IS HIGH COST OF DIVORCE DRIVING PEOPLE AWAY?

Major G. N. Weekes Will Ask ARMENIAN GIRL News From City Churches I. A. ROWAT DIES Divorces Be Made Cheaper

URGES CHEAPER DIVORCE.

ham, Will Address Meeting in Tecumseh House.

week will drop in later in the ing to help the show along. Am

Bracken, K.C. of Chatham

MANY CLAIM AIDED

Demonstration of Auto-suggestion.

doctor, one would not be cured.

WILL SPEAK IN LONDON

Among the interesting people who vill visit London during the meeting

oladin of Armenia, who will speak at the civic banquet to be held Tues-

Miss Poladin, who comes to Lon-don as the guest of the local Armen-ian relief committee, is but 18 years of age, but is a most talented speaker

English as well as in her native

Having lived through the horrors of the Armenian massacres she comes to Canada to beseech the Canadian people to aid her countrymen.

Moderate

of the Western Ontario Women's Instrations were begun.

ne asked.

SPECTACLES-$1.95

Removal Sale

F. STEELE, Optician, is removing to larger premises, opposite Lowe's and Allen's Theatres. The new store will have new stock, and the present stock will be sold regardless of cost. The following are some specials:

Gold-filled Ready-made Spectacles, regular price $2.50, now $1.95

Rimless Eyeglasses ... regular price $9.50, now $4.95
Rimless Spectacles ... regular price $9.50, now $4.95
Shell Frames, light or dark ... regular price, $3.50, now $1.95
Heavy All-Shell Frames ... regular price $5.00, now $2.50

We make no charge for examination. Let us show what we can do, you are under no obligation to buy. We guarantee satisfaction. Everything is best quality, but we are opening our new store with new goods.

F. STEELE

DUNDAS STREET.

Wants Dominion Parliament to Pass General Divorce Act Next Session.

LUXURY FOR RICH

Pleads That Divorces Are Beyond Means of Ordinary Poor Man.

On behalf of 150 clients who want divorce decrees, Major G. N. Weekes, London barrister, will make representation to Dominion parliament to have a general divorce act passed at the next session.

The question received its first and second reading in the House of Commons during the last parliament, the Conservative regime, but died in

The plea is made that divorces are out of reach of the poor man. If a poor man wants a divorce he has to spend his entire life earnings, as divorces cost about $1,000 in Canada. These are granted by special act of parliament. A few such have been put through for persons residing in this district. As a result of the high cost of di-to the United States, where divorces are granted by the courts, and cost from $50 to $75.

As late as Saturday Major Veekes was asked to take depositions in a case of a Canadian who had gone to the United States to procure a di-

During the Conservative reign the bill asking for a general divorce act was introduced by W. F. Nickle, now attorney-general of Ontario. There are hundreds of persons in this district who want divorces, The Advertiser was told, and who would get them if they could afford them. get them if they could allow Many of these people are going

"Enough people are leaving the country for economic reasons," Major Weekes asserted, "without leaving begather at a friendly dinner and gencause they are unable to obtain di-

The act of parliament proposed would give the courts the right to been staged in London. It originatgrant divorces.
"I don't think the United States is more moral than we, because of di-yorce court," Major Weekes remarked. 'I think that the most immoral thing is a mismated couple who are forced to live together. If they could secure a divorce they would marry someone with whom they could agree and settle down and live harmon-

DISEASE AMONG CATTLE CAUSES CLOSING OF PORT

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 31.-The port of Glasgow has been closed to store cattle on account of foot and mouth disease having broken out there among a consignment of British cat-tle, according to a cable received last night by Col. H. A. Mullins, cattle

The delicious fragrance of Baker's Breakfast and palatability make constant users of all who try it; it is the cocoa of high

Made In Canada By Walter Baker & Co. Limited

Mills at Dorchester, Mass.

and Montreal, Canada OKLET OF CHOICE RECIPES SENT FREE

menian girl, but 18 years of age, comes to London next week to make an appeal on behalf of her stricken people. Miss Sirvart Poladin, for that is her name, is being brought to the city by the local Armenian relief committee, and while here will address meetings to be held in the Colborne Street Methodist Church on Wednesday evening. She will also be one of the principal speakers at the civic banquet which is being given to the delegates of the Women's Institutes of Western Ontario on Tuesday evening at Smallman & one Tuesday evening at the other Alale Street Malloween relation or the Armenian massacres, an Armenian girl, but 18 years of age, comes to London next week to make an appeal on behalf of her stricken people. Miss Sirvart Poladin, for that is her name, is being brought to the city by the local Armenian relief committee, and while here will address meetings to be held in the Col. Ingram's.
Although Miss Poladin has suffered persecution at the hands of the Turks, the recounting of which brings tears into the eyes of her listeners, she considers herself a very fortun-ate girl, because she knows that Major G. N. Weekes, who will appeal to parliament for general divorce many of her friends and classmates experienced perils and terror far greater than she.

Miss Poladin's father happened to be a medical man, and was useful to the Turks. Consequently he was not molested as other men were. But his little daughter suffered the ter-rors of heing stoned morning and rors of being stoned morning and night on her way to school. So great became the persecution, that the father was compelled to pay a Turk to accompany the child each day R. L. Bracken, K. C., Chat-n the Tecumseh House tomorrow night more than 100 commercial travelers and London merchants will their guns, children falling by the Knights of Honor Quartet. eral get-together meeting. This is

The story of her own flight before the Turk, when she had under her protection her 4-year-old brother, is the second year this banquet has ed with an idea by some of the com-mercial men who are regularly visit-hands and knees under cover of the mercial men who are regularly visitdark, with the bullets of the Turk whizzing around her, she managed ing London and who thought that a dinner in which they could sit side to reach the American Mission School b yside with the men to whom they in Marash. The escape was made in were selling all the year round would bitter snowstorm, and she and her and perhaps with an eye on the ompanions were but lightly clothed Attaacked by bandits, robbed and threatened with death, they proceedbaubee to better business relations. In any case tomorrow they stage their annual "jamboree.' James Gray, president of the chamber of comed on their way, until they finally reached the borders of Turkey and scaped merce, will preside and propose the toast to the chamber of commerce. But Miss Poladin will tell her own Several well known performers from the London theatres in the icty this he prominent speakers will be R. L.

work to thresh out the various issues. It would have been different ferns made a seasonable decoration had everyone agreed on them all, but that would be hardly likely.

ment of golden chrysanthemums and ferns made a seasonable decoration had everyone agreed on them all, but things to eat. While the guests were things to eat. While the guests were serves in the west.

Mrs. McKillop of Hyde Park prom-Prof. Armand Gives Practical In any event, there was so much in that report that we required more time to thoroughly understand the different phases of it."

Assembling, and final preparations being made for the supper, music was provided by Miss Irene Foster, Miss of mission band secretary caused by Powell and an oreheater lady.

Several Londoners suffering from lefective eyesight, defective hearing, headaches and pains, testified they had been aided by Professor J. A. Armand's demonstrations of Dr. Emile Coue's autosuggestion methods and the methods of the original school at Nancy, France, at the Masonic Tample last night.

Sidered we would not have the time to consider it and put the recommendations into effect while we were mendations into effect while we were to consider it and put the report of much promise. Soloists were Mrs. F. Manning, Miss Nettle Jones and Mrs. H. Harries, and a violin number the report to 1924 because earlier, as we expected, we would "In any event it will be good food methods did not cure, but rather as-sisted in curing human ailments. He declared that unless one had faith that one was going to recover from an illness, one would not recover. He declared unless one believed in a for thought for the new council. Had we started to do certain things, we soon might have found ourselves out of office—before we finished the job—and then the new council would Coue's method was explained idetail, and about 10 o'clock demon have ripped up everything we at-tempted. A new council always A printed card was held up. Many knows it all and never wants to take any recommendations from the old."

A printed card was held up. Many of the audience could not read everything printed on it. After Professor Armand had bade them close their eyes a few moments, and he had convinced them that they could see much better, they were told to open their eyes again Ald. William Wilson. decided not to consider it," How many can see better now to do it or not.'

Ald. Wilson was none too communi-Eleven hands were raised.
Professor Armand will lecture and demonstrate again tonight at 8:15 o'clock at the Masonic Temple. cative as to why he voted to send the report on to 1924 and, as a matter of fact, advanced no reason whatever, preferring to adopt a strict non-committal attitude YOUNG ARMENIAN GIRL

Ald. P. J. Watt. Ald. Peter J. Watt stated he voted enced by any supposed antagonism

Mayor Wenige.
"We had not sufficient time, for one thing, to consider the entire report in a proper manner," he explained, "and, as a matter of fact, the most of the recommendations contained have already been put into effect. The whole report is a rehash and certainly not worth the expendi-

"I voted for this undertaking upon the distinct understanding that there would be a survey of the London & Port Stanley Railway. And it was not to be found in the report—what I considered to be the most impor

Holeproof Hosiery

> Economical with the economy of long and satisfactory service. All materials.

> > MADE IN CANADA

Many colors.

WELLINGTON ST. LEAGUE. The citizenship committee were in arge of this week's regular meeting of the Wellington Street Epworth League, with Miss Eula Pearson oc-cupying the chair. F. Morris took the topic, and dealt splendidly with the subject, "Our Responsibility for Making Prohibition Effective." Fol-Miss Sirvart Poladin Can Tell at First Hand of Grave Atrocities.

WILL SPEAK HERE

WILL SPEAK HERE

Having lived through the horrors of the Armenian massacres, an Armenian girl, but 18 years of age,

"Lost Firewood," a clever Hal
the subject, Our Responsive." Following Effective." Following short session of the executive was held, at which it was decided to hold a special young peoples' service on Sunday evening, Nov. 18, with the young peoples' rally the following evening. On Nov. 26 the Wellington Street League will hold the return debate with the Hale Street League. The subject for this has not yet been decided upon.

HALLOWEEN PLAY PRESENTED.

"Lost Firewood," a clever Hal
"Lost Firewood," a clever Hal
"SCOTCH CONCERT.

"I SERVE" CLUB.

Representatives of the "I Serve" Club of Cronyn Memorial Church visited the Salvation Army Rescue a jolly Halloween party. Games and music formed an attractive evening's program. In charge were Miss Ger-trude Sharp, Miss Rose Sanders, Miss Grace Sing and Miss Evelyn Hayman.

KNIGHTS OF HONOR PARTY. One of the jolliest of the season's night by the Knights of Honor Young Men's Class of the First Methodist Church. Halloween festivities were carried on in the church baseto accompany the child each day

And so it was the child grew up in the atmosphere of massacre. She remembers when her father use silver sandwich tray was made to Mr remembers when her father "forgot how to smile." It was merely that he had come into contact with the great army of 5,000 Armenian exiles, marching barefoot from their homes, pursued by the merciless Turk with their guns children fallicituded delightful readings by Miss Lilla Grant, and selections by the ST. MARK'S A. Y. P. A. The A. Y. P. A. of St. Mark's Nearly full attendances from both organizations were present. The evening's program, over which John direhouse presided, included a novel lothespin-dressing contest, in which prizes were won by Mrs. Sidney Sims, her "Colonial Lady," and Mr. Jack Johnston with "King Tut." Both members of St. George's A. Y. The program was in the hands of Mrs. A. Davies and Mrs. John tory next week, and no one could and Mr. Harold Skellett looked after

COLBORNE STREET ANNI-

man. Readings which were most en-thusiastically received were given by Miss Isobel Mortimer, an elecutionist Mr. H. Harries, and a violin number was given by Mrs. Grant Harris, with several selections also by the Colborne Street Orchestra.

HOLLOWEEN SOCIAL. splendid Halloween social was held last evening at the Souther Congregational Church, when the members of the Christian Endeavor Union entertained the members of the Mens' Club. Of the large number present, almost 60 appeared in mas-querade costume. Miss Elizabeth Perry, convener of the social committee was in charge, and the even-Ald. William Wilson declared. "I ing was spent with a delightful prodidn't know whether we were going gram of Halloween games, refresh-

ST. JAMES' C. G. I. T.

The junior and intermediate C. G. T. groups of St. James' Church, outh London, transformed their regular meeting last evening into a highly successful Halloween party. The greater number of the girls came ber of reasons and that his feeling in the matter was by no means influenced by any supposed and contests. The senior games and contests. The senior group, under the direction of Miss McNaughton were busy with arrangements for the fish-pond, of which they are to be in charge at the coming bazaar.

DRESSED AS CHILDREN. Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Wilson of High street entertained the memi of the choir of Ridout Street Metho-dist Church at a delightful Halloweer party last evening. In accordance with a novel masquarade arrange-mnet, all the members came dressed as boys or girls under twelve, and a merry program of children's games occupied the evening. Practically all members of the choir were pres-

UNIQUE ARRANGEMENT.

When the bazaar which is to be held in St. Martin's Church, South London, opens Thursday night, November 8, visitors are expected to be astonished with the unique arrangement of the different booths.

The entire hasement of the church be astonished with the unique arrangement of the different booths. The entire basement of the church has been artistically decorated and has been named St. Martinsville. In the center the booths have been arranged in a square which is surrounded by avenues to be known as St. Peter's avenue, St. Patrick's avenue, St. Mary's avenue, and St. Michael's avenue.

Matrimony road, Proposal street, and Engagement lane run through the booths to Cathedral Square in the center and leading from it is Honeymoon trail. Taken altogether St. Martin's bazaar to be held on Thursday and Friday, the 8th and 9th, will be one of the most successful and unique ever held in the city. Lunches will be served in a Japanese tea garden and Thanksgiving fowl, together with fancy work, groceries, farm produce, phonograph records, hosiery, handkerchiefs and candy will be sold from the different booths.

OLYMPIAN GROUP PARTY.

The Senior Pathfinder Girls of St. Andrew's Church were guests of honor at a Halloween party arranged las evening by the Olympian group of Tuxis Boys following their regular weekly supper. Mr. Gordon Black, the chairman of the entertainment committee was in charge of the delightful program of Railoween games prepared. Mr. Hugh Hutton was in songs, an da number of humorous Scotch readings was most enjoyable. Mr. Charles E. Wheeler, organist of St. Andrew's Church who acted as accompanist, also contributed splen-didly to the program of familiar

ST. ANDREW'S BAZAAR. Arrangements are well under way or the mamoth bazaar to be held by the ladies of St. Andrew's Church on or about November 16, the final date not having been settled. Dur-ing the past few weeks, a number of successful teas and work meetings have been held and the number of dainty and useful articles which are creasing. The executive committee

ranged "SUGAR AND SPICE

With its wares of "sugar and spice and everything nice," the candy booth is to be one of the most at-Quartet.

Doorn is to be one of the numerous booths in connection with the Jubilee Bazaar of the Cronyn Memorial which is to be held on Friday and Church, East London, staged a merry Memorial Parish Hall. Under the Halloween party last evening, when their guests were the A. Y. P. A. of the members of the A. Y. P. A. have St. George's Church, West London, assumed responsibility for the Nearly full attendances from both booth, and they give promise of wares which will include suit the most fastidious. clude sweets to suit the most fastidious.

The Girl Guides of which Miss Muriel McBride is the leader, are looking after the white elephant booth, and, to judge from the articles already collected, this is PRESEVTERIAL EXECUTIVE A meeting of the executive of hte London Presbyterial W. M. S. was held yesterday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church, with Mrs. J. TELL WHY THEY VOTED

WANY CLAIM AIDED

TO SEND REPORT OVER

One of the most successful anniversary celebrations in the history of the church was that held last night by the congregation of the Colborne Street Methodist Church. Over 400 people sat down to a splendid supper served by the Ladies' Aid, weight of nearly 4,000 pounds have taken at least two weeks' steady work to thresh out the various destinations of golden physical parts and the past few weeks by the Presbyterial to Math responsible of Colborne Street Anni VERSARY.

One of the most successful anniversary celebrations in the history of the church was that held last night by the congregation of the Colborne Street Methodist Church. Over 400 people sat down to a splendid supper served by the Ladies' Aid, weight of nearly 4,000 pounds have been sent off during the past few weeks by the Presbyterial, to Math ment of golden physical phys ewson, Gore Bay and Heart, in Northern Ontario, and to Portage La > different phases of it."

>
> Ald. Ed. Hayden.
>
> "There was certainly no personal motive behind my vote," Ald. Edmund Hayden asserted. "I voted to send the report to 1924 because I can be a send to 1924 because I can be eleven women from the Presbytery of London having entered upon mission-ary work in home and foreign fields. If this action is taken, the honor roll will in all probability be hung in or e of the larger city churches. Mrs. H. Peterman, the literary secretary, reported having visited the city auxiliaries to distribute liter-A letter was read from Rev. Irwin of Hearse, Northern Cntario, in which he expressed sincere thanks for a gift of three boxes of books sent up for distribution among the mining camps in this district. The books were donated by the Knox Presbyterian Church, and sent to Hearst through the agency of the Presbyterial W. M. S. Mrs. McEvoy read the Bible les-meeting was led by Mrs. D. L. Mc-A letter of sympathy was sent to Mrs. A. E. Silverwood, the messen-ger secretary, who is at present con-fined to her home on account of illson, and the prayer which opened the

ST. MATTHEW'S W. A.

The W. A. of St. Matthew's Church held its first regular meeting of the season yesterday afternoon, when a scientific research. To accomplish splendid talk on her recent trip to our ambitions we must have vision the west was given by Mrs. David enough to realize the prime import-Williams, wife of the Bishop of ance of fostering this work through-Huron. The meeting was held in the out our country. Parish Hall. At the conclusion of James Gray. Mrs. William's address afternoon tea

LARGEST EVER HELD.

The meeting of the Chancel Guild of St. Matthew's Church, held last week, was the largest in the history of the parish. It was the semi-annual meeting, and important items of business were transacted, prior to an enjoyable social hour during which the officers were guests of the mem. the officers were guests of the mem-

The Chancel Guild of St. Mathew's Church are meeting on Friday after-noon, to hold a quilting bee in aid of the coming bazaar.

QUILTING BEE.

PUMPKIN PIE SOCIAL. The Young People's Society of St. George's Presbyterian Church. East London, opened' their season most successfully on Monday evening of this week, when they entertained a large number of the congregation at a pumpkin ple social. The evening was spent delightfully in Halloween games and a spelling match.

A splendid collection of useful articles for the coming bazaar re-sulted from an enjoyable shower held last night at the home of Mrs. Perry last night at the home of Mrs. Perry Princess avenue, under the auspices of the bazaar committee of St. Mat-hew's Guild.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

AT S. S. CONVENTION. Miss Mayme Young of the Children's Work Board, has left for Stratford to attend the provincial Sounday school convention, where she is rep-

Well-Known London Grocer Succumbs to Attack of Heart Trouble.

FUNERAL FRIDAY

Thomas Allen Rowat, one of the oldest retail merchants of the city and head of the firm of Rowat and Company, died at 5:30 this morning at his residence, 31 Cartwright street. He has been ill for a week with heart trouble. Last Wednesday his condition was reported to be slightly improved, but on Friday he took a turn for the worse.

Mr. Rowat was born in Berwickshire, Scotland, 66 years ago. He came to this country when a young boy, and has been in the retail grocery business in London for 36 years. Company, died at 5:30 this morning boy, and has been in the retail groc-ery business in London for 36 years. He was a prominent member of the Retail Grocers' Association, and al-ways took an active part in the as-sociation's activities. A member of the sessions of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and past grand master of St. John's Lodge 209. Mr. Rowat was always keenly interested in church and Masonic work. He served as master of St. John's Lodge in 1892, being a member since 1886. 1892, being a member since 1886.

He is survived by his widow, two sons, Thomas and Gavin, and three daughters, Ann, Helen and Jean.

The funeral will be held from the late residence, 31 Cartwright street, to Woodland Cemetery, on Friday afternoon. Rev. Dr. McGregor will conduct the services.

LONDON GIVES WARM

n Toronto, and applied for assistance

This was not forthcoming for three "Finally I was allowed the use laboratory and given six weeks in which to perfect my discovery. Doc assist me. They decided that one would work for three weeks and the other for three weeks. As it turned out, Dr. Noble did not turn up, so Dr. Best was my sole comforte during that time Pays Tribute to Best. "Here I desire to pay tribute to the conscientious work and infinite patience of my good friend Dr. Best. I wish it known that the Nobel prize award shall be shared with my faithful colleague, for I want him to gain whatever reward that may come to us as equally as myself Dr. Banting then made an eloquen plea for a national research insti-tute. He told of a trip to France during which he had visited the tomb of the famous Pasteur, who tributions to suffering humanity were greater than those of any other "In eternal memory to the of the great chemist, Pasteur, France now has a wonderful research institute. It as to be deplored that ada is not equally progressive in this regard. Many of America's finest experimenters Canadians, but for lack of facilities in their native land they were com pelled to go to the United States. The splendid assistance rendered these men by United States laboratories, clinics and hospitals is of permanent credit to the great repub-

"It is lamentable to realize that Canadians, through want of the bare necessities for research work, are forced to go across the border."

To Found Research Institute.

Dr. Banting declared, however, that laymen and doctors had started a fund which they expected to be the foundation of a research institute in Canada. The objective was $1,000,000, and any student or professional man with ideas would be allowed free use of the institute's feeilities.

The tremendous influence of public health activities for the well-being of the world, was stressed in emphatic terms by Dr. Banting. He illustrated the benefits of public health in the typhoid fatalities during the South African war and during the recent European conflict. In 1902 more men died of typhoid than were killed by the enemy, while during the recent war only 14 deaths occurred among the entire Canadian forces at the front from that disease.
"In conclusion, let me remind you that Canadian colleges have turned out famous scientists such as Osler, Barker and Rowntree, who have been compelled to seek scope for their brilliant talents in the United States. her brilliant scientists because Can-

James Gray, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Col. Ib-botson Leonard, president of the Canadian Club, along with prominent citizens and persons prominer in medical circles throughout West ern Ontario attended the lunched Following short addresses by Mr. Gray and Professor Miller, the gathering, with Dr. Banting went to the Medical School, where a lecture was given by Dr. Weston Price of the Rockefeller Institute, Dr. Wrigh Toronto also delivered a talk to local and St. Thomas dentists who attended the Banting dinner as mem-bers of the London and Wigin Denists' Society. Dr. Banting will remain over nigh Dr. Banting will remain over light in London, staying with a forme college friend of his, Principal Graham of the South London Collegiate Dr. Banting was greeted at the C N. R. station when he arrived this morning at 11:40 by George Copeland, secretary of the Canadiac Club, and Dr. F. R. Miller, of the local Medical College. He was escorted to room 105 in the Tecumseh House

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE CAUSED PURPOSELY, CLAIN

Associated Press Despatch.
London, Oct. 31.—The extraordinary suggestion that the foot and mouth disease among cattle in this country has been brought about intentionally, was made by J. Barkitt a well-known stock breeder, at meeting of the Durham County agricultural committee yesterday, when he urged the committee to inquire into the origin of the disease.

The committee decided to approach the ministry of agriculture with regard to the wished-for inquiry.

Tonight's the Night Goblins Are To Hold Full Sway

when myriads of ghosts 'n everything stalk the land, and small boys and girls, grown-ups, too, hold parties, apple diving contests, and generally merry.

In the good old days, when London had the reputation of being a "rowdy" city, there were more "outside" than inside parties. Gangs of young men congregated, tore up wooden sidewalks for blocks, broke down gates, and generally did as much damage as possible is a few short hours.

However, times have changed and, although there are still a few gangs left of young chaps who tear down gates and fences, they are in the minority and the average small boy confines his attention to a peashcoter.

The stoday elicited the information that nothing out of the ordinary had been reported and that "gate night" was just as quiet as any other as far as the police were concerned. spool his mother has thrown away.

It is safe to say that there will be youngsters paraded in anticipation of great events night the same are special gatherings in London night in anticipation of great events are to be willed off this evening. tonight than on any other night of to be pulled off this evening

Tonight's the night that the goblins will get you "if you don't watch out." It's Halloween night, and the evening when myriads of ghosts 'n everything stating they have turned down for the stating the s many as a dozen engagements tonight.

Those who haven't been asked to dance or party have made arrange-ments to parade the streets in fancy costume, and Dundas and Richmond streets will look as if another Old Boys' celebration has been turned loose on the city.

Oct. 30 is known in police circles as "gate night," the evening on which the boys separate gates from their hinges. Inquiry at police headquar ters today elicited the information that nothing out of the ordinary had or a "tick-tack," made of a cast-off sell or rent report business as being

AROUND THE SCHOOLS

PLAN CHRISTMAS CONCERT. Plans for the annual Christmas who is to be married she concert of teachers and pupils of the Boyle Memorial school are already under way, according to Principal D. J. Ferguson, who expects that the entertainment will far surpass any given in previous years. BASKETBALL GAMES.

Lord Roberts school will be the ene of two interesting public school basketball games tonight, when Riv-erview and Ealing schools and Boyle Memorial and Ryerson schools meet in elimination contests for the championship of the city's schools

November 5 promises to be a red at the Ryerson school, as on that day some 200 of them will take part CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE. of 1923, the months of the year, the flowers, the seasons, etc. Principal Galpin stated that the children were working heart and soul to make it a afternoon, Miss Laura Cook is direct- amicable settlement. ing the pageant, which will start at

NOVEMBER 5 GALA DAY.

DAILY PAPERS AS TEXT BOOKS. daily papers is a method used by meeting yesterday afternoon Principal William Wallis of the Simulation subject of Professor Landon's address coe street school. Mr. Wallis en- was "Parliamentary Procedure," and courages the students under him to courages the students under him to in the course of his talk, he explained watch the papers and clip events of current history. He then urges the students to connect these up with the past, believing that the events of today have their counterpart in the past, as well as having their foundations on past events, now mat-

PRESENTATION TO TEACHER. Children of Grade 6 at the Chesley Children of Grade 6 at the Chesley avenue school as a token of appreciation of her friendship and regret at her leaving presented Miss Myrtle Corbin, their teacher, with an electric be much regretted by all the pupils in the school, having taught there for eight years. SCHOOL SOCCER.

Excitement is running high at Chesley avenue, Empress avenue a Boyle Memorial schools over the city Chesley and Empress avenue representatives meet, the winner to play off with Boyle Memorial for the BATTLED TO A DRAW.

A drawn battle was the short tussle between a representative of the Trafalgar school and one from Aberdeen school, when, after a mix-up in football game, the two resorted t other methods of settling their differences. As luck would have it, however, the principal of the school happened to gaze from his window ccess, rehearsals being held every into his presence and agreed to an

Students at the London East Collegiate were addressed by Prof. Fred. Teaching history by means of the Landon of Western University at a in the course of his talk, he explained House of Commons.

Associated Press Despatch. Mexico City, Oct. 31 .- A heavy

Coming Soon

A 1924 Oakland Travelling Demonstrator Car will be here within the next few days -proving by actual performance the re-markable efficiency of the new Oakland Six. watch for its arrival!

THE 1924 Oakland "6" will arrive soon. Watch our showroom window for exact time of its arrival.

For the first time in motor car history, you are being offered an opportunity to determine - in advance - a new motor car's exact quality!

The New 1924 Oakland Travelling Demonstrator is covering many miles daily, encountering all kinds of roads and varying weather conditions, proving conclusively the superior qualities of this New Model after months of gruelling service.

See also the Brand New Oakland models, at their new low prices, now on special exhibition at our showroom.

Beemer & Co. Limited

Authorized Oakland Dealer. 127-133 Queen's Ave. Tel. 5670.

Business Coupe 4-Pass. Coupe

Sport Roadster Sport Touring

The New