the evening service at King Street Presbyterian Church Sunday to hear Mr. Karl Lehman, of Denver, a trav eling representative of the Christian Endeavor Society, deliver a special ad dress to young people. Mr. Lehman is a splendid speaker, and he delivered a powerful and earnest appeal to the young people to give their lives to Christ. In opening he paid a tribute to the people of Ontario and Quebec by stating that during the seven years of his travels on this continent he had never met with such hospitality as that of the people of these two prov inces in Canada. He gave a brief out line of the work of the Christian En deavor Society had been doing.The founder of it had been a Cana dian, and a Presbyterian, at that. This was Dr. Francis E. Clarke, who was born in the little town of Aylmer, Quebec. Although the Christian En deavor Society had been founded in the United States at first, it was now going ahead with great strides. During the past ten years, 16,000 Christian En deavor Societies had been founded in America, and 1,200,000 members had been added to the ranks. Of these orga
