St. Petersburg, Sept. 7-2:10 a.m.-There has been no news from General Kuropatkin since Monday afteroon. This is attributed to the interuption of direct communication with the commander-in-chief, owing to the ransfer of the telegraph office to Muklen, whither messages have to be sent by courier. The utmost confidence preails at the war office that the Rusrails at the war once that sian army is slowly but surely effectbeing cut off. Nevertheless, intense anxiety is felt throughout the whole nation, and this feeling is shared by the Emperor.
