SUFFER NO MORE.—There are thousands who live miserable lives because dyspepsia dulls the faculties and shadows existence with the cloud of depression. A trial of them will prove this.

An interesting feature of the United States Government's live bird exhibit at the World's Fair is the feeding of the fish-eating birds. The fish are purchased at the market. They are suffocated and are thrown to the pelicans and cormorants, which swallow them whole. The cormorants sometimes eat so many that the tails of the fish stick to their bills.

Mr. E. T. Essery Makes an Amusing Speech at the London Opera House.

The managers of the Conservative party put on an interesting performance at the Vaudeville Theatre Saturday night. The auditorium was well filled by an audience which was kept waiting till 9 o'clock for the appearance of the star actor, Dr. Montague. The performance was preceded by a caucus in the Conservative Club rooms adjoining, at which the programme was arranged, the announcement was made that Dr. Montague would not be the candidate, and Mr. William Gray, president of the local Conservative club, was selected in his stead. Mr. Gray, however, was unable to accept until he had received the consent of the other members of the firm with which he is connected in Montreal.

The Chairman's Opening.
Mr. Gray, the chosen chairman, said, in opening the meeting, that he was sure that all would be pleased to see Dr. Montague sitting at his side. But he was sorry to say that Dr. Montague, who had received the unanimous nomination for the city by the Conservative party, had declined to do so. A great many people had said that the Conservative candidate should be a native-born man. The chairman did not agree with this. He thought that view was too narrow. Mr. Meredith then presented Mr. William Gray, the president of the Conservative Club, who had been nominated, and was waiting for the consent of his friends to accept the nomination. He was undoubtedly this would be on Monday. Mr. Gray, said the chairman, was a man who would give his acceptance, and he would not be a private car. The speaker was sure that Mr. Gray would be elected on November 2. He called upon Dr. Montague to address the meeting.

Montague Declines.
Much applause, especially on the part of those on the platform, greeted Dr. Montague as he rose. He declared that the gathering before him was one of the most important of his life. He explained firstly that he had retired into private life. He, secondly, had felt bound to do so. The other reason was that he thought the candidate should be a younger man, one who would give his acceptance, and he would not be a private car. The speaker was sure that Mr. Gray would be elected on November 2. He called upon Dr. Montague to address the meeting.

Talked in Usual Strain.
Mr. Essery then was called upon to speak. "We have now," he said, "a candidate who belonged to the city of London. During the past week the poor old Advertiser had been sitting on added eggs. (Laughter.) It had been poured of its life by Dr. Montague, and it led the people to believe that it only selected a candidate in the city who would give his acceptance. Now they had the chance. (Laughter.) Mr. Essery worked in the well-known piece of Canada. He said Sir Wilfrid Laurier had talked about shooting the Liberal Government. He said he was a 'coward' and said he was 'mean.' Mr. Essery also took a crack at Hon. Mr. Hyman, saying that he was not a minister, but an 'apprentice' and said that his master, Hon. Mr. Sutherland, was too sick to take office. He then worked in the 'Mimic' Minister of Agriculture, but did not do anything but grow 'political bees' and had 'tried to shove Dr. Montague into the King's uniforms.' The speaker's next hit was at the G. T. P., which he said 'Laurier has hatched, and now he does not know whether it is a goose or a gosling.' Hon. Mr. Gibson was the next in Mr. Essery's bill of fare. He said he had disgraced the legal profession. Then, Mr. Essery said that 'the flag of the United States has never floated over Billy Gray's grandfather,' and he knew that the Conservatives were 'going to knock the tail out of their opponents in the coming election. They were going to drive out the 'traitors, the grafters,' from office.

Praised the N. P.
The speaker then launched out into praise of the long-interred National Policy. He said that the Liberals had been doing a very bad job of it. He said that the Conservatives had been doing a very good job of it. He said that the Liberals had been doing a very bad job of it. He said that the Conservatives had been doing a very good job of it.
