ball was played on Ward's grounds, near Springfield, yesterday between Court Brighton and Court Forest Queen, A. O. F., resulting in favor of the former, who had things all their own way. The game was characterized by brilliant work throughout, the batting work of Limago and Gray for Court Brighton being especially worthy of note.

The score: R. H. FOREST QUEEN. R. H. E. Gray, c.....3 3 W. Ball, 2b.....1 1 Webb, 3b.....2 3 F. Ball, ss.....1 1 Farnworth, c.....0 0 Instill, 1b.....2 2 Limago, p.....1 1 T. Brown, p.....1 0 Spence, r.....0 0 Graham, rf.....0 0

Totals.....13 11 Totals.....5 4

Brighton.....13 10 Forest Queen.....5 4

Umpire—Delaney.

Frank Harris, a Port Huron player, has been signed by Manager Leady and will play third base for Detroit today.

All the players of the Brooklyn and Rochester clubs were arrested at Elmira, N. Y., Monday just before the game was called for Sunday ball-playing. All gave bail.

Real estate does not seem to have suffered because the Hams have gone to Montreal. Indeed, it has improved in some quarters. Take Tundum Park, for instance; there are no flies on that property now.—[Hamilton Spectator.]

A friendly game of baseball was played Monday between the Corkers, of Court London, and the Stars and Stripes, of the city, resulting in a victory for the former by a score of 10 to 10. Batteries—Corkers, Soss and R. Kelly; Stars and Stripes, Morgan and Thorpe; umpire, N. McLeod.

Murphy, late manager of Manistee, was offered the management of the Grand Rapids team providing he could bring with him Kilien and McManis, the former of Manistee battery. Murphy carried out the contract and yesterday took command of the Grand Rapids aggregation, Racoon residents.

TO NAVIGATE THE WHIRLPOOL RAPIDS. NIAGARA FALLS, June 25.—J. L. South, of North Muskegon, Mich., and James Smith, of Lewiston, N. Y., have made arrangements to swim the whirlpool rapids on the 4th of July for a purse of $800, the first to enter the water with live boats at the old Mad of the Mist Landing, under the Cantilever bridge. They will both be attended in bathing suits and vests made of cork. They will make the start between 2 and 4 p.m.

FOOTBALL.

The New York Sun says a team of Association football players will leave Scotland for New York in August and play matches in the States and Canada. They'll find it pretty warm work.

THE OAR.

Edward Hanlan reported to the Toronto Police Tuesday the theft of a gold medal with a gold chain attached presented to him by Lord Dufferin. It was stolen from the show case in the hotel at the Island.

O'CONNOR CLAIMS A POLE.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., June 25.—O'Connor has protested against the payment of the stakes to Stansbury. He claims the race, on the ground that Stansbury took his water a quarter of a mile from the start, and that a foul existed. The umpires deny that there was a foul. The Sydney Herald states that O'Connor has claimed the championship because Kemp would not accept his challenge. O'Connor will not row in Australia again. He will challenge Kemp to row on the Thames for £500 a side.

THE RING.

The fight between Blanche and young Mitchell, which was to have occurred at the California Athletic Club next Friday, has been declared off. The cause generally assigned is the recent declaration of the Chicago Police that he will arrest the principals and seconds when they enter the ring.