Children born on this day of the year must be trusted and made companions of. They cannot easily be deceived, because they know from within. It is easier by far to conwithin. It is easier by far to con-quer a city than to restore to them a confidence when once it has been broken.

They should be kept active by means of simple pursuits through

They should be kept active by means of simple pursuits through most of the waking hours, and as far as possible should be allowed to choose their occupations.

These people are very loyal and strong in their love relations, but when they are deceived or ill-treated it is apt to embitter their future happiness. The women become silent and hopeless, while the men are likely to indulge in drink and reckless despondency. Sagittarius is watching over all these days, and if you are in need of expert and confidential advice. use the Want Ads. They will be of
