The five great national orders of railroad employes will probably federate at St. Louis this week.

Fargo is boycotting the Northern Pacific because it doesn't put up a new station and $20,000 hotel. The National, the American, the Canadian and the Grand Trunk Companies are negotiating at Montreal for a consolidation of their express interests.

J. B. Morford, ex-superintendent Canada division M. C. R., wife and daughter, have left for Aşbury Park, N. J., for a month's stay there. It is understood Mr. Morford will resume railroading.

BURNED OUT

AUSTIN, Tex., Aug. 1.—Lightning striking the wires leading from the plant which lights the State Insane Asylum here to the building set fire to the west wing of the structure at an early hour this morning, and that portion of the building devoted to female patients was destroyed.

Seeking a New Trial.

New York, Aug. 1.—Father Dent, who some time are sued Bishop Byan, of Buffalo, for $100,000 for alleged slander, and who lost the suit, has applied for a new trial. To-day he was granted an order by Judge Bartlett in the Brooklyn Supreme Court, requiring Bishop Ryan's lawyers to show cause why they should not file their amendments immediately in the argument against the new trial. The order is returnable next Monday.

Horns Locked for Seven Days.

Ashford, Comn., Aug. 1.—Stephen D. Curtis and Anson G. Barlow are owners of land adjoining this town, where their cattle are allowed to run. On the same day each missed a cow. Seven days later they were found in the woods with their horns so locked that it was impossible to extricate themselves. One of the horns was sawed off in order to release them. They had become very poor and weak from being unable to obtain food.

A $12,500 Haul.

Panama, Aug. 1.—The steamship San Pose, of the Pacific Mail Steamship Line, arrived here last n ght. She left San Francisco July 15 for Panama by way of Acapulco. The passengers were not allowed to land at Acapulco on, July 22, and there was considerable excitement on the steamship when it was learned that the restriction was made owing to a report of the theft of money and jewelry. One of the passengers, it appears, intrusted several bags containing money and gems, amounting in value to $12,500, to the purser, who has been 32 years in the service of the Pacific Mail Company, and whose integrity is regarded as above suspicion. The money and valuables were stolen on the passage, but by whom is a mystery. The police boarded the vessel and made a search among both passengers and crew, but without satisfactory result. Are all of the most approved style.
