MOTHER! THE CHILD IS COSTIVE, BILIOUS

If Tongue Is Coated, Breath Bad, Stomach Sour, Don't Hesitate!

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, mother, see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages, and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs"; then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled.

WEDDING BELLS

McDONALD—HAYDEN.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Christ Church on Wednesday at 2 p.m., when Ethel May, eldest daughter of Mr. Wm. A. Hayden, of 6 Maryboro Place, was married to Mr. Roy P. McDonald, only son of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, of Washington, Ont., by Rev. C. R. Gunne, rector. Miss H. Gunne presided at the organ.

The bride looked very charming as she entered the church leaning on her father's arm. She wore a white voile dress, trimmed with fine lace and insertion. A wreath of orange blossoms adorned her brow, with long bridal veil attached, and she carried a bouquet of white asters. She was attended by her sister, Miss Kate Hayden, dressed in pink silk, who carried a bouquet of pink asters. Marion Hayden and Nellie Smith, cousins of the bride, made sweet little flower girls.

The bridegroom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Stanley McDonald, of this city.

The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a handsome sunburst of pearls, to the bridesmaid a gold cameo dress ring, and to the flower girls a silver coin purse.

After the ceremony, which was attended by a large company of friends and well-wishers, a substantial and dainty repast was partaken of by some score or more guests, immediate relatives of the contracting parties, including the father and mother and two sisters of the bridegroom from Washington.

Many beautiful and useful presents were received, showing the esteem in which the contracting parties are held by a large circle of friends.

The happy couple left on the 5:20 train for Toronto for a short honeymoon. On their return they will reside at 13 Methuen avenue.

Mrs. McDonald will not receive until Nov. 1.

TOURISTS GONE

Lake Huron Beaches Are Practically Deserted by Summer Crowd.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Sarnia, Sept. 11.—The great majority of the summer resorters at the beaches have gone to their various homes now, and the lake shore is taking on the autumn garb. The grocers' picnic enlivened things yesterday. The affair was well attended, and a fine program of sports given.

SOVEREIGN ASSURANCE CO' IS NOW OUT OF BUSINESS

Two Londoners Are Officers in Concern—Policy Holders Fully Protected.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, Sept. 11.—The Sovereign Fire Assurance Company, which has its head office here, and includes among its officials London, Hamilton and Toronto men, has been forced out of business.

A recent investigation by the insurance department at Ottawa showed that the firm was perfectly solvent. The directors of the company will probably lose heavily, but the policyholders are fully protected.

Treasurer A. F. Webster stated today that the company suffered some heavy losses in New York State, and that they had been losing money for some time. One misfortune came after another and the company was eventually compelled to reinsure its United States business.

The Canadian business of the company has been taken over by the Phoenix Fire Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., while the policies sold by the company in the United States are being taken care of by a New York company.

The Sovereign Fire Assurance Company had an authorized capital of $2,000,000, and a paid-up capital of over half a million. The officers of the company were: Cyrus A. Birge, Hamilton, president; Thomas Baker, London, first vice-president; H. S. Wilson, Toronto, second vice-president and managing director; A. F. Webster, Toronto, treasurer; James Dixon, Hamilton; John H. Adams, Toronto; C. H. Enderton, Winnipeg; Samuel Screaton, London; Hon. Colin H. Campbell, K.C., Winnipeg, and John Leslie, Winnipeg, directors.

Until three years ago the company was doing business exclusively in Canada; then it was decided to try the United States field, and agencies were established in various parts of the country.

DOG SHOW AT THE FAIR PROVES BIG ATTRACTION

Assorted Canines With Assorted Yelps Magnet for Many Visitors.

When the reporter walked through the door of the building at the Fair that has the sign "Dogs" painted on it in big letters, he knew that he was going to enjoy himself and see one of the real sights of the Western Fair, but he couldn't help thinking of the expression that some discerning person made, "The more I know men the better I like dogs," and so he entered feeling as though he was going to be judged, and not the dogs.

He stopped and chatted with the American and the English foxhounds, and listened to stirring tales of foxhunts, and had a pleasant time. Close to the American foxhounds he had been attracted by the protests of a fine, shaggy, white dog, with little black specks scattered over his coat, as though someone had taken a pen and thrown some ink at him. He was making a big fuss and explained his troubles to the scribe.

The Setter's Complaint.

He was an English setter. "I guess you would kick, too," he said. "I don't mind being caged up here like a common, ordinary mongrel, but I hate to have to face a mug like that over there." The reporter looked and saw the homeliest, toughest-looking bulldog in captivity. He was so tough that he had scraped all the straw off the floor of his stall and was camping on the hard boards. Every once in a while he let out a growl that scared everybody near him and made all the other canines uneasy. Just for pastime he took occasional bites off the boards of his stall and ground up the pieces. He was a "tough guy." But he wasn't as savage as he looked. A bulldog never is. It isn't possible to be. It wasn't very long before we were on speaking terms with him, and he was the gentlest dog in the building. He was just aching to be petted, and the way he licked your hand and looked up into your face was appealing.

Friendly Bulldogs.

The reporter had a good time with the bulldogs. They are a friendly lot. There was old King Billy down at the end, looking as if he didn't want to be there at all, and a stranger from Lethbridge beside him, who didn't seem to care a bit. He had just come from Toronto Exhibition and he was used to it. He had the bowleggedest bowlegs of any bulldog in the show and he was proud of it. He was so bowlegged that he had a hard time keeping one foot from tripping over the other.

The Russian wolfhounds were grouped alongside the bulldogs, but not being on speaking terms with the Russian language, the reporter could not converse with these lanky foreigners. The St. Bernards came next, and one couldn't help being impressed with them. The St. Bernards plainly looked out of their element. They had that faraway look in their eyes that b[e]
Alpine snow and monks and monasteries and belated wayfarers. They took no interest in the happenings and appeared to be bored with the whole proceedings.

Assorted Yelps.

Then there was a lone bloodhound, dachshunds, the Dalmatians, the beagles and the bull-terriers. They were all adding their own peculiar yelps to the general noise. The collies and the 57 different varieties of terriers had all their words of greeting, and even on society row, where the pugs, the Pomeranians, the English toy spaniels, and poodles were, all decked out in the latest dog finery, the interviewer got a friendly nod. The cocker spaniels, and schipperkes and the whippets also passed out a word of welcome, and when The Advertiser man finally bade adieu to Canineville he admitted he was glad he had visited the dog show.

ANGLICAN YOUNG PEOPLE CONCLUDE CONVENTION

Several Londoners Appointed To Act on the New Executive.

Toronto, Sept. 11.—The Dominion Anglican Young People's Association terminated a successful three-days' convention yesterday afternoon when in Holy Trinity Parish House, His Lordship the Bishop of Toronto installed and pronounced his benediction upon the new corps of officers elected to administer the association's good work during the ensuing year.

Mr. Clarence Bell, who for a number of years has proved a tower of strength to the movement in his capacity as president, is succeeded by Mr. W. A. Langmuir, a former member of the Dominion executive.

The association considered invitations to go to Windsor and Kingston next year for the annual convention and after long deliberation chose the latter as their meeting place.

At the morning session the convention heard stirring addresses from Rev. J. B. Fotheringham, of Goderich; Rev. Arthur Garlisle, of Windsor, and Rev. W. G. Appleyard, London; assistant secretary, Mrs. A. J. Wyckoff, London; treasurer, Miss M. J. Woodhouse, Hamilton; editorial secretary, Mr. W. A. Peacey, Toronto.

The executive committee is made up as follows: Rev. Dean Starr, Kingston; Rev. Canon MacNab, Toronto; Rev. Canon Murray, Winnipeg; Rev. Canon Almond, Montreal; Rev. Canon Hind, Halifax; Rev. W. Professors Were Inside Vesuvius

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Naples, Italy, Sept. 11.—Professor Mercalli, director of the observatory of Mount Vesuvius, together with several professors of the University of Munich, accomplished a daring descent into the crater of the volcano yesterday.

The professors remained inside the crater two hours studying, in the midst of asphyxiating gases, new volcanic activity. The descent into and ascent from the inner regions of the mountain occupied eight hours.

The scientists consider that a great re-awakening of the volcano is approaching.

"My Feet Were Just Aching For TIZ"

Let Your Poor, Tired, Chafed, Tender Feet "Spread Out" Gloriously in a Bath of TIZ!

Send at Once for Free Trial Package.

"O, O, glory! what a feelin'! Wonderful what TIZ will do for your feet!"

Just take your shoes off, and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, achy, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a TIZ bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy. They'll look up at you and almost talk, and then they'll take another dive in that TIZ bath. Yes, TIZ is life to feet!

"Just couldn't wait to take my hat off!"

The man or woman who says there's anything like, or as good as, TIZ never had a foot in a TIZ bath. You'll be able to wear smaller shoes, too, when you use TIZ; your feet will keep cozy.

Miss M. Pearl Lloyd, Glendona, Wis., got one box of TIZ for her mother. "She has had sore, tender feet for a long time," writes Miss Lloyd, "but after using TIZ her feet are not troubling her."

TIZ operates under a new principle, drawing out all the poisonous exudations that make feet sore, corny and tired. There's nothing else like TIZ, so refuse any imitation. If anyone offers you a substitute, just remember your poor, suffering feet, and tell him to give you what you asked for.

TIZ, 25 cents a box, sold everywhere, or sent direct, on receipt of price. Money back if TIZ doesn't do all we say. For a free trial package write today to Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill. Recommended by all drug stores, department and general stores.
