

Just Sparring To Gain Time

Little Progress Made in Settling the Chinese Trouble.

Women Behave Bravely in Face of Awful Peril at the Peking Siege—Many Missionaries Reported Missing Have Been Massacred.

London, Saturday, Oct. 6—4:10 a.m.—It is reported in St. Petersburg, according to the correspondent of the Times at the Russian capital, that the Chinese fleet in Formosa Strait attempted to engage the Russian armored cruiser Rurik, but the latter's speed frustrated the plan. The correspondent says it is probable that the allied squadrons will force the Chinese fleet to capitulate or will destroy it.

SPARRING TO GAIN TIME.

Shanghai telegrams announce that the imperial edict, dated Sept. 30, ordering the court to be removed to Si Chuan Fu, was issued owing to the famine at Tai Yuan Fu. They also express the opinion that the object of the recent edicts regarding the degradation of Chinese personages of high rank is merely to gain time, and to enable China to be in a better position to defy the powers, as the new capital will be virtually inaccessible from the coast. He says that the Chinese firmly believe in the existence of a Russo-German agreement, under which Russia will take all the territory north of the great wall and Germany the provinces of Chi Li and Shang Tung. The Times representative at Shanghai says: "The Chinese are being issued secret edicts and that the recent public edicts are only intended to hoodwink the powers."

not our people repelled them by tearing down outlying structures and by pouring on floods of water. So imminent was our peril that men, women and children passed buckets from hand to hand.

BRAVERY OF THE WOMEN.

"Not only were our men at their post of danger night and day, but the women were equally diligent and equally brave. They made sandbags in great numbers (over 10,000), using curtains of silk and satin, as well as other costly materials.

BEGGED TO BE SHOT.

"The cheerfulness of our women did much to encourage the men. All knew that the enemy would give no quarter and that women falling into their hands would suffer a fate worse than death. Young women requested their friends in that event to shoot them; and a mother of six resolved to shoot her children and then to kill herself. During an attack one woman broke down and went into hysterics and another went mad. There were solitary instances of weakness. In general calmness and even hilarity prevailed.

"Our provisions were running low when our troops approached. Horses and mules had been eaten, and dog meat was threatened. On Monday, Aug. 13, a soldier waked us up to listen to the machine guns of our deliverers. No music could be so charming. Women fell on each other's necks and wept for joy."

THE FRENCH PROPOSALS.

Paris, Oct. 5.—The following official note was issued this afternoon: "The foreign minister has instructed the representatives of France to sound the powers whose troops are cooperating with ours in the extreme east regarding the adoption of a common programme for the settlement of the Chinese question, which has been given Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang full powers to negotiate and treat in its name, suitable preparation for the past and serious guarantee for the future. Penetrated with the spirit which inspired the previous declarations of the different governments, the government of the republic believes it sums their real sentiments in the following points, which it submits as a basis for negotiations, to be entered upon immediately after the usual verifications of the powers.

"First—The punishment of the principal culprits, who will be designated by the representatives of the powers in Peking.

"Second—The maintenance of the prohibition of the import of arms.

"Third—Equitable indemnities to states, societies and individuals which have suffered from the Chinese.

"Fourth—The formation of a permanent guard for the Peking legations.

"Fifth—The dismantlement of the fortifications.

"Sixth—Military occupation of two or three points on the road from Tien Tsin to Peking from the sea.

"Presented collectively to the representatives of the powers, supported by the presence of the international troops, it appears impossible to the government of the republic that these conditions, which are so legitimate, would not be accepted by the Chinese government at an early date.

56 MISSIONARIES MASSACRED.

London, Oct. 5.—A Shanghai dispatch to the Times says it is reported on good authority that 56 missionaries in North Shansi, who have hitherto been reported as missing, have all been massacred.

ADMIRAL SEYMOUR COMPLIMENTED.

The Gazette this evening, in publishing Vice-Admiral Seymour's report of the first Peking relief expedition, as called Sept. 6, and Rear Admiral Bruce's report of the taking of the Taku forts, June 17, gives a letter from the lords of the admiralty, warmly complimenting Admiral Seymour on his tact and judgment in directing a force composed of so many nationalities, and adds that Lord Salisbury entirely concurs in the expressions of approval.

RUSSIA'S COURSE.

Berlin, Oct. 5.—The following dispatch from St. Petersburg has been semi-officially issued here: "The Russian Government assents to the proposals in Count Von Buelow's note of Oct. 1. In the event of the British minister at Peking, has been instructed in that sense."

BRITAIN'S ATTITUDE.

Washington, Oct. 6.—The British Government has authorized Sir Claude MacDonald, the British minister at Peking, to enter into relations with the Chinese officials. It has left its minister discretionary power to pass upon the sufficiency of the credentials of Li Hung Chang, Prince Ching and other Chinese envoys.

Although the formal response to the last German proposition had not been returned by Lord Salisbury, the United States Government has been informed that Sir Claude MacDonald will be instructed to make the same inquiries relative to the punishment of the Chinese ringleaders that have been committed to Mr. Conger.

The latest French note is a distinct movement towards the initiation of this question of punishment is still pending.

TRAGIC SCENES AT PEKING'S SIEGE.

New York, Oct. 6.—The New York Times has received a communication from Rev. Dr. Wm. Alexander Parsons Martin, the aged president of the New Imperial University of Peking, reciting the story of the siege and fall of Peking as he saw it. Dr. Martin says: "The rescue was the work of Christendom, aided by Japan, which deserves to be admitted into that honored brotherhood.

"The first visible sign of our great danger was the burning of churches, missions and legations in exposed places. On the day after our flight they set fire to two imperial buildings adjoining the British legation, believing that the flames would overflow the wall, and so they would have done had

FROM HON. DR. MILLS

The Minister of Justice Objects to the Signing of Pledges by Parliamentary Candidates.

Toronto, Oct. 5.—About 30 delegates, representing labor unions, were in attendance at the meeting of the People's party, held in Richmond Hall, last evening. President James Wilson occupied the chair, and in a few remarks explained that the chief business of the meeting was to form the delegates into a campaign committee. Short addresses were then made by the candidates, Messrs. Hugh Stevenson and Dr. H. G. Hargrave.

During the meeting the following letter from the Hon. David Mills, minister of justice, was read by Dr. Hargrave:

"I have your letter of the 24th ult., in which you quote a declaration of the People's party, in which their candidate is called upon to sign, in reply to your communication I beg to say that I am not aware that there is anything illegal in signing such an enunciation, although the principle it affirms is greatly at variance with the principle of parliamentary government. I think it would be greatly to the advantage of this country that the spirit and principles of the English parliamentary system should be adhered to as perfectly as possible. I am perfectly sure that the moral stamina of electors of the country would be strengthened, and that our system of government would be made pure if this and other pledges were made in the hands of any body of men without destroying a proper sense of responsibility, and if he be a man of moral courage he will occasionally come to where the roads part, and where he must choose between disregarding the improper engagement into which he has entered or disregarding what he feels to be his duty to the country.

THEORIES ABOUT CATARRH

Peculiar Ideas Regarding a Common Disease.

Mark Twain's cure for a cold in the head was simple, but he claims very effective in his remarkable and convenient to eat nothing whatever for twenty-four hours, or presumably until the trouble had disappeared.

Although not able to speak from personal experience as to the effectiveness of this treatment, it certainly has the merit of extreme economy, but it occurs to us that the application of it to a case of nasal catarrh might be attended with difficulties.

Catarrh, as everyone knows, is a chronic cold in the head and Mr. Twain's treatment, if it should become a fad, would make of us a nation of fasters, an error entailing the example of the immortal Tanner, who achieved world-wide fame by fasting forty days.

Catarrh is certainly becoming a national disease, and there is little doubt but that errors in diet, particularly over-eating, is a very common cause.

Most people, however, are more interested in the cure of the trouble than in the cause, and modern medical science has produced more effective and less heroic remedies than Mr. Twain's. Guaiacol is a new remedy, very effective in some forms of catarrh. Eucalyptol is another, which on account of its antiseptic properties, is very valuable, while many severe cases of chronic catarrh have been entirely cured by the sanguinaria, or extract of blood root alone.

Within a year an enterprising chemist has combined all of these remedies in tablet form, palatable and convenient, and the superiority of this tablet over other catarrh remedies is so apparent that all druggists now carry them in stock to supply the popular demand.

They are called Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, and it is doubtful if any medicine has achieved a national popularity in so short a time as this.

These tablets are used by thousands of traveling men, because they can be carried in the pocket and used any time and in any quantity, being free from Cocaine, opiate or any poisonous drug.

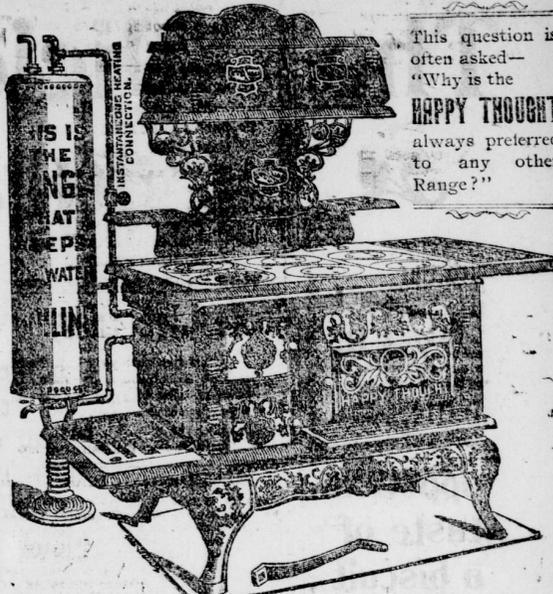

They clear the head and throat from the disgusting secretions of catarrh, very often in a few hours' time.

For nasal catarrh they are far superior to any wash, lozenge or ointment, the use of which is often as inconvenient and annoying as the disease itself.

For coughs, colds, bronchial catarrh and catarrh of the stomach these tablets give immediate relief and a permanent cure where lotions, douches and inhalers make no impression whatever.

Preparation is a boon to catarrh sufferers, and any druggist will tell you that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is a remedy that has come to stay.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS

This question is often asked—
"Why is the HAPPY THOUGHT always preferred to any other Range?"

Because it is made of the best material and by the most skillful workmen, and because it possesses features which no other range can possess. The adjustable damper regulates the draft as perfectly as a valve does a steam engine. The corrugated vent, lated oven insures perfect baking, and the transparent oven door allows an inspection of baking without a loss of heat to the oven. It has a deep angular fire box and the original duplex grate, which separates the ashes from the fire without dust or waste. All these points account for the superiority of the HAPPY THOUGHT.

representative ought to put himself in that position. Our system of parliamentary government is one most consistent with the judgment and moral sense of man that has yet been devised, and all such schemes as would deprive that system of its fundamental principle of the People's party are at variance with it. The government of which Lord Howick was a member declined to give to the king a pledge that they would not at some future time recommend Catholic emancipation, as they declined to bind themselves not to give that advice which, if they thought it best, their oath of office required they should give. No representative ought to bind himself not to do that which the highest public interest might require at his hands. I have gone further than your inquiry called for, but we have had late years among us, and those principles are at variance with our system of government. The Patrons of Industry adopted a platform well enough suited to the constitutional system of the United States Government, but it was wholly at variance with the English constitutional system, and party platforms that originate in the same way are not free from danger. They become dangerous for the time being prevent a fair expression of public opinion upon those questions which emanate from the life of the state, and with which it is the special duty of parliament to deal.

SAVED THEIR BOY

HE HAD BEEN WEAK AND AILING FROM INFANCY.

As He Grew Older His Trouble Seemed to Increase and His Parents Thought Him Doomed to an Invalid's Life—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured Him When Hope Had Almost Departed.

[From the Post, Thorold, Ont.]

Mr. James Dabaud and wife are two of the most prominent residents of the town of Thorold, where they have passed many years. In their family they have a little son, who, although but 10 years of age, has experienced much of the same trouble which has plagued many a child in the search for his renewed health—all in vain, however, until Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were brought into use. A Post reporter, hearing of the case, was invited to call on the boy's home and received full particulars from Mrs. Dabaud. "I am pleased," said Mrs. Dabaud, "to have the public made aware of the facts of my boy's case, if it is likely to be of any benefit to other children who are now 10 years of age. In infancy he was a delicate child, but from 4 to 7 he scarcely passed a well day. At 4 years of age he began to complain of headache, which later became almost continuous, and soon symptoms of general debility developed. His appetite was poor and he grew pale and emaciated, and the least exertion caused a severe, sharp pain and fluttering of the heart, and dizziness. At times there was considerable derangement of his stomach; a bitterness of the lips and a shortness of breath. He would often lie awake at night and arise in the morning haggard and unrefreshed. During his illness he was treated by two doctors. Both differed in the diagnosis of his case. He would often lie awake at night and arise in the morning haggard and unrefreshed.
