

Dyspepsia

Makes many lines amenable, and often leads to self-destruction. Dyspepsia, after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a flatulency or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that tired, all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAIN, Watertown, Mass. N. B. Be sure to get only

THE WHITECHAPEL MURDER.

Indications that the Arrested Saddle is the Murderer of "Carrotty Nell."

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Another man has been arrested in Whitechapel on suspicion of being the murderer of "Carrotty Nell." When taken into custody blood was found on his clothes. The prisoner was seen in company with the murdered woman about a quarter of an hour before the crime was committed.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The man arrested on suspicion of having murdered "Carrotty Nell" is a saddle. He has been absent from England for eighteen months, or about the period which has elapsed since the last Whitechapel murder. A woman detained as a witness against the man, who was quarrelling with the murdered woman early in the evening before the crime was committed, has identified the prisoner. A policeman has been sent to the man's home to see if he has any blood on his clothes. The man had blood stains on his clothes, and had several questions regarding the blood stains. The man replied that he had been assaulted while in the neighborhood of the docks. The policeman then, being aware that a murder had been committed, was satisfied that the man was telling the truth, and so allowed him to pass. The prisoner's face is badly scratched, as if by a woman's finger nails. The prisoner stoutly denies having at any time met the murdered woman. He was lately a freeman on board the steamer "Yea, from Turkey. A formidable-looking knife has been traced to his possession.

Gen. Sherman Dead.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Gen. Sherman died at 1:30 p.m. to-day.

Killed While Coasting.

CHARGEVILLE, Ont., Feb. 16.—A sad accident occurred here yesterday. A man named Noble Smith, about 8 years old, while sleighing on a hill just outside of the town, ran into a team. One of the horses trampled on his head, but did not touch the child, and he lived only a few hours.

To Test the McKinley Bill.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Appeals were filed in the United States Circuit Court here yesterday by fifteen Chicago importers from the decision of the Board of General Appraisers in New York assessing duties on merchandise under the McKinley Bill. In all these cases it is claimed the McKinley Bill is void, and that the assessments are oppressive. Another large batch of appeals will be filed to-day.

International Literary Congress.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 14.—The world's congress auxiliary of the World's Fair, for three months past, have completed and laid before the directors a comprehensive plan for a series of international congresses during the exposition. The cooperation of distinguished men in politics, science, religion, education, moral and social reform, literature, law and the arts and learned professions have been enlisted. It is the intention to bring to Chicago not merely a few distinguished people, but a large number of cultivated persons from all parts of the world. Congressman Butterworth, who is now secretary of the local board, will also assume the duties of solicitor-general to attend to the legal and legislative affairs of the Directory Board.

Burned to Death.

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—A family named Lafance lived in a small house about a mile from St. Albert, Russell county. The family consisted of old Mr. and Mrs. Lafance, their daughter, her husband, Arlene Chartand and two children. Chartand and his wife went to visit friends and were away over night. During the night the house took fire, old Lafance awakened to find himself surrounded by flames and smoke. He struggled to get down and jumped out, injuring himself severely. Old Mrs. Lafance and the two children were burned to death. Old Mr. Lafance was found in bed almost dead to death. He has not been able to speak since, and there is little hope of his recovery.

TERRESTRIAL HEALING.

At 234 Dundas street may be seen the most wonderful healing instrument ever discovered. It is called a Magnetic Meridian Vitapole. In form it represents the earth, on a miniature scale, suspended in the earth's magnetic meridian. By bringing the little earth to a proper temperature, and then either rotating or oscillating it for a few moments while in its suspended position, thus cutting the magnetic lines of force which surround the earth, an insensible cure is effected. The treatment is simple, and is a truly wonderful.

There is no further need for changing our position on the earth, to improve health, for varying the temperature of this "Vitapole" will produce similar results. It does not select any special diseases for its action, but simply wages war against any disease or unbalanced condition of the system. It comes in contact with, until either healthy equilibrium is established or the disease is proven to be beyond curability.

It is truly nature's "Balm of Gilead," and a "Natural Physician." The Canadian patents are controlled by a Detroit company, Prof. J. M. Reid, who is in charge of the London office; he was among the first to use the Vitapole in his practice, and therefore the company has secured his service for introducing the instruments in Canada. Prof. Reid says that the Vitapole is a physician's friend in all cases of sickness, and is indispensable household remedy.

OVERTAKED.

of this London will be in accord with that of the people of old London, in favor of a policy that has made the latter the center of the civilization and commerce of the whole world, that has done more for the world, has made it the money market of the world, that has made Great Britain the avenue through which the produce of the civilized world goes from the producer to the consumer, and that has let its people have more luxuries than any nation on the globe. (Cheers.) Every Englishman knows that 40 years ago the rich people there had plenty to eat; and if there has been an additional average consumption of over 100 per cent. on imported goods within the last 50 years, who has had the enormous balance? Our poor countrymen in Great Britain! (Cheers.) I trust

THE WORKMEN WILL SUPPORT a policy that will open up these great highways that pass through your city, situated in one of the finest agricultural districts in America, and all those things that will tend to make this city double what it is to-day. The moment this policy comes into operation every farm in the county of Middlesex will be worth 25 per cent. more than it is to-day, a policy that will make our farmers prosperous—and our farmers are the people. (Cheers.) Anything that will make the farmer prosperous will make the nation prosperous, for we make the articles that he consumes. The increased cost of what he would consume, consequent upon his increased wealth, would cause

A DEMAND FOR LABOR, the price of which must necessarily go up. (Applause.) Do not let us boast with that tip-toe to Great Britain, which is the property of the Conservatives," said Mr. J. J. in concluding his masterly address, "but let us show our true loyalty to the motherland by adopting her glorious commercial policy that will snap the bonds that fetter our commerce, and declare on the 31st of March for free trade with that island State." (Long continued cheers.)

Hon. David Mills.

Hon. David Mills was greeted with applause and justified his warm reception by a capital speech, short but to the point. "If you reflect upon the speeches of this evening," said he "you will have quite enough to influence you in favor of the policy advocated by the Reform party. We have not had for many years a more important election than this one for the reason—that the issues are of the first magnitude, and the people are in that condition that they are disposed to listen to and study what is advantageous for their own interests." (Applause.) The honorable gentleman pointed out in clear, convincing terms the encroachment on the constitutional rights by the action of the Government in prematurely springing the elections; on their unjustifying a conduct in disfranchising 200,000 electors, entitled to be on the voters' list; and on their illegal and dishonorable course in keeping back the names of Reform candidates at the last election, so that the Conservatives might have 60 or 70 days in the law prescribed 30 days as the limit. "There is no doubt, however," continued the speaker, "that the most important issue of this election is the fiscal question. The Government assured you thirteen years ago that they would make everybody prosperous, and they were infatuated with the management of affairs. You know how far the expectations they excited have been realized. (Voices.—We do.) There is no man who has as much knowledge of property in his own locality but acknowledges that real estate has

FALLEN IN VALUE

from 25 to 40 per cent. (Hear, hear.) It is because the purchasing powers of the products of the farmer are far less than they were. (Hear, hear.) How is it possible for the merchants to be prosperous if those who consume the articles of their commerce are in a great measure bankrupt? The National Policy was submitted to the people for the purpose, it was said, of relieving the depression that existed throughout the country. We had at that time the Insolvency Act which repaid the failures should be registered, and we find that of the $20,000,000 of liabilities in 1879, nearly $20,000,000 were among the mercantile classes, and the same manufacturing classes. (Hear, hear.) The Government promised to give relief to those who were not suffering from the depression, and they failed to do so, as it were, and then proceeded to relegate, as it were, by putting additional taxes on the mercantile classes, who were the sufferers. (Hear, hear.) I have heard of farmers being injured by the depression, but I have never heard of a farmer getting more for his money; it may bankrupt the American manufacturer, but I never could understand how it could injure the Canadian who made the purchase. (Applause.) You have seen British and American goods here at the same price competing in the same market, and so far the market has been true that they drive Canadian goods of similar character out of the market, that in 1873 we purchased nearly $40,000,000 worth more of these goods than in 1878, when it was said the market was glutted with goods and the manufacturing interests injured. The cause of the general depression in 1878 was wholly

BEYOND OUR CONTROL.

When lumber ceased to find a market, owing chiefly to the distressed condition of the people of the United States, thousands were diverted from the lumber woods, and the result was that people in the vicinity of, and even at a distance from, the lumber district were seriously affected. When the lumber market revived again in Great Britain and the States they attributed the while in its suspended position, thus cutting the magnetic lines of force which surround the earth, an insensible cure is effected. The treatment is simple, and is a truly wonderful.

CHANGES OF THE MOON.

(Cheers.) I think it quite likely that the medicine of these State physicians, and you are no better. Turn these gentlemen out and give those who are less pretentious but more skillful an opportunity to deal with the case. (Loud cheers.)

Cries were then made for "Davis" and the general water commotion, and in the midst of making a speech owing to the lateness of the hour, "I am with you in the fight, though," he asserted, "that will be with you to celebrate the victory on the 31st of March." (Prolonged cheers.)

As this concluded the speech-making Mr. Hyman called for three cheers for the Queen, which were given with a will by the enthusiastic crowd. The Liberal candidate, Mr. J. J. and the other speakers were also honored with the same quantity of niterale. She was shockingly burned and was to be discharged for life. Baron had just been released from the House of Correction, where he had been incarcerated for beating his wife. He was arrested.

THE POLITICAL ARENA.

Another Good Day's Work Done in the Liberal Interest.

James Sutherland Will Carry the Reform Banner in North Oxford.

Other Good Men Sent to the Front—Interesting News from All Along the Line.

Saturday's Nominations.

LIBERALS.

In Ontario, on Saturday, the following candidates were nominated:

Monk—John Brown, Dunnville.

North Waterloo—J. E. Bowman.

South Waterloo—James T. Middleton.

North Oxford—James Sutherland.

South Oxford—James Sutherland.

South Waterloo—Hugo Krass.

South Waterloo—F. M. Carpenter.

South Waterloo—J. D. Reid.

West Northumberland—Geo. Gullist.

North Leeds and Grenville—Dr. C. F. Ferguson.

East Lambton—Geo. Moncrieff.

OTHER NOMINATIONS.

In Victoria, B. C., W. Campbell is out as a Liberal and reciprocity candidate.

In Winnipeg Mr. Isaac Campbell's nomination was ratified at a Liberal meeting.

The Conservatives offered their nomination to Sir Donald A. Smith, who is not to be opposed in Montreal West. Mr. Putnam (Con.) is nominated in Hart's, N. S.

CAPE BRETON.

The political situation in Cape Breton is exceedingly cheerful and most gratifying, and never since Confederation has such intense excitement prevailed. Unrestricted reciprocity is sweeping this island, and it may safely be predicted that no solitary Tory will be returned. The Foster tariff has smashed the Tories in this Province, and the Cape Breton Railway job will annihilate them in the Island of Cape Breton.

CENTRE WELLINGTON REFORMERS.

PERGUS, Feb. 14.—The largest and most enthusiastic convention ever held in Centre Wellington met in the court house yesterday, when Andrew Semple, the late member, was unanimously nominated by the Liberals to guide the meeting. After announcing that he was utterly disgusted with the Tory party and could vote with it no longer, he started the meeting by declaring that in his professional capacity he had recently discovered beyond a shadow of doubt that members of the Dominion Government were in receipt of bonuses for promoting schemes and projects which had been declared to be a waste of money.

Isaac Campbell, M. P. P., has accepted the Liberal nomination for West Middlesex, and the friends of unrestricted reciprocity are jubilant in the extreme. The election is as good as won with Mr. Campbell in the field. Sir Donald Smith is mentioned as a likely opponent.

EAST MIDDLESEX TORIES.

The East Middlesex Tory convention met Saturday, but did not select a candidate. Those named were: P. D. Hodgins, J. H. Marshall, W. W. Fitzgerald, D. Macmillan, P. Elson, Capt. Thos. Robson, Thos. Duffin, Jas. Rank, J. W. Ferguson, A. W. Brown, G. Purdie, Thos. Rutledge, D. Baskerville, A. McMartin.

SOUTH WESTWORTH.

HAMILTON, Feb. 16.—The Reformers of South Westworth have started out with a will to redeem that fearfully gerrymandered constituency. They held a rousing and enthusiastic meeting in the hall of the Liberal hall Saturday afternoon. The hall was much too small for the crowd that sought seating accommodation. James T. Middleton was the unanimous choice of the convention, and the unanimous choice of the Conservatives as their candidate to contest the constituency.

NORTH OXFORD.

WOODSTOCK, Feb. 16.—The largest, most representative and most enthusiastic meeting of the North Oxford Reform Association held here in many a day yesterday.

The Town Hall was filled to the doors with the electors of the riding. Mr. John Douglas, the venerable president of the association, was in the chair. A. S. Bell, the secretary, occupied his own place. Mr. Douglas, in opening his meeting, recalled the important fact that he had been president of the association for 20 years. Mr. John Pitt, of Harrington, nominated Mr. James Sutherland, ex-M.P., to represent the riding. Mr. John Henderson, of Nisouri, seconded the nomination. Mr. Sutherland returned thanks in a brief and able speech for the honor conferred on him. He expressed the gratification he felt in receiving the approval of the association, and said that he would do his utmost to face the people on an honest issue. Their idea was to get a "snap" verdict on the lists of 1888. He paid an eloquent tribute to the character of the Hon. Mr. Laurier.

At this point an address was read to Mr. John Douglas, the venerable president of the association, and accompanying the address was a beautiful and costly silver set. Mr. Douglas was taken very much by surprise, but replied very appropriately. Strong resolutions were passed, and the following officers were elected: Honorable president, Mr. John Douglas; president, Mr. J. A. Nisouri; vice-president, Mr. Wm. Stewart; East Nisouri, and D. R. Ross, Embro; treasurer, J. M. Grant; Woodstock; secretary, A. S. Bell (re-elected).

At a meeting of the Conservative convention of North Oxford held here this afternoon it was decided to oppose a resolution proposed by Mr. D. W. Karm, organ manufacturer, was chosen to lead it. Mr. Karm did not at once accept the nomination.

LIBERAL CONVENTIONS.

Feb. 16—North Middlesex at Allan Craig.

Feb. 16—South Norfolk at Port Rowan.

Feb. 16—North Waterloo at Oak.

Feb. 16—North Oxford at Mount Elgin.

Feb. 16—South Oxford at Norwich.

Feb. 16—Halifax at Cayuga.

Feb. 17—West Elgin at Bismarck.

CONSERVATIVE CONVENTIONS.

Feb. 17—South Simcoe at Cookstown.

NOTES.

The East York Conservative Association met at Little York Friday afternoon, but failed to select a candidate.

The Kingston Liberals are still masters of the situation, and Mr. Gunn, their candidate, is meeting with great success in his canvass.

The high tax party in Ontario is in such a critical condition that Sir Charles Macdonald, from the reporters' desk to the aid of his sophistry to Sir John Macdonald. The pair will talk in Toronto on Tuesday.

Mr. M. Y. McLean, of Seaford, was among those nominated at the South Huron self-harm. Mr. Clute was finally left on a table, and he said: "I cannot tell you, gentlemen, how I feel. The nomination has been forced upon me. I will fight. I will do what I can to win the battle for the Reformers."

The cheering when the speaker stepped down to the floor was deafening, and every Reformers went home with the determination of fighting to the death for victory in East and West Hastings.

CONSERVATIVES GO BACK ON HESSON.

STRAFFORD, Feb. 14.—Details of the Conservative convention at Milverton are just coming to light. For some days there had been the greatest excitement in the Tory camp over the choice of a candidate. Mr. S. R. Hesson, the late member, was very anxious for the nomination, but dozens of Conservatives in Stratford alone had declared that they would never
