A DEAD INDIAN. Beaverton, Aug. 11.—Scott Barns hardt, an Indian of Midland, while under the influence of liquor, was put 13 off a G. T. R. excursion train here last night. The train was returning from Peterboro to Midland. Dr. Grant, G. T. R. physician, was called to attend the Indian, who was found to be in a serious condition. He had the man removed to the village lockup and remained with him until he died early
